Naturally Loving Harlequin:

Naturally Loving Catherine Spencer,1991 Caring for Our Natural Community Susan Reel,1989 A Natural History of the Romance Novel Pamela Regis,2013-08-31 The romance novel has the strange distinction of being the most popular but least respected of literary genres While it remains consistently dominant in bookstores and on best seller lists it is also widely dismissed by the critical community Scholars have alleged that romance novels help create subservient readers who are largely women by confining heroines to stories that ignore issues other than love and marriage Pamela Regis argues that such critical studies fail to take into consideration the personal choice of readers offer any true definition of the romance novel or discuss the nature and scope of the genre Presenting the counterclaim that the romance novel does not enslave women but on the contrary is about celebrating freedom and joy Regis offers a definition that provides critics with an expanded vocabulary for discussing a genre that is both classic and contemporary sexy and entertaining Taking the stance that the popular romance novel is a work of literature with a brilliant pedigree Regis asserts that it is also a very old stable form She traces the literary history of the romance novel from canonical works such as Richardson s Pamela through Austen s Pride and Prejudice Bront s Jane Eyre and E M Hull s The Sheik and then turns to more contemporary works such as the novels of Georgette Heyer Mary Stewart Janet Dailey Jayne Ann Krentz and Nora Roberts A Natural History of the Ducks: Plectropterinae, Dendrocygninae, Anatinae (in part) (1 v.) John Charles Phillips,1986-01-01 Reproduced from rare original worth 5 000 great nature classic covers 200 species of ducks Exhaustive unsurpassed study Includes illustrations by Fuertes Brooks others 74 full color plates 102 black and white plates 117 maps Clothbound 4 volumes bound as two The Gentleman's Magazine ,1784 Contains opinions and comment on other currently published newspapers and magazines a selection of poetry essays historical events voyages news foreign and domestic including news of North America a register of the month s new publications a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs a summary of monthly events vital statistics births deaths marriages preferments commodity prices Samuel Johnson contributed parliamentary reports as Debates of the Senate of Magna Lilliputia Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review ,1783 An Imperialist Love Story Amira Jarmakani,2015-07-31 A curious figure stalks the pages of a distinct subset of mass market romance novels aptly called desert romances Animalistic yet sensitive dark and attractive the desert prince or sheikh emanates manliness and raw sexual power In the years since September 11 2001 the sheikh character has steadily risen in popularity in romance novels even while depictions of Arab masculinity as backward and violent in nature have dominated the cultural landscape An Imperialist Love Story contributes to the broader conversation about the legacy of orientalist representations of Arabs in Western popular culture Combining close readings of novels discursive analysis of blogs and forums and interviews with authors Jarmakani explores popular investments in the war on terror by examining the collisions between fantasy and reality in desert romances Focusing on issues of security freedom and liberal multiculturalism she foregrounds the role that desire plays in contemporary formations of U S imperialism Drawing on transnational feminist theory and cultural studies An Imperialist Love Story offers a radical reinterpretation of the war on terror demonstrating romance to be a powerful framework for understanding how it works and how it perseveres Speaking the Unspeakable Peter

