Nature Of Human Values:

The Nature of Human Values Milton Rokeach, 1973 Milton Rokeach's book The Nature of Human Values 1973 and the Rokeach Value Survey which the book served as the test manual for occupied the final years of his career In it he posited that a relatively few terminal human values are the internal reference points that all people use to formulate attitudes and opinions and that by measuring the relative ranking of these values one could predict a wide variety of behavior including political affiliation and religious belief This theory led to a series of experiments in which changes in values led to measurable changes in opinion for an entire small city in the state of Washington

The Nature of Human Values Milton Rokeach, 1976 A Theory of Human Values Michael H. Mitias, 2025-07-05 In this book the author argues that human values do not fall from a metaphysical or physical sky nor do they fall from the mind of an ivory tower philosopher Firstly they originate from the human essence which emerges as a unique phenomenon from the natural process and inheres as a potentiality in the formal organization of the human body moreover the human essence emerges as a life force and seeks to exist and fulfill its destiny according to its nature Secondly the human essence does not emerge as a gift of nature to any particular society but to all the societies that comprise the human world Finally human values arise as an existential response to peremptory desires that express essential demands of the human essence as a primary impulse to human life

Understanding Human Values Milton Rokeach, 2008-06-30 This volume presents theoretical methodological and empirical advances in understanding and also in the effects of understanding individual and societal values

Human Values and Ethics Prof. Bhushan Manchanda, This book has been designed for the undergraduate and postgraduate programmes in different fields such as Social Sciences Management Engineering Architecture Agriculture Medical Pharmacy and others in such a way that it covers both the theory conceptual foundation as well as the illustrative cases and offers authoritative approaches to Human Values and Ethics The prime need of Value Education is to understand human aspirations to develop the students personality and character and to ingrain values towards tolerance dignity morality decency and respect in life The main objectives of the promotion of Human Values are to create awareness conviction and commitment to values for improving the quality of life of the people through education and for advancing their mental physical and emotional well being On the other hand the values of social justice integrity trust respect and commitment are at the core of Ethics that are accepted standards and guiding principles of personal social and business behaviour Codes of Ethics are to help and guide members in performing their job functions according to sound socially responsible and consistent ethical principles

