Nature Destiny Of Man Volume 2:

Love Your Enemies Lisa Sowle Cahill, 1994 The author examines the theological bases of just war theory and pacifism especially in the light of the concept of God as that motif illuminates Christian discipleship Differences between the theory of just war and the practice of pacifism are highlighted in the overview of the history of Christian thought on the subject and the inclusiveness of the ideal of the kingdom for pacifism is emphasized The Future of Christian Realism Dallas

Gingles, Joshua Mauldin, Rebekah L. Miles, 2023-04-15 In the world's most developed democracies anxiety about the future of democracy is palpable The tension between moral aspiration and moral despair has reached a point of crisis Christian realism arose during a similar time of crisis when Reinhold Niebuhr used the insights of the Christian tradition to interpret the clash between democracy and totalitarianism Beginning with Robin Lovin's account of Christian realism as a nuanced blend of theological moral and political realisms The Future of Christian Realism addresses fundamental topics in theology ethics and politics The contributors come from different traditions span five continents and together present a case for the continuing relevance of Christian realism By paying close attention to many of the most pressing moral challenges facing societies today the authors illustrate and evaluate the enduring relevance of Christian realism Christian Theology,

Volume Two Thomas N. Finger, 2020-03-09 This is one of the first systematic theologies written from a believer's church chiefly an Anabaptist Mennonite perspective Dr Finger develops his themes throughout the volume in careful dialogue with Reformed Lutheran Roman Catholic and other historic approaches The eschatological approach taken by Finger does not represent a fixation on future events Rather it represents a method of inquiry based on the early Christian conviction that the last things had already occurred through Jesus even though their effects were not yet fully realized Chief among these were the resurrection of the dead the outpouring of the Spirit the coming of God's kingdom and the defeat of the powers of evil After outlining this vantage point Volume I considered eschatology revelation and the work of Christ in its light Volume II begins with anthropology Jesus human work provides the norm for authentic human being Justification comes next and is considered as the eschatological revelation and actualization of God's righteousness through the faithfulness of Jesus Christ After treating the dynamics of personal sanctification Dr Finger explores the context within which it is pursued the church His ecclesiology begins with mission including its approach to non-Christian religions and the sociopolitical realm Volume II ends where most systematic theologies begin with God including the humanity and deity of Jesus Christ Thomas N Finger has undertaken an important task that is rarely attempted the production of a constructive systematic theology informed by judicious dialogue with current biblical scholarship Finger's methodological decision to adopt an eschatological approach enables him to work formally as well as materially from within a perspective shaped by the NT writers his innovative organization of the loci of Christian doctrine with its emphasis on the church as a community of believers living out the tensions between Christ's resurrection and Parousia is a direct result of taking the NT seriously Particularly noteworthy is his exposition of the doctrine of justification in the light of recent paradigm shifts in Pauline studies Finger's book is a productive and edifying work for all who care about the ongoing conversation between Scripture and systematics Richard Hays Duke Divinity School Thomas N Finger has chosen an approach to the systematic presentation of Christian Theology which I also have taken since the publication of my Theology of Hope in 1964 He begins with the goal with eschatology With that goal in mind a new light is cast on every single doctrine of Christian theology the light of redemption and the work of the theologian becomes a labor of hope This is a theology of the way With the kingdom of God kept steadily in view it becomes an invitation to walk the way of Jesus Tom Finger's theological prospectus makes a brilliant contribution to ecumenical theological dialogue from the Anabaptist tradition He offers an eschatologically oriented theology for which I can only congratulate him Jürgen Moltmann Professor of Theology University of Tübingen This volume is not only a contribution to the contemporary discussions in systematic theology It is also an important ecumenical breakthrough The Anabaptist tradition stands as an important dialogue partner in the quest for a common ground in the Christian faith Finger approaches the biblical faith from an eschatological viewpoint that is faithful to the Anabaptist tradition but in dialogue with Roman Catholic classical Protestant and contemporary scholars in both of these traditions He has begun a substantive conversation that will be important into the twenty first century Jeffrey Gros Former Director of the Commission on Faith Order National Council of Christian Churches USA

