Winn, 2013-01-28 This volume considers aesthetics the impact of technological innovation on the foundations of consumer advocacy contracting behaviour control over intellectual capital and information privacy A unique and timely perspective on these issues is presented by internationally renowned experts who provide novel approaches to the question of what consumer protection might consist of in the context of technological innovation Contemporary Hollywood Masculinities Susanne Kord, Elisabeth Krimmer, 2013-12-04 Kord and Krimmer investigate the most common male types cops killers fathers cowboys superheroes spies soldiers rogues lovers and losers by tracing changing concepts of masculinity in popular Hollywood blockbusters from 1992 to 2008 the Clinton and Bush eras against a backdrop of contemporary political events social developments and popular American myths Their in depth analysis of over sixty films from The Matrix and Iron Man to Pirates of the Caribbean and The Lord of the Rings shows that movies far from being mere entertainment respond directly to today s social and political realities from consumerism to family values to the War on Terror Red Alert Ewa Mazierska, Alfredo Suppia, 2016-05-02 Scholars and students of film science fiction and Marxist culture will enjoy Red Alert The Oxford Handbook of Dance and the Popular Screen Melissa Blanco Borelli, 2014-07-01 The Oxford Handbook of Dance and the Popular Screen sets the agenda for the study of dance in popular moving images films television shows commercials music videos and YouTube and offers new ways to understand the multi layered meanings of the dancing body by engaging with methodologies from critical dance studies performance studies and film media analysis Through thorough engagement with these approaches the chapters demonstrate how dance on the popular screen might be read and considered through bodies and choreographies in moving media Questions the contributors consider include How do dance and choreography function within the filmic apparatus What types of bodies are associated with specific dances and how does this affect how dance s is are perceived in the everyday How do the dancing bodies on screen negotiate power access and agency How are multiple choreographies of identity e.g. race class gender sexuality and nation set in motion through the narrative dancing bodies and or dance style What types of corporeal labors dance training choreographic skill rehearsal the constructed notion of natural talent are represented or ignored What role does a specific film have in the genealogy of Hollywood dance film How does the Hollywood dance film inform how dance operates in making cultural meanings Whether looking at Bill Bojangles Robinson s tap steps in Stormy Weather or Baby s leap into Johnny Castle s arms in Dirty Dancing or even Neo s backwards bend in The Matrix the book s arguments offer powerful new scholarship on dance in the popular screen Sacred Reality, Digital Simulation Enrico Beltramini, 2025-07-29 This study explores the relationship between the sacred and the virtual emphasizing the sacred as a divinely dependent consecrated space activated through ritual mediating between the profane and the holy The central argument is that the virtual is fundamentally incompatible with the ritual form a concept developed by Romano Guardini and others including Joseph Ratzinger which holds that the sacred is not merely acknowledged but made present through ritualized actions that require tangible participatory engagement Even if the virtual realm were acknowledged as real and retained both the bodily presence of the faithful and the Divine Presence the rite would still be ineffective Virtuality prevents the proper enactment of the rite rendering it ineffective At its core the ritual form is performative embodied and consecratory It requires physical presence material elements and a structured sequence of gestures symbols and words that together make the divine encounter possible Their absence in virtual spaces disrupts ritual form compromising its Terrorism, Technology and Apocalyptic Futures Maximiliano E. Korstanje, 2019-03-15 This book sacramental function centers on the power of mythical narratives and technology in creating the idea of a world that should be purged The introduction of sin the fall and other disruptive conflict have led mankind towards a world of scarcity where suffering and sacrifice prevail The author analyzes this apocalypse theory which describes humans perversion by the use of technology self consciousness and knowledge Based on an anthropological viewpoint the book not only discusses the nature of bottom days but explores other related sub themes such as capitalism terrorism dark tourism the essence of evil and the power of prophecy coining the term than acapitalism to denote a new stage of capitalism where death is the main commodity Thinking on Screen Thomas E. Wartenberg, 2007-10-31 Thinking on Screen Film as Philosophy is an exchanged accessible and thought provoking examination of the way films raise and explore complex philosophical ideas Written in a clear and engaging style Thomas Wartenberg examines films ability to discuss and even criticize ideas that have intrigued and puzzled philosophers over the centuries such as the nature of personhood the basis of morality and epistemological skepticism Beginning with a demonstration of how specific forms of philosophical discourse are presented cinematically Wartenberg moves on to offer a systematic account of the ways in which specific films undertake the task of philosophy Focusing on the films The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance Modern Times The Matrix Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind The Third Man The Flicker and Empire Wartenberg shows how these films express meaningful and pertinent philosophical ideas This book is essential reading for students of philosophy with an interest in film aesthetics and film theory It will also be of interest to film enthusiasts intrigued by the philosophical implications of film The God Tube James M. Lawler, 2010 Explores philosophical and religious themes in popular films and television shows Provided by publisher Contemporary Philosophy with the Matrix Movies O. Bradley Bassler, 2016-12-14 This book charts the shape of future philosophical investigation by posing the question What is the Matrix Guided by the example of the Matrix film trilogy the author examines issues ranging from simulation proof and action to value culture and mythology offering a progressively deeper diagnosis of modern philosophical conditions In contrast to the contemporary focus upon cognitive science and a commitment to the distinction between appearance and reality this book helps readers to explore the argument that such abstractions are inevitably displaced by a more concrete distinction between dreaming and waking with the Matrix as the real and only world we inhabit Researchers and scholars will find this work an engaging and enlightening examination of reality via the medium of popular culture and film The Challenges of Democracy in the War on Terror Maximiliano E. Korstanje, 2018-09-03 This book unravels the role of democracy after the 9 11 terrorist attacks and reflects important debates surrounding the security of Muslim communities in the years to come It looks at the problems of torture violence and the legal resources available to contemporary democracies to confront terrorism While terrorism is often regarded as one of the major threats to the West and the nation state this book explores the notion that a disciplined sense of terror is what keeps society working The strengths and limitations of liberalism are examined as well as the ethical dilemma of torture and human right violations in the struggle against terrorism This book carefully dissects the origin of the nation state and how it keeps society united The author offers a creative and unique approach to democracy and worldwide terrorism exploring the consequences for the nation state This book looks at the connections between terrorism mobility consumption torture and fear It will be of interest to researchers as well as postgraduate and postdoctoral students within the fields of Human Geography Politics Media and International Relations