Human Values from the Greeks to Modern Times Glenn S. Visher, 1997 How did human values develop Were they inherent in our being Were they selected to insure human survival For those interested in understanding the foundations for their own belief system this book provides thought provoking answers to these questions     Judaism, Human Rights, and Human Values Lenn Evan Goodman,1998 Following on the heels of his critically acclaimed God of Abraham Oxford 1996 Lenn E Goodman here focuses on rights their grounding in the deserts of beings and the dignity of persons In an incisive contemporary dialogue between reason and revelation Goodman argues for ethical standards and public policies that respect human rights and support the preservation of all beings animals plants econiches species habitats and the monuments of nature and culture Immersed in the Jewish and philosophical sources Goodmans argument ranges from the fetus in the womb to the modern nation state from the problems of pornography and tobacco advertising to the rights of parents and children individuals and communities the powerful and powerless the most ancient and the most immediate problems of human life and moral responsibility Guided by the probing argumentation that Goodman lays out with distinctive often poetic clarity the reader will emerge enlightened and prepared to respond with intelligence and commitment to the sobering moral challenges of the coming century This is a book for anyone concerned with law ethics and the human prospect     Neurobiology of Human Values Jean-Pierre P. Changeux,Antonio Damasio,Wolf Singer,2006-03-30 Man has been pondering for centuries over the basis of his own ethical and aesthetic values Until recent times such issues were primarily fed by the thinking of philosophers moralists and theologists or by the findings of historians or sociologists relating to universality or variations in these values within various populations Science has avoided this field of investigation within the confines of philosophy Beyond the temptation to stay away from the field of knowledge science may also have felt itself unconcerned by the study of human values for a simple heuristic reason namely the lack of tools allowing objective study For the same reason researchers tended to avoid the study of feelings or consciousness until over the past two decades this became a focus of interest for many neuroscientists It is apparent that many questions linked to research in the field of neuroscience are now arising The hope is that this book will help to formulate them more clearly rather than skirting them The authors do not wish to launch a new moral philosophy but simply to gather objective knowledge for reflection     Universal Human Values Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-09-24 Explores core human values like empathy and integrity fostering ethical decision making and social responsibility in personal and professional life     Values, Nature, and Culture in the American Corporation William C. Frederick,1995 In Values Nature and Culture in the American Corporation distinguished ethicist William Frederick explores issues of fundamental importance to all who aspire to conduct their business affairs ethically He begins with an examination of the three value systems in business that are basically incompatible and therefore in constant tension The first is the need for managers to efficiently allocate resources for maximum profits The second is the natural tendency for managers in pursuit of the first goal to accumulate power for its own sake The third is the desire for people in the community to create relationships that will perpetuate these communities Frederick brings in a range of ideas and concepts from the social sciences as well as the natural sciences to illuminate his discussion In the final section of the book he explores a range of issues of current concern to managers including corporate culture and technology      Musical Meaning and Human Values Keith Chapin, Lawrence Kramer, 2009-08-25 Musical understanding has evolved dramatically in recent years principally through a heightened appreciation of musical meaning in its social cultural and philosophical dimensions This collection of essays by leading scholars addresses an aspect of meaning that has not yet received its due the relation of meaning in this broad humanistic sense to the shaping of fundamental values The volume examines the open and active circle between the values and valuations placed on music by both individuals and societies and the discovery through music of what and how to value With a combination of cultural criticism and close readings of musical works the contributors demonstrate repeatedly that to make music is also to make value in every sense They give particular attention to values that have historically enabled music to assume a formative role in human societies to foster practices of contemplation fantasy and irony to explore sexuality subjectivity and the uncanny and to articulate longings for unity with nature and for moral certainty Each essay in the collection shows in its own way how music may provoke transformative reflection in its listeners and thus help guide humanity to its own essential embodiment in the world The range of topics is broad and developed with an eye both to the historical specificity of values and to the variety of their possible incarnations The music is both canonical and noncanonical old and new Although all of it is classical the contributors treatment of it yields conclusions that apply well beyond the classical sphere The composers discussed include Gabrieli Marenzio Haydn Beethoven Mendelssohn Brahms Wagner Puccini Hindemith Schreker and Henze Anyone interested in music as it is studied today will find this volume essential reading

The JoyfulTalisman Course Book on Human Values Vedabhyas Kundu Munazah Shah, 2025-09-09 This book that now opens to the world The JoyfulTalisman Course Book on Human Values is much more than an educational resource or a course book It is the living practical continuation of the profound message that Vedabhyas Kundu and Munazah Shah shared in their first work The JoyfulTalisman Conversations on Human Values for a JoyfulWorld In that first book the authors invited us to reflect on the values that sustain life in harmony truth nonviolence compassion humility and respect Through their thoughts and perspectives culture and spirituality they opened a path of awareness for readers around the world to turn inwards self reflect and self introspect As with every meaningful and beautiful seed those ideas began to seek continuity they needed to become tangible proposals ready to be lived out in schools families and communities This course book answers that call with clarity beauty and commitment Here values are not just named and discussed they are practiced They become action dialogue gestures play and collective projects Joy present in both the books is not shown as a fleeting emotion but as an ethical value a vital compass and a powerful driving force for change I am deeply moved to have been named among those who supported and helped bring this new step to life In addition I feel there is an invisible thread connecting all of us who believe in the power of education to transform the world a diverse international and passionate network that plants the seeds of human values where they are needed the most I have had the privilege of witnessing how this JoyfulTalisman has come to life in schools and communities across Africa Asia and the Americas touching the lives of children youth educators parents and community leaders I am certain this new book which has been developed as an accompanying course book will continue its journey sowing peace awareness and commitment in many more hearts My invitation is simple yet profound explore these pages freely adapt each activity to your reality share reflect and transform Because wherever a girl discovers her voice a young person chooses empathy or a teacher educates with kindness the JoyfulTalisman is at work I can definitely tell you that those small acts truly changes and transforms the world Marta Lescano President Fundaci n FEPAIS Executive Director of Education Global Peace Let s Talk International

