Key writings from broader literature are included and the collection of key writings on the investigation and study of management and marketing in the museum are of great benefit not only to those studying the subject but also to professionals working and developing within the field. Emerging Practices in International Development Evaluation Stewart I. Donaldson, Tarek Azzam, Ross F. Conner, 2013-03-01. The impetus for this volume comes from reflecting on many years of experience successes and failures in development evaluation in Asia and Africa and from recent work supported by the Rockefeller Foundation on Rethinking Reshaping and Reforming Evaluation. The concepts frameworks and ideas presented in this volume are a useful contribution to the ongoing efforts at rethinking reforming and reshaping international development evaluation. They come from leading thinkers and practitioners in development evaluation research and academia who have recognized that development evaluation must evolve if it is to respond to the challenges of the 21st Century and play a meaningful role in social and economic transformation. This volume will be of great interest to evaluation scholars practitioners and students particularly to those interested in international development projects programs and policies. This book will be appropriate for a wide range of courses including Introduction to Evaluation International Development Evaluation Program Evaluation Policy Evaluation and evaluation courses in International Development International Relations Public Policy Public Health Human Services Sociology and Psychology. Intellectual Capital and Technological Innovation: Knowledge-Based Theory and Practice López Sáez, Pedro, Castro, Gregorio Martín de, Navas López, José Emilio, Delgado Verde, Miriam, 2010-06-30.
