

Your Shadow

By Maya Anthony

By my side, you always stay,
In the night, or light of day,
Silent partner, dark and clear,
My shadow, always near.

Stretching long in morning's glow,
Or shrinking when the sun is low,
Mimicking my every stride,
You're the echo by my side.

Through the highs and through the lows,
Wherever life's journey goes,
Unspoken bond, always true,
My shadow, I see you.

Annual List of New and Important Books Added to the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library, 1898 The Poems of W.B. Yeats Peter McDonald, 2023-05-31 In this multi volume edition the poetry of W B Yeats 1865 1939 is presented in full with newly established texts and detailed wide ranging commentary Yeats began to write verse in the nineteenth century and over time his own arrangements of poems repeatedly revised and rearranged both texts and canon This edition of Yeats s poetry presents all his verse both published and unpublished including a generous selection of textual variants from the many manuscript and printed sources The edition also supplies the most extensive commentary on Yeats s poetry to date explaining specific references and setting poems in their contexts it also gives an account of the vast range of both literary and historical influences at work on the verse The poems are presented in order of composition and major revisions or rewritings of poems result in separate inclusions in chronological sequence for these writings as they were subsequently reconceived by the poet In this third volume Yeats s poetry of the first decade of the twentieth century is brought into sharp focus revealing the extent of his efforts to re fashion a style that had already made him a well known poet All of the major modes in Yeats s earlier work are subject to radical re imagining in these years from poetic narrative founded in Irish myth in poems such as Baile and Aillinn and The Old Age of Queen Maeve to the symbolist drama poetry of The Shadowy Waters here edited in its two completely different versions of 1900 and 1906 In a decade when the theatre was one of Yeats s principal concerns his lyric poems which were becoming increasingly explicit in personal terms began to discover new intensities of conversational pitch and mythic resonance Poems such as The Folly of Being Comforted Adam s Curse No

Second Troy and The Fascination of What's Difficult are given close attention in this new edition alongside topical and epigrammatic pieces that are often passed over in accounts of Yeats's development. The evolving complexities of Yeats's personal and political lives are crucial to his artistic growth in these years and the commentary gives these generous attention showing how the poetry both feeds upon and often transcends the circumstances of its composition. The volume offers strong evidence for this decade as a crucial one in Yeats's poetic life in which the poet created wholly new registers for his verse as well as new dimensions for his imaginative vision. Katharine O'Neill Maynard, 1916 Re-Inventing the Postcolonial (in the) Metropolis Cecile Sandten, Annika Bauer, 2016-09-27 The notion of the postcolonial metropolis has gained prominence in the last two decades both within and beyond postcolonial studies. Disciplines such as sociology and urban studies however have tended to focus on the economic inequalities, class disparities and other structural and formative aspects of the postcolonial metropolises that are specific to Western conceptions of the city at large. It is only recently that the depiction of postcolonial metropolises has been addressed in the writings of Suketu Mehta, Chris Abani, Amit Chaudhuri, Salman Rushdie, Aravind Adiga, Helon Habila, Sefi Atta and Zakes Mda among others. Most of these works probe the urban specifics and physical and cultural topographies of postcolonial cities while highlighting their agential capacity to defy appropriate and abrogate the superimposition of theories of Western modernity and urbanism. These ASNEL Papers are all concerned with the idea of the postcolonial in the metropolis from various disciplinary viewpoints as drawn from a great range of cityscapes spread out over five continents. The essays explore on the one hand ideas of spatial subdivision and inequality, political repression, social discrimination, economic exploitation and cultural alienation and on the other the possibility of transforming, reinventing and reconfiguring the postcolonial condition in and through literary texts and visual narratives. In this context the volume covers a broad spectrum of theoretical and thematic approaches to postcolonial and metropolitan topographies and their depictions in writings from Australia and New Zealand, South Africa, South Asia and greater Asia as well as the UK, addressing issues such as modernity and market economies but also caste, class and social and linguistic aspects. At the same time they reflect on the postcolonial metropolis and postcolonialism in the metropolis by concentrating on an urban imaginary which turns on notions of spatial subdivision and inequality, political repression, social discrimination, economic exploitation and cultural alienation as the continuing postcolonial condition.