Michelson,1992-11-17 This book studies the literary and cinematic functions of the pornographic as a development from a poetics of obscenity It focuses on the developments of French British and American artistic pornography since the eighteenth century Discussing female literary figures including Hall Wharton Nin Reage Jong and Shulman such men as Cleland Sade Beardsley Lawrence Joyce and Miller and film makers such as Brakhage Jack Smith Bruce Conner Bertolucci Oshima and Wertmuller Michelson analyzes both the use of aesthetic pornography and the philosophical cultural and legal implications of its use He proposes that realizing the obscene in the sense of speaking the unspeakable is the principle aesthetic function of pornography A Natural History of the Ducks John Charles Phillips,1986 Volume 2 of two volume set Great nature classic covers 200 species of ducks Includes illustrations by Fuertes Brooks others Total in set 74 full color plates 102 black and white plates 117 maps Utopian Negotiation Oddvar Holmesland,2013-06-12 Aphra Behn 1640 1689 and Margaret Cavendish 1623 1673 were two of the boldest women authors of seventeenth century England They made gestures toward a utopian future involving female emancipation and gender agreement but depicted a world too complex for simple answers In the first book length exploration of the two authors together Holmesland reevaluates the nature of utopianism in the writings of both considering a wide range of their literary output Both writers try to avoid fixed positions exploring areas in between seeking mediating solutions through utopian negotiation Requiring more equal gender relations for instance they challenge patriarchalism however while seeking to redefine the heroic code of honor idealizing gentleness in men they call for a femininity with heroic resources Aspiring to such ideals of male female mutuality both authors extend this thinking to their view of the body politic Loving with a Vengeance Tania Modleski,2008-03-25 Upon its first publication Loving with a Vengeance was a groundbreaking study of women readers and their relationship to mass market romance fiction Feminist scholar and cultural critic Tania Modleski has revisited her widely read book bringing to this new edition a review of the issues that have in the intervening years shaped and reshaped questions of women s reading With her trademark acuity and understanding of the power both of the mass produced object film television or popular literature and the complex workings of reading and reception she offers here a framework for thinking about one of popular culture s central issues This edition includes a new introduction a new chapter and changes throughout the existing text The cradle song. The lover. Love magic. Poor John. Madame Pepita Gregorio Martínez Sierra,1922 Plays of G. Martinez Sierra: The cradle song. The lover. Love magic. Poor John. Madame Pepita Gregorio Martínez Sierra,1922 The Plays of G. Martinez Sierra ...: The cradle song. The lover. Love magic. Poor John. Madame Pepita Gregorio Martínez Sierra,1921 *The cradle song. Reading the

Romance Janice A. Radway,2009-11-18 Originally published in 1984 Reading the Romance challenges popular and often demeaning myths about why romantic fiction one of publishing s most lucrative categories captivates millions of women readers Among those who have disparaged romance reading are feminists literary critics and theorists of mass culture They claim that romances enforce the woman reader s dependence on men and acceptance of the repressive ideology purveyed by popular culture Radway questions such claims arguing that critical attention must shift from the text itself taken in isolation to the complex social event of reading She examines that event from the complicated business of publishing and distribution to the individual reader s engagement with the text Radway s provocative approach combines reader response criticism with anthropology and feminist psychology Asking readers themselves to explore their reading motives habits and rewards she conducted interviews in a midwestern town with forty two romance readers whom she met through Dorothy Evans a chain bookstore employee who has earned a reputation as an expert on romantic fiction Evans defends her customers choice of entertainment reading romances she tells Radway is no more harmful than watching sports on television We read books so we won t cry is the poignant explanation one woman offers for her reading habit Indeed Radway found that while the women she studied devote themselves to nurturing their families these wives and mothers receive insufficient devotion or nurturance in return In romances the women find not only escape from the demanding and often tiresome routines of their lives but also a hero who supplies the tenderness and admiring attention that they have learned not to expect The heroines admired by Radway s group defy the expected stereotypes they are strong independent and intelligent That such characters often find themselves to be victims of male aggression and almost always resign themselves to accepting conventional roles in life has less to do Radway argues with the women readers fantasies and choices than with their need to deal with a fear of masculine dominance These romance readers resent not only the limited choices in their own lives but the patronizing attitude that men especially express toward their reading tastes In fact women read romances both to protest and to escape temporarily the narrowly defined role prescribed for them by a patriarchal culture Paradoxically the books that they read make conventional roles for women seem desirable It is this complex relationship between culture text and woman reader that Radway urges feminists to address Romance readers she argues should be encouraged to deliver their protests in the arena of actual social relations rather than to act them out in the solitude of the imagination In a new introduction Janice Radway places the book within the context of current scholarship and offers both an explanation and critique of the study s limitations
