selected features and shorts by Mexico's sole internationally distributed art house director Julián Hernández. The third chapter explores the rising genre of documentary on transgender themes. The fourth chapter charts the growing trend of a gay lesbian or trans focused mainstream cinema. The final chapter addresses the rich and diverse history of queer representation in Mexico's dominant television genre and arguably national narrative, the telenovela. The book also includes an extensive interview with gay auteur Julián Hernández. The first book to come out of the Queer Screens series, Queer Mexico is a groundbreaking monograph for anyone interested in media or LGBT studies, especially as it relates to the culture of Latin America.

An Exile Revisits Cuba Gabriel Ness, 2016-02-11. In the summer of 2012, the author returned to his native Cuba to retrieve his birth certificate after an absence of 50 years, for the first 24 of which he lived in the United States. This memoir of his journey of personal and political discovery illuminates how the two countries, 90 miles apart yet opposites on the political spectrum, have both lost their way in the misguided pursuit of their divergent ideologies. The author presents a candid view of the revolution and U.S.-Cuban relations through conversations with everyday Havanans.

Far from Vietnam Nadia Tesich, 2012-04-16. Far from Vietnam is a coming-of-age story that concerns Ann, an American student living in Paris in the mid-1960s, who discovers herself first as a woman and then as a political activist. Her journey involves other American expatriates and their complicated relationship with French society, her travels to the former Yugoslavia and Greece, which are preludes to her involvement in organizing the first demonstration against the Vietnam War in Paris, and ultimately to a trip to Cuba where she sees socialism in action. Written in the immediate and tentative style of a journal, the novel draws us into the intimate world of a dedicated revolutionary who must change her own life before it can continue. Milo Yelesiyevich, Publisher. The Serbian Classics Press. Nadja Tesich's new novel Far from Vietnam is a brilliant work on the level of her previous novels; here she takes on a new locale and time period in her ongoing sensitive portrayals of a woman searching for tenderness in a lost world. Laura Shaine Cunningham. Nadja teaches a lesson. She teaches of the difference between having money and being high class. And on why the single way to be high class in this world of ours is to become a revolutionary against the Gordon Gekkos who rule all of us. Nstor Gorjovsky. Journalist. Buenos Aires. Praise for To Die In Chicago. As seen through the eyes of an innocent and idealistic 16-year-old immigrant girl from Yugoslavia, a tale of disillusionment, struggle, and resistance in the American heartland of the 1950s. Beautifully told, deeply felt. Rebecca Clare. Artist and Writer. This book surpasses Nadja Tesich's previous brilliant works Shadow, Partisan, and Native Land. She is an interesting literary treasure.
