history culture and literature Previously published in cloth as The Dictionary of Native American Literature A Biobibliography of Native American Writers, 1772-1924 Daniel F. Littlefield, James W. Parins, 1985 Covers works written in English by American Indians and Alaska natives from Colonial times to 1924 Native American Writers Stanley H. Barkan, 1991 That the People Might Live Jace Weaver, 1997 Loyalty to the community is the highest value in Native American cultures argues Jace Weaver In That the People Might Live he explores a wide range of Native American literature from 1768 to the present taking this sense of community as both a starting point and a lens Weaver considers some of the best known Native American writers such as Leslie Marmon Silko Gerald Vizenor and Vine Deloria as well as many others who are receiving critical attention here for the first time He contends that the single thing that most defines these authors writings and makes them deserving of study as a literature separate from the national literature of the United States is their commitment to Native community and its survival He terms this commitment communitism a fusion of community and activism The Native American authors are engaged in an ongoing quest for community and write out of a passionate commitment to it They write literally that the People might live Drawing upon the best Native and non Native scholarship including the emerging postcolonial discourse as well as a close reading of the writings themselves Weaver adds his own provocative insights to help readers to a richer understanding of these too often neglected texts A scholar of religion he also sets this literature in the context of Native cultures and religious traditions and explores the tensions between these traditions and Christianity A Biobibliography of Native American Writers, 1772-1924 Daniel F. Littlefield, James W. Parins, 1981 A listing alphabetically by author of works written in English by Native Americans excluding those from Canada published between 1772 and the end of 1924 Entries for each writer are arranged chronologically Includes index of writers by tribal affiliation a subject index and brief biographies of the writers Listening to the Land Lee Schweninger, 2008 Looks at the challenges faced by Native American writers who confront stereotypical representations as they assert their own ethical relationship with the earth Lee Schweninger considers a range of genres by Native writers from various parts of the United States Contextualizing these works within the origins evolution and perpetuation of the green labels imposed on American Indians Schweninger shows how writers often find themselves denying some land ethic stereotypes while seeming to embrace others From publisher description Sister Nations Heid E. Erdrich, Laura Tohe, 2010-06 This anthology of fiction prose and poetry celebrates the rich diversity of writing by Native American women today Editors Heid E Erdrich and Laura Tohe have gathered stories from across the nation that celebrate record and explore Native American women's roles in community The result is a rich tapestry that contains work by established writers along with emerging and first time authors Contributors include Louise Erdrich Joy Harjo Diane Glancy Elizabeth Cook Lynn Allison Hedge Coke LeAnne Howe Roberta Hill Kim Blaaser Linda LeGarde Grover with a foreword by Winona LaDuke The writings included range from the personal to the political from notions of romantic love to the realities of marriage from finding a place in modern society to incorporating tradition in daily life Whether it s Louise Erdrich s heartbreaking story The Shawl Diane Glancy s tightly distilled poems or Joy Harjo s elegant and fanciful How to Get to Planet Venus all of these works explore both what it means to be a woman and how those realities are complicated by the Native American experience The editors have divided these lively and thought provoking pieces into four sections Changing Women which deals with the stages of a woman s life awareness of female ancestors and women s traditions of healing and making art Strong Hearts which shows Indian women enduring with love defending with fierce judgment and reaching out across history to protect the people New Age Pocahontas which reveals the humor and complexity of stereotypes and simplified images of Native American women and In the Arms of the Skies which explores the ways in which typical notions about romantic love and marriage are put to the test Sister Nations also includes full biographies of all the contributors commentary from many of the authors on their work and a bibliography of relevant publications

Native American Literature: A Very Short Introduction Sean Teuton,2017-12-20 North American indigenous literature began over thirty thousand years ago when indigenous people began telling stories of emergence and creation journey and quest and heroism and trickery By setting indigenous literature in historical moments Sean Teuton skillfully traces its evolution from the ancient role of bringing rain and healing the body to its later purpose in resisting European invasion and colonization into its current place as a world literature that confronts dominance while celebrating the imagination and resilience of indigenous lives By the time Europeans arrived in North America indigenous people already understood the power of written language and the need to transmit philosophy history and literature across generations and peoples Seeking out multiple literary forms such as sermon poetry and novel to serve differing worldviews indigenous authors have shaped their writing into North American indigenous literature as we recognize it today In this lucid narrative Sean Teuton leads readers into indigenous worlds He describes the invention of a written indigenous language the first indigenous language newspaper and the literary occupation of Alcatraz Island Along the way readers encounter the diversity of indigenous peoples who owing to their differing lands livelihoods and customs molded literature to a nation s specific needs As Teuton shows indigenous literature is one of the best places for understanding indigenous views about land and society and the role of humanity in the cosmos In turning to celebrated contemporary authors such as Thomas King Leslie Silko Sherman Alexie Louise Erdrich and James Welch Teuton demonstrates that like indigenous people indigenous literature continues to survive because it adapts both honoring the past and reaching for the future
