Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, Jeffrey Kaplan, 2005-01-01. No Marketing Blurb. Alleluia Don Swenson, 2018-09-15. The Alleluia Community is a unique Christian community of over three hundred committed charismatic Christians in Augusta, Georgia, who live a covenant and ecumenical lifestyle. Emerging from the Charismatic Renewal Movement of the 1960s, members of Alleluia have maintained a lively charismatic dimension of the Christian tradition with a willingness to make a life-time covenant commitment to each other. Since 1973, this group of people has exhibited heroic virtue, self-sacrifice, humility, deference for one another, and service to others outside their boundaries. They claim to be guided by the Holy Spirit in their daily lives. Their leaders lead with a strong sense of service and Christian love and a willingness to lay down their own agendas. A major feature of these covenant makers is that they strive for daily Christian unity while being committed to one of the twelve plus various denominations and fellowships. Swenson had the opportunity of living among these people for twenty months. During this time, he used a mixed method approach involving over one hundred interviews and three hundred instruments to create both qualitative and quantitative measures of the lives of these people. To structure their story, he used the dilemmas of the institutionalization of religion from the scholarship of Thomas O. Dea and secularization theory. The data gathered give abundant evidence that these Alleluia faithful have substantively resisted the secular influence so common in Western culture. "When on High the Heavens..." Giorgio Buccellati, 2023-09-22. This English translation of Giorgio Buccellati's ambitious work offers readers an insightful discussion of ancient Mesopotamian religion and spirituality in its relationship to the biblical ethos. Our understanding of ancient Mesopotamian religion, while shaped by a wealth of archaeological, artistic, and epigraphic evidence, remains limited with regard to a proper hermeneutic approach. In this volume, Buccellati sheds light on the spirituality of Mesopotamian polytheism by drawing comparisons with that of biblical monotheism. These comparisons are used to better understand the divine-human relationship in the Mesopotamian context as both individuals and members of a wider community. In addition, Buccellati provides detailed discussions on divination and the central role of fate in ancient Mesopotamia Buccellati's understanding of Mesopotamian religion and spirituality as illuminated by biblical texts now available to an Anglophone audience offers much food for thought on this challenging subject When on High the Heavens Mesopotamian Religion and Spirituality with Reference to the Biblical World provides a wide ranging and thorough exploration of Mesopotamian religion for students scholars and researchers in Near Eastern archaeology and history biblical studies and the history of religion and spirituality The Primate Origins of Human Nature Carel P. Van Schaik, 2016-01-22 The Primate Origins of Human Nature Volume 3 in The Foundations of Human Biology series blends several elements from evolutionary biology as applied to primate behavioral ecology and primate psychology classical physical anthropology and evolutionary psychology of humans However unlike similar books it strives to define the human species relative to our living and extinct relatives and thus highlights uniquely derived human features The book features a truly multi disciplinary multi theory and comparative species approach to subjects not usually presented in textbooks focused on humans such as the evolution of culture life history parenting and social organization Ethics, Morality, and Human Nature Hector Davidson, This is a bundle of the following books Aesthetics Analytic Philosophy Critical Theory Cynicism Determinism Humanism Idealism Liberalism Moral Philosophy Naturalism Nihilism Parmenides Phenomenology Structuralism Utilitarianism Placing Nature on the Borders of Religion, Philosophy and Ethics Dr Forrest Clingerman, Mr Mark H Dixon, 2013-06-28 The natural world has been humanized even areas thought to be wilderness bear the marks of human impact But this human impact is not simply physical At the emergence of the environmental movement the focus was on human effects on nature More recently however the complexity of the term nature has led to fruitful debates and the recognition of how human individuals and cultures interpret their environments This book furthers the dialogue on religion ethics and the environment by exploring three interrelated concepts to recreate to replace and to restore Through interdisciplinary dialogue the authors illuminate certain unique dimensions at the crossroads between finding value creating value and reflecting on one's place in the world Each of these terms has diverse religious ethical and scientific connotations Each converges on the ways in which humans both think about and act upon their surroundings And each radically questions the damaging conceptual divisions between nature and culture human and environment and scientific explanation and religious ethical understanding This book self consciously reflects on the intersections of environmental philosophy environmental theology and religion and ecology stressing the importance of how place interprets us and how we interpret place In addition to its contribution to environmental philosophy this work is a unique volume in its serious engagement with theology and religious studies on the issues of ecological restoration and the meaning of place
