The Leaven of the Saints Dawn Marie Beutner, 2023-03-20 The kingdom of heaven is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal till it was all leavened Matthew 13 33 How can we be part of the kingdom of heaven here and now and spread it to others like leaven causing a lump of dough to rise and expand Just look at the lives of the saints Over the past two millennia the Church has recognized thousands of men and women who have loved and imitated Christ so wholeheartedly that they transformed the world around them as they were transformed themselves The saints have come from every background people and era They have been rich and poor healthy and sick single and married members of the clergy and of the laity The Leaven of the Saints groups them according to the kind of Christian witness they have given the world as martyrs Fathers and Doctors of the Church priests and religious popes and bishops national heroes founders of religious orders married persons and more The vastness of this work reveals an important truth that each saint is a unique individual with a unique mission to grow in the knowledge and love of Christ and to make him better known and loved in the world

The writings of the Fathers of the Church have never been more widely available yet obtaining an exhaustive and userfriendly volume of patristics can still be a daunting task Without realizing it many priests seminarians members of religious communities and even laity already own a patristic library their Liturgy of the Hours In the four volumes of the Liturgy of the Hours the official daily prayer of the Catholic Church there are nearly 600 selections from the writings of Fathers and saints Seeing the potential of this vast collection as a theological resource Milton Walsh has organized these selections by topics according to the four pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church This topical concordance allows the reader to compare what the various authors have written on the same themes while a chronological timeline of the readings shows their relationship to each other in time Walsh has also provided background on the liturgical celebrations of the Church as well as historical information on each author In addition there is a chapter on how patristic readings can assist in understanding the Bible This fresh and original presentation of material that is literally at the fingertips of anyone praying the Liturgy of the Hours can be a tremendous aid to both religious devotion and theological study The History of Heresies Alphonsus M. Liguori,2004-10-28 Revelation, Mystical Phenomena and Divine Promises Deacon Albert Graham,2022-10-05

The reader will be appraised of how God has been speaking to His people through public and private revelation for over 2000 years A special chapter in this work deals with some saints and holy people who have had private revelations about or visits from souls in purgatory hell or heaven Another chapter and several of the appendixes are devoted to Marian Apparitions to include those that are approved not approved and those appending a decision by the Church By far one of the greatest strengths of this undertaking is the identification of some 43 categories of concomitant extraordinary phenomena and some of the saints and holy people who have experienced them Color paintings by artists are depicted of some saints experiencing such mystical phenomena Another unique feature of the book is a listing of some 600 individuals from the 13th to the 21st centuries who bore the stigmata By knowing that God is present and alive to His people this book may help bring others to a deeper faith in God Thinking Faith Anthony J. Kelly,2017-11-01

The title of this collection of essays is Thinking Faith Moods Methods and Mystery and it might need a word of explanation The aim is to suggest something of what is involved in thinking faith while indicating examples of my modest contribution over all these years Given the exuberant data of faith beliefs doctrines and tradition the task of the theologian is always to reflect on what is so richly given and to communicate in the most telling fashion its meaning There are certainly moods that colour the way we think even though theological writing must show an intellectual concentration of some kind That is quite compatible with a great variety of approaches sometimes more hopeful sometimes more sober defensive and argumentative There is also the question of methods The strange thing about a particular theological method or style of thought is that it is seldom an explicit series of procedures It is something more spontaneous and formed through the practices of many years Quite clearly in this collection of writings a number of methods is implied Whatever the mood whatever the method the mystery remains of God Christ and who we are in that light To this degree theology is a way of thinking within mystery not outside it In this respect doing theology is humbling for us theologians when confronted with the limited span of our knowledge and our poor capacities to express it There always remain infinite expanses of what is not yet given us to see so to leave theologians inarticulate in splendid defeat And yet so much has been given even in the most routine life of the Church in its Scriptures its sacraments and in the luminous witness of the many who have gone before us and live now in the light
