Anil de Silva-Vigier,Otto von Simson,Roger Packman Hinks,1964 Man Through His Art A. de Silva,O. von Simson,R. Hinks,1963 A History of the Laws of War: Volume 1 Alexander Gillespie,2011-09-06 This unique new work of reference traces the origins of the modern laws of warfare from the earliest times to the present day Relying on written records from as far back as 2400 BCE and using sources ranging from the Bible to Security Council Resolutions the author pieces together the history of a subject which is almost as old as civilisation itself The author shows that as long as humanity has been waging wars it has also been trying to find ways of legitimising different forms of combatants and regulating the treatment of captives This first book on warfare deals with the broad question of whether the patterns of dealing with combatants and captives have changed over the last 5 000 years and if so how In terms of context the first part of the book is about combatants and those who can lawfully take part in combat In many regards this part of the first volume is a series of less than ideal pathways This is because in an ideal world there would be no combatants because there would be no fighting Yet as a species we do not live in such a place or even anywhere near it either historically or in contemporary times This being so a second best alternative has been to attempt to control the size of military forces and therefore the bloodshed This is also not the case by which humanity has worked over the previous centuries Rather the clear assumption for thousands of years has been that authorities are allowed to build the size of their armed forces as large as they wish The restraints that have been applied are in terms of the quality and methods by which combatants are taken The considerations pertain to questions of biology such as age and sex geographical considerations such as nationality and the multiple nuances of informal or formal combatants These questions have also overlapped with ones of compulsion and whether citizens within a country can be compelled to fight without their consent Accordingly for the previous 3 000 years the question has not been whether there should be a limit on the number of soldiers but rather who is or is not a lawful combatant It has rarely been a question of numbers It has been and remains one of type The second part of this book is about people typically combatants captured in battle It is about what happens to their status as prisoners about the possibilities of torture assistance if they are wounded and what happens to their remains should they be killed and their bodies fall into enemy hands The theme that ties all of these considerations together is that all of the acts befall those who are to one degree or another captives of their enemies As such they are no longer masters of their own fate As a work of reference this first volume as part of a set of three is unrivalled and will be of immense benefit to scholars and practitioners researching and advising on the laws of warfare It also tells a story which throws fascinating new light on the history of international law and on the history of warfare itself

The Complete Sermons of C. H. Spurgeon, Book 1 (Vol. 1-3) C. H. Spurgeon, 2015-03-22 The story of Charles Haddon Spurgeon's life is nothing less than titanic Within 2 years and 6 months of accepting the pastorate of the New Park Street Chapel as a boy of 19 the Sunday service grew from 242 to over 7 000 in attendance What can account for the meteoric rise in popularity Why did so many wish to hear his sermons It is the same reason why one ought to study the sermons of Spurgeon to this day in a famished land of moralism he preached the bread of Jesus Christ Containing the first three volumes of the sixty three volumes published from the Metropolitan Tabernacle pulpit this book holds 164 sermons as plump as a partridge and as full of meat as an egg David A Attebury is currently pursuing a Masters of Divinity from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville Kentucky Newsletter ,1964 The Literary Digest ,1916 War, Peace and Organizational Ethics Michael Schwartz, Howard Harris, 2020-09-17 In this double blind peer reviewed volume expert contributors draw upon philosophers such as Aristotle Alasdair MacIntyre and Emmanuel Levinas in order to explore how the ethics of war and peace resonate with organizational ethics The Reception of Classical German Literature in England, 1760-1860, Volume 1 John Boening, 2020-02-11 The extensive scope of this collection means that this documentary record of the reception of German literature in England is a valuable scholarly resource One of the most important features of British literary and intellectual history over the past 250 years is the influence of German literature From the second half of the 18th Century through the first decades of the 19th German books and ideas attracted then gained the attention of a nation Despite the acknowledged importance of the influence on writers such as Coleridge and Carlyle the subject though often alluded to was rarely studied This collection provides a guidebook through the masses of periodical and allows the English side of the Anglo German literary relationship to be explored in detail In order to make the collection useful to scholars with a wide range of interest it has been divided into three parts Part 1 is a chronological presentation of commentary on German literature in general It also contains collective reviews of multiple German authors notices of important anthologies and reactions to influential works about Germany and its culture Part 2 collects reviews of 18th Century individual German authors and Part 3 is devoted to the English reception of Goethe and Schiller Parts 2 3 contain cross references to the collective reviews of Part 1 Containing over 200 British serials and articles and reviews from all the major English literary periodicals the collection also includes a broad sampling of opinion from the more general magazines including some popular religious publications The Advocate of Peace ,1898 The Athenæum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1878 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1876 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,1918 The Literary Digest Atlas of the New Europe and the Far East Allan Updegraff,1922 Proceedings, American Philosophical Society (vol. 99, no. 4) , The American Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1911 Books for the Teen Age New York Public Library,1968