Reinhold Niebuhr Revisited Daniel F. Rice, 2009-07-10 In 2007 then presidential candidate Barack Obama called Reinhold Niebuhr 1892-1971 his favorite philosopher Reinhold Niebuhr Revisited offers fresh and creative ways of looking at this influential American theologian's views on religion politics and culture through the eyes of diverse respected scholars

The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah Miles, 2001 Miles contends that an increasingly radical feminist emphasis on divine immanence and human boundedness has undercut key assumptions upon which feminism rests Niebuhr's realism she believes can be the source of a necessary correction

Early Ecotheology and Joseph Sittler Panu Pihkala, 2017 When did Christians begin to address environmental questions What can be learned from these pioneering thinkers This study reveals that between 1910 and 1954 many theologians called for responsibility towards nature The focal point is the work of Joseph Sittler 1904-1987 an American Lutheran and ecumenical theologian The role of these early ecotheologians is discussed in relation to environmental history and education The findings show that ecotheology was not as strongly separated from other environmentalism as it was after the 1960s Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 12 Subject Religious Studies Environmental Studies Ecotheology Joseph Sittler

God's Wounds Jeff B Pool, 2011-07-28 God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Volume II Evil and Divine Suffering is the second of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry on the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely The goal is then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of the symbol those implicit attestations that permit the possibility of divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation The author investigates two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies normally attest 1 divine grief or suffering due to human sin or betrayal by the beloved human and 2 divine self sacrifice or suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery so as to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Remembering Faithfully Forward Barry K.

Morris,2022-06-08 Daily Meditation readers abound some thankfully endure Rare are spiritually grounded and contemplative invitations that feature four generations of earnest family teachers preachers activists journalists and controversial prophets In various life conditions threatening and challenged by sickness and despair herein are eight Niebuhrs faithful wrestlings They bequeath bristling morsels and compelling insights creatively compacted into more than four hundred entries and reference leads for further consideration Thus deeply influenced by the patriarch and matriarch Gustav Sr and Lydia arise Reinhold s steadfast reflections on grace grounded justice and its principles the caringly layered meanings of the love of neighbor and God from his brother H Richard the dedication to render the faith intelligible to postmoderns held by his son Richard Reinhold and the decisive and insightful journalism by in turn his son Gustav Jr on Lincoln being duly lobbied for mercy to indigenous peoples And that s not all the indispensable reminiscences of Reinhold s educator sister Hulda and his wife Ursula as well as the unearthed grace based Serenity Prayer of his daughter Elisabeth corporately express rare gleanings of the Niebuhr clan s virtual school of warm contemplative action Moral, Believing Animals Christian