Interrogating Public Policy Theory Linda Courtenay Botterill,Alan Fenna,2019 This book questions the way policy making has been distanced from politics in prevailing theories of the policy process and highlights the frequently overlooked ubiquity of values and values conflicts in politics and policy It examines the strengths and weaknesses of current theories reviews the illusions of rationalism in politics and explores the way values are implicated throughout the democratic process from voter choice to policy decisions It argues that our understanding of public policy is enhanced by recognizing its intrinsically political and value laden nature

Animal Welfare and Human Values Rod Preece,Lorna Chamberlain,2010-10-30 As the most populous province in Canada Ontario is a microcosm of the animal welfare issues which beset Western civilization The authors of this book chairman and vice chairman respectively of the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals find themselves constantly being made aware of the atrocities committed in the Society s jurisdiction They have been in turn puzzled exasperated and horrified at humanity s cruelty to our fellow sentient beings The issues discussed in this book are the most contentious in animal welfare disputes animal experimentation fur farming and trapping the use of animals for human entertainment and the conditions under which animals are raised for human consumption They are complex issues and should be thought about fairly and seriously The authors standing squarely on the side of the animals suggest community and belonging as concepts through which to understand our relationships to other species They ground their ideas in Wordsworth s primal sympathy and Jung s unconscious identity with the animal realm The philosophy developed in this book embraces common sense and compromise as the surest paths to the goal of animal welfare It requires respect and consideration for other species while acknowledging our primary obligations to our fellow humans

Human Values (the) : Task For All M L Dewan, M R Chilana,1998 The Papers In This Volume Focus On The Theoretical Background Of Values In The Framework Of Education It Goes Further To Provide A Thorough Description Of How Nine Distinguished Educational Institutions In India Are Working In This Sphere Also The Value Education In Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan Methods Of Value Education Implimentation In Schools And The Rotary System Make Part Of The Discussion

Analytic Philosophy of Religion James Franklin Harris,2013-03-14 When Gene Long editor of Kluwer s Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion Series first invited me to write the volume on Analytic Philosophy of Religion I accepted with great enthusiasm My only explanation for that enthusiasm now is that I was younger and more naive at the time Soon after starting work on the volume my enthusiasm was dampened by the daunting magnitude of the task I began as a sprinter and quickly settled into the pace of a long distance runner Although I considered myself well read in the subject I soon discovered that I had a great deal of research to do to be confident that I had considered all of the major contributions to the various discussions issues and of religion As I read more and more problems found within analytic philosophy books and articles I realized that I had rushed into a territory already well trodden by the angels I am greatly impressed by the sophistication and subtlety of philosophical argument that characterize the different debates in contemporary analytic philosophy of religion This volume covers a vast amount of material I have endeavored to provide the fairest possible reading of different authors and in cases where I include my own critical evaluations and develop my own positions I have endeavored to provide the strongest possible interpretations of the positions I criticize

Animal Welfare & Human Values Rod Preece, Lorna Chamberlain, 1993-06-24 As the most populous province in Canada Ontario is a microcosm of the animal welfare issues which beset Western civilization The authors of this book chairman and vice chairman respectively of the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals find themselves constantly being made aware of the atrocities committed in the Society's jurisdiction They have been in turn puzzled exasperated and horrified at humanity's cruelty to our fellow sentient beings The issues discussed in this book are the most contentious in animal welfare disputes animal experimentation fur farming and trapping the use of animals for human entertainment and the conditions under which animals are raised for human consumption They are complex issues and should be thought about fairly and seriously The authors standing squarely on the side of the animals suggest community and belonging as concepts through which to understand our relationships to other species They ground their ideas in Wordsworth's primal sympathy and Jung's unconscious identity with the animal realm The philosophy developed in this book embraces common sense and compromise as the surest paths to the goal of animal welfare It requires respect and consideration for other species while acknowledging our primary obligations to our fellow humans

Self-Construction and the Formation of Human Values Teodros Kiros, 2001-01-30 This volume presents a theoretical defense of the potential of ordinary individuals to construct values and through them to become self-empowering responsible participants in a democratic community Rather than conceiving of power as domination the author identifies true power as self-empowerment a notion based on self-construction He proposes the vision of an authentically free self filled with a compassion that is a composite of reason and feeling Such a composite self does not consciously manipulate language truth and desire to dominate and subordinate other individuals but uses them to construct values and norms that can enrich others To support his argument the author draws on both classical and contemporary philosophers as well as on literary sources
