Higher Education in the United States James J. F. Forest,Kevin Kinser,2002-06-21 Surveys the changing landscape of American higher education from academic freedom to virtual universities from campus crime to Pell Grants from the Student Privacy Act to student diversity In the years following World War II college and university enrollment doubled students revolted faculty unionized and community colleges evolved Tuition and technology soared as did the number of first generation minority and women students These changes radically transformed the American system of postsecondary education Today that system is in trouble Its aging professoriate prepares for retirement but low academic salaries can no longer attract the best minds to replace them A flood of corporate dollars funds commercial research but money for basic research the seedbed of American scientific preeminence has dried up Colleges and universities also face heated competition with for profit education providers for students faculty and external financial support along with the costs of providing remedial education to growing numbers of students who are unprepared for postsecondary education Higher Education in the United States provides a comprehensive analysis of these issues and others that scholars and practitioners of higher education study discuss and grapple with on a daily basis Choice ,2001 American Educational Research Association Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,1994 Managing Effective Learning and Teaching Ann R J Briggs,Daniela Sommefeldt,2002-07-23 Presenting the theory underlying management of teaching and learning as well as discussion of good practice in schools and colleges the authors of this volume discuss the rationale for learning and teaching though a consideration of curriculum design This is linked to models of learning and teaching and the management of contexts for learning together with the roles and responsibilities of curriculum managers Examples are drawn from international settings as well as from the United Kingdom encouraging the reader to explore the context of managing learning and teaching within his her own institution The authors provide self study material with extensive links to other key texts in the field This book is a valuable source book for curriculum managers at all levels in schools and colleges as well as a course book for Masters level study in educational management Campus Activities Programming ,2000 Accreditation of the Two-year College Carolyn Prager,1993 Intended as a forum for the discussion of postsecondary accreditation this book addresses pragmatic issues such as constituent satisfaction cost and redundant efforts as well as such strategic concerns as accreditation s potential to provide leadership in the areas of transfer articulation and general education The following 10 chapters are included 1 Regional Accreditation and Two Year Colleges by Robert S Palinchak 2 Accreditation and Two Year Branch Campuses by Corrinne A Caldwell and Lawrence S Cote 3 The Role of Accreditation and General Education in Career Curricula by Carolyn Prager 4 Cost Benefit Analyses of Accreditation by Charles R Reidlinger and Carolyn Prager 5 Institutional Accreditation Student Outcomes Assessment and the Open Ended Institution by James C Palmer 6 The President s Role in Building Internal Consensus for Accreditation by Evan S Dobelle 7 The Impact of Accreditation on Small Colleges by Eduardo J Marti 8 After Accreditation How To Institutionalize Outcomes Based Assessment by G Jeremiah Ryan 9 Accreditation and the Community College Challenges and Opportunities by Howard L Simmons and 10 Sources and Information Accreditation and the Community College by David Deckelbaum MAB