Smith,2003-07-10 What kind of animals are human beings And how do our visions of the human shape our theories of social action and institutions In Moral Believing Animals Christian Smith advances a creative theory of human persons and culture that offers innovative challenging answers to these and other fundamental questions in sociological cultural and religious theory Smith suggests that human beings have a peculiar set of capacities and proclivities that distinguishes them significantly from other animals on this planet Despite the vast differences in humanity between cultures and across history no matter how differently people narrate their lives and histories there remains an underlying structure of human personhood that helps to order human culture history and narration Drawing on important recent insights in moral philosophy epistemology and narrative studies Smith argues that humans are animals who have an inescapable moral and spiritual dimension They cannot avoid a fundamental moral orientation in life and this says Smith has profound consequences for how sociology must study human beings Theology Through the Theologians Colin E. Gunton,2003-11-01 Barth Calvin Coleridge Dale Forsyth Irving Jngel Luther Newman Niebuhr Owen Zizioulas through this engagement with major theologians Colin Gunton enables the reader to address some of the central questions of theology The book begins by treating the nature of Christian theology and the doctrine of God leading to discussions on christology pneumatology atonement creation and the church Professor Gunton's study will be invaluable for all scholars and students of systematic theology and Christian doctrine and of modern theology in general Reinhold Niebuhr and John Dewey Daniel F. Rice, 1993-01-01 Reinhold Niebuhr and John Dewey frequently have been identified as the most influential American philosophers of their respective times Although their direct contact in print and in political action was marginal their substantive conflict over such issues as religion naturalism the liberal tradition and democracy both reflected and shaped much of America's inner dialogue from 1932 to mid century and beyond In this intriguing book Daniel Rice makes a strong case that although the clash between Niebuhr and Dewey was real and important in a wider context the two shared more insights than either realized The End of American History David W. Noble, Using the work of four major historians Noble focuses on the dramatic change in historical structure and meaning that came with the collapse of the progressive paradigm and its guiding metaphor of exodus from the Old World to the New World Covenants of Life K.L. Vaux, M. Stenberg, 2013-03-14 The intense fervor of a Mississippi Methodist preacher the meticulous reasoning of an Oxford logician the dogged persistence of a head longshoreman the unflagging humor of a Rabelaisian satirist To have met Paul Ramsey at a lecture in a medical university a heady conference at Hastings on Hudson a congressional hearing deliberations at a church assembly or a bull session in some coffee shop was to be confronted with a gentleman of unforgettable energy insight and delight In many roles as a young instructor in religious studies at Princeton University a concerned moral theologian commenting on the ethics of the sit ins and nuclear issues an observer and dialogue partner with physicians at Georgetown and other medical centers a faithful editor and analyst of Jonathan Edwards ethical writings a trustee of the Hastings center a voluminous correspondent with others who would join to disciplined pursuit of values Paul Ramsey in all roles was indefatigable in zeal rigorous in demand and gracious in coadventuring to use one of his wonderful metaphors This volume captures a unique exchange between Paul Ramsey and his most prominent colleagues In one sense it remains a Festschrift in his honor characterized at times by a markedly informal tone Christian Ethics and the Moral Psychologies Don S. Browning, 2006-05-17 Interest in psychology permeates our culture with psychological solutions advanced for a host of moral dilemmas How should ethically minded Christians include insights from such disciplines as psychoanalysis cognitive moral development and neuroscience in their theological reflection Don Browning offers a serious proposal for combining these disciplines with the best in ethical reflection from a Christian standpoint Along the way he introduces readers to the moral psychology work of Sigmund Freud Carol Gilligan Antonio Damasio and others opening up a dialogue between their work and the hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur Browning also recognizes the potential limits of the conversation between Christian ethics and the moral psychologies pointing out where they must diverge Religion and Human Enhancement Tracy J. Trothen, Calvin Mercer, 2017-09-17 This collection vigorously addresses the religious implications of extreme human enhancement technology Topics covered include cutting edge themes such as moral enhancement common ground to both transhumanism and religion the meaning of death desire and transcendence and virtue ethics Radical enhancement programs advocated by transhumanists could arguably have a more profound impact than any other development in human history Reflecting a range of opinion about the desirability of extreme enhancement leading scholars in the field join with emerging scholars to foster enhanced conversation on these topics Philip Selznick Martin

Women and Pride Luping Huang,2018-09-30 Reinhold Niebuhr is largely regarded as the leading twentieth century theologian of sin However many feminist theologians criticize Niebuhr s view of pride as the primary sin arguing that it fits only with men s experience In this detailed study Dr Luping Huang engages with Niebuhr and his feminist critics to provide a response to the feminist critique of Niebuhr s theology of sin Dr Huang provides a thorough analysis and examination of both the Niebuhrian and feminist understandings of sin highlighting the strengths and limitations of both arguments While some aspects of the feminists opposition to Niebuhr s doctrine of sin are valid there are weaknesses and limitations within its own framework Through her research and interaction with women s testimonies Huang s argument bridges these two competing views of women and sin resulting in a more accurate understanding and application of the theology of sin particularly in reference to women
