The Idea of Nature in Disney Animation David S. Whitley, 2008 David Whitley's compelling study complicates our understanding of the classic Disney canon by focusing on the way images of the natural world are mediated within popular art for children. He examines a range of Disney's feature animations from Snow White to Finding Nemo to show that even as the films communicate the central ideologies of their times they also express the ambiguities and tensions that underlie these dominant values.

Nature Mathematized W. R. Shea, 1983 These remarks preface two volumes consisting of the proceedings of the Third International Conference on the History and Philosophy of Science of the International Union of History and Philosophy of Science. The conference was held under the auspices of the Union The Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada and the Canadian Society for History and Philosophy of Science. The meetings took place in Montreal, Canada, 25-29 August 1980 with Concordia University as host institution. The program of the conference was arranged by a Joint Commission of the International Union of History and Philosophy of Science consisting of Robert E. Butts (Canada), John Murdoch (U.S.A.), Vladimir Kirsanov (U.S.S.R.) and Paul Weingartner (Austria). The Local Arrangements Committee consisted of Stanley G. French (Chair, Concordia), Michel Paradis (treasurer, McGill), Franyois Duchesneau (Universite de Montreal), Robert Nadeau (Universite du Quebec a Montreal) and William Shea (McGill University). Both committees are indebted to Dr. G. R. Paterson, then President of the Canadian Society for History and Philosophy of Science, who shared his expertise in many ways. Dr. French and his staff worked diligently and efficiently on behalf of all participants. The city of Montreal was, as always, the subtle mixture of extravagance, charm, warmth and excitement that retains her status as the jewel of Canadian cities. The funding of major international conferences is always a problem.

Animating Film Theory Karen Redrobe, 2014-03-21 Animating Film Theory provides an enriched understanding of the relationship between two of the most unwieldy and unstable organizing concepts in cinema and media studies: animation and film theory. For the most part, animation has been excluded from the purview of film theory. The contributors to this collection consider the reasons for this marginalization while also bringing attention to key historical contributions across a wide range of animation practices, geographic and linguistic terrains and historical periods. They delve deep into questions of how animation might best be understood, as well as how it relates to concepts such as the still, the moving image, the frame, animism and utopia. The contributors take on the kinds of theoretical questions that have remained underexplored because, as Karen Beckman argues, scholars of cinema and media studies have allowed themselves to be constrained by too narrow a sense of what cinema is. This collection reanimates and expands film studies by taking the concept of animation seriously. Contributors: Karen Beckman, Suzanne Buchan, Scott Bukatman, Alan Cholodenko, Yuriko Furuhashi, Alexander R. Galloway, Oliver Gaycken, Bishnupriya Ghosh, Tom Gunning, Andrew R. Johnston, Hervé Joubert, Laurencin Gertrud Koch, Thomas LaMarre, Christopher P. Lehman, Esther Leslie, John MacKay, Mihaela Mihailova, Marc Steinberg, Tess Takahashi.

re-edited) Andrew Jackson Davis, 2014-05-19 This rare book has been digitally re edited from a facsimile reprint of the original Much care and attention has been spent bringing the book back to its original glory The scanning process always introduces errors but as far as we know we have managed to find the majority and fix them in this edition If you are an Andrew Jackson Davis fan or you are new to the author then this is his masterpiece This work was produced whilst he was under hypnosis and the gems therein comes direct from the Fountain of Knowledge Davis was a young uneducated man at the time of producing this book and its contents and style are far beyond anything he could have produced He was a remarkable man as you will find out from the Introduction Animated Film and Disability Slava Greenberg, 2023-02-07

While many live action films portray disability as a spectacle crip animation a genre of animated films that celebrates disabled people's lived experiences uses a variety of techniques like clay animation puppets pixilation and computer generated animation to represent the inner worlds of people with disabilities Crip animation has the potential to challenge the ableist gaze and immerse viewers in an alternative bodily experience In Animated Film and Disability Slava Greenberg analyzes over 30 animated works about disabilities including Rocks in My Pockets An Eyeful of Sound and A Shift in Perception He considers the ableism of live action cinematography the involvement of filmmakers with disabilities in the production process and the evocation of the spectators senses of sight and hearing consequently subverting traditional spectatorship and listenership hierarchies In addition Greenberg explores physical and sensory accessibility in theaters and suggests new ways to accommodate cinematic screenings Offering an introduction to disability studies and crip theory for film media and animation scholars Animated Film and Disability demonstrates that crip animation has the power to breach the spectator's comfort evoking awareness of their own bodies and in certain cases their social privileges The Heart of Republicanism Thomas L. Pangle, 1990-10-15 Pangle reexamines the moral philosophy of the Founding Fathers and finds that at the heart of the Framers republicanism was a dramatically new vision of civic virtue religious faith and intellectual life rooted in an unprecedented commitment to private and economic liberties and that this commitment represented a departure from both the classical and biblical traditions He challenges those who explain 18th century political thought exclusively in terms of historical circumstances Calvinistic faith or economic and social ideology He develops a new interpretation of John Locke's moral and political philosophy arguing that Locke's greatest political and rhetorical achievement was in transforming the God of the Bible into the God of reason and nature and shows Locke's influence on the Framers thought ISBN 0 226 64540 1 22 50 Man and the Biosphere: Kenneth M.
