and the US occupation until 1972 These tiny dots on the Pacific Ocean became subject to the collective fate of the world However placing oneself in these tiny dots and looking at the world from within provides a picture that is totally different from looking at them externally There are numerous accounts by ethnographers and anthropologists who carried out research in this region of carnival masks and costumes their belief in the oceanic paradise worship of nature ancestor and women s spirituality Psychoanalysis of the anthropological research unfolds complexity of this field and deconstructs dualistic modern mind that separates nature from psyche What appears is an ecological perspective of the psyche of the new era

Romanticism and Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies,Senior Research Fellow in the Centre for Commercial Law Paul Davies,1998-02-15 Spiritual quest is at the very heart of poetry but in the materialistic climate of the late twentieth century this has been almost forgotten even by those claiming to be experts in interpreting literature How does the worldview common to the main esoteric traditions of East and West correspond to the aims of such Romantic poets as Shelley Keats Blake Coleridge and Wordsworth In Romanticism and Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies maintains that only in the light of the spiritual teachings of these traditions can the poetry and thinking of the Romantics be understood as they intended This is one of the first books to connect the creative nature of poetry to the core teachings of the esoteric tradition and thereby to bring out the true meaning of several Romantic writers whose works have been trivialized by a culture that has marginalized the spiritual and tied itself to material historical and social issues The author also shows that the Romantics were the first Western poets to imagine the relationship of the self to the environment as personal encounter In this sense the Romantics were recalling a long held secret of the esoteric human sciences not inventing a new one This book brings the deepest interests of the Romantics directly into contact with issues closest to present day students of the spiritual traditions and holistic perspectives

The Superhumanities Jeffrey J. Kripal,2024-05-31 A bold challenge to rethink the humanities as intimately connected to the superhuman and to decolonize reality itself One of the foremost historians of religion and a consummate storyteller Kripal makes a compelling case for restoring the anomalous and inexplicable to the heart of inquiry in the humanities A must read for anyone interested in the future of education society and indeed reality and for all who have experienced or would like to experience amazement

