Managing Built Heritage Derek Worthing, Stephen Bond, 2008-04-30 This book examines management of the built cultural heritage through the use of the concept of cultural significance. It considers how and why cultural significance is assessed and how it can be used as an effective focus and driver for management strategies and processes. Effective management of the built cultural heritage requires a clear understanding of what makes a place significant and how that significance might be vulnerable but the book also emphasises that this understanding of cultural significance must inform all activities in order to ensure that what is important about the place is protected and enhanced. The book was written in the midst of much fundamental rethinking both nationally and internationally on approaches to the conservation of our built cultural heritage. Managing Built Heritage the role of cultural significance is analytical and reflective but also draws on real life examples to illustrate particular issues looking at current approaches and drawing out best practice. The authors consider key policies and procedures that need to be implemented to help ensure effective management and the book will be useful for specialists in built cultural heritage conservation officers built heritage managers architects planners and surveyors as well as for facilities and estates managers whose building stock includes listed buildings or buildings in conservation areas

Historic Cities in the Face of Disasters Fatemeh Farnaz Arefian, Judith Ryser, Andrew Hopkins, Jamie Mackee, 2021-09-13 This book examines reconstruction and resilience of historic cities and societies from multiple disciplinary and complementary perspectives and by doing so it helps researchers and practitioners alike among them reconstruction managers urban governance and professionals. The book builds on carefully selected and updated papers accepted for the 2019 Silk Cities international conference on reconstruction recovery and resilience of historic cities and societies the third Silk Cities conference held in L'Aquila Italy 10-12 July 2019 working with University of L'Aquila and UCL. This multi scale and multidisciplinary book offers cross sectoral and complimentary voices from multiple stakeholders including academia urban governance NGOs and local populations. It examines post disaster reconstruction strategies and case studies from Europe Asia and Latin America that provide a valuable collection for anyone who would like to get a global overview on the subject matter. It thereby enables a deeper understanding of challenges opportunities and approaches in dealing with historic cities facing disasters at various geographical scales. Additionally it brings together historical approaches to the reconstruction of historical cities and those of more recent times. Thus it can be used as a reference book for global understanding of the subject matter