Priscilla Wald author of Contagious Cultures Carriers and the Outbreak Narrative What would happen if we reimagined the humanities as the superhumanities If we acknowledged and celebrated the undercurrent of the fantastic within our humanistic disciplines entirely new cultural worlds and meanings would become possible That is Jeffrey J Kripal s vision for the future to revive the suppressed dimension of the superhumanities which consists of rare but real altered states of knowledge that have driven the creative processes of many of our most revered authors artists and activists In Kripal s telling the history of the humanities is filled with precognitive dreams evolving superhumans and doubled selves The basic idea of the superhuman for Kripal is at the core of who and what the human species has tried to become over millennia and around the planet After diagnosing the basic malaise of the humanities that the truth must be depressing Kripal shows how it can all be done differently He argues that we have to decolonize reality itself if we are going to take human diversity seriously Toward this pluralist end he engages psychoanalytic Black critical feminist postcolonial queer and ecocritical theory He works through objections to the superhumanities while also recognizing the new realities represented by the contemporary sciences In doing so he tries to move beyond naysaying practices of critique toward a future that can embrace those critiques within a more holistic view a view that recognizes the human being as both a social political animal as well as an evolved cosmic species that understands and experiences itself as something super An electrifying glorious loving and almost deranged romp through humanity s greatest recurrent ideas and experiences The Superhumanities is for anyone who senses that the transformative power of books ideas and spiritual experiences are intertwined and too often estranged Jonathan Haidt author of The Righteous Mind Why Good People Are Divided by Politics and Religion Aziz Nasafi Lloyd Ridgeon,2020-11-25 Shows Nasafi and his legacy in a new light Nasafi s works are of particular interest because they contain valuable descriptions of the different Islamic world views of the age Includes substantial extracts to help illuminate this perceptive study of a neglected figure in the pantheon of Sufi thinkers The Making of Rhodesia Hugh Marshall Hole,2018-10-24 Initially published in 1926 this book seeks to clear some misconceptions of Southern and Northern Rhodesia at the time of the evolution of British colonies that bear the name of Rhodes their founder The author who lived there for twenty three years used official records and reports original photographs and his friends and his own narrative to tell this story The Way of the Beloved Robert Arsdale,Diana Van Arsdale,2016-11-18 The foundation of the Way of the Beloved is discovered in the heart of love itself where there lives and moves a will to exaltation of the other To truly love another is to will the spiritual ideal upon that beloved one When there is a mutual intention to exalt infusing the daily life of a man and woman they enter into the Way of the Beloved This handbook is an attempt to put into book form what authors Robert and Diana Van Arsdale have been teaching to small groups of couples since 1976 Their workshops offer an ageless set of protocols for the transformation of the love relationship between a woman and a man into a path of spiritual development Here they present an integrated body of progressive experiential exercises and meditations that were taught originally taught by Herman Rednick Simply stated The Way of the Beloved teaches a couple how to actualize the potential of their relationship through the intensification of love and compassion Designed for couples in search of spiritual and emotional exploration this guide offers methods intended to help them realize a vision of love fulfilled Jesus Christ, Sun of God David Fideler,1993-10-01 The early Christian Gnosis did not spring up in isolation but drew upon earlier sources In this book many of these sources are revealed for the first time Special emphasis is placed on the Hellenistic doctrine of the Solar Logos and the early Christian symbolism which depicted Christ as the Spiritual Sun the illumination source of order harmony and spiritual insight Based on 15 years of research this is a unique book which throws a penetrating light on the secret traditions of early Christianity It clearly demonstrates that number is at the heart of being Jesus Christ Sun of God illustrates how the Christian symbolism of the Spiritual Sun is derived from numerical symbolism of the ancient divinities The Signs of God Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee,2001-04-06 The Signs of God explores the importance of mystical consciousness at this time of global transition In the depths of the heart is hidden the secret purpose of creation which is the key to our present time of transformation The work of the mystic is to make this key accessible to humanity and so open the doors of revelation The possibilities of the future are present but veiled the joy of life is waiting to return The mystic can help us to awaken to the oneness that is essential to life and to recognize the signs of God that will guide us and reveal our true purpose Religion after Religion Steven M. Wasserstrom,1999-11-15 By the end of World War II religion appeared to be on the decline throughout the United States and Europe Recent world events had cast doubt on the relevance of religious belief and modernizing trends made religious rituals look out of place It was in this atmosphere that the careers of Scholem Eliade and Corbin the twentieth century s legendary scholars in the respective fields of Judaism History of Religions and Islam converged and ultimately revolutionized how people thought about religion Between 1949 and 1978 all three lectured to Carl Jung s famous Eranos circle in Ascona Switzerland where each in his own way came to identify the symbolism of mystical experience as a central element of his monotheistic tradition In this the first book ever to compare the paths taken by these thinkers Steven Wasserstrom explores how they overturned traditional approaches to studying religion by de emphasizing law ritual and social history and by extolling the role of myth and mysticism The most controversial aspect of their theory of religion Wasserstrom argues is that it minimized the binding character of moral law associated with monotheism The author focuses on the lectures delivered by Scholem Eliade and Corbin to the Eranos participants but also shows how these scholars generated broader interest in their ideas through radio talks poetry novels short stories autobiographies and interviews He analyzes their conception of religion from a broadly integrated comparative perspective sets their distinctive thinking into historical and intellectual context and interprets the striking success of their approaches Colour, Art and Empire Natasha Eaton,2013-10-28 Colour Art and Empire explores the entanglements of visual culture enchanted technologies waste revolution resistance and otherness The materiality of colour offers a critical and timely force field for approaching afresh debates on colonialism This book analyses the formation of colour and politics as qualitative overspill Colour can be viewed both as central and supplemental to early photography the totem alchemy tantra and mysticism From the eighteenth century Austrian Empress Maria Theresa to Rabindranath Tagore and Gandhi to 1970s Bollywood colour makes us adjust our take on the politics of the human sensorium as defamiliarising and disorienting The four chapters conjecture how European Indian and Papua New Guinean artists writers scientists activists anthropologists or their subjects sought to negotiate the highly problematic stasis of colour in the repainting of modernity Specifically the thesis of this book traces Europeans admiration and emulation of what they termed Indian colour to its gradual denigration and the emergence of a space of exception This space of exception pitted industrial colours against the colonial desire for a massive workforce whose slave like exploitation ignited riots against the production of pigments most notably indigo Feared or derided the figure of the vernacular dyer constituted a force capable of dismantling the imperial machinations of colour Colour thus wreaks havoc with Western expectations of biological determinism objectivity and eugenics Beyond the cracks of such discursive practice colour becomes a sentient and nomadic retort to be pitted against a perceived colonial hegemony The ideological reinvention of colour as a resource for independence struggles make it fundamental to multivalent genealogies of artistic and political action and their relevance to the present

In the Company of Friends Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee, 1994-08-08 The work of The Golden Sufi Center is to make available the teachings of the Sufi path Weaving together dreams and spiritual stories this wise rich deeply moving and significant book Andrew Harvey explores the inner journey and the group's role in facilitating it Temple & Contemplation Henry Corbin, 2013-10-28 First published in 1986 This volume brings together five lectures which were originally delivered at different sessions of the famous Eranos Conferences in Ascona Switzerland Henry Corbin himself had outlined the plan for this book whose title suggests that these diverse studies converge on a common spiritual centre
