Nature, God and Humanity Richard L. Fern, 2002-04-04 Nature God and Humanity clarifies the task of forming an ethics of nature thereby empowering readers to develop their own critical faith based ethics Calling on original thought provoking analyses and arguments Richard L Fern frames a philosophical ethics of nature assesses it scientifically finds support for it in traditional biblical theism and situates it culturally Though defending the moral value of beliefs affirming the radical Otherness of God and human uniqueness this book aims not to compel the adoption of any particular ethic but rather illumine the contribution diverse forms of inquiry make to an ethics of nature How does philosophy clarify moral conviction What does science tell us about nature Why does religious faith matter Rejecting the illusion of a single rationally compelling ethics Fern answers these questions in a way that fosters both agreement and disagreement allowing those holding conflicting ethics of nature to work together for the common good The Ethics of Nature Celia

Deane-Drummond, 2008-04-15 This accessible and timely book uses a Christian perspective to explore ethical debates about nature A detailed exploration of humanity s treatment of the natural world from a Christian perspective Covers a range of ethical debates including current controversies about the environment animal rights biotechnology consciousness and cloning Sets the immediate issues in the context of underlying theological and philosophical assumptions Complex scientific issues are explained in clear student friendly language The author develops her own distinctive ethical approach centred on the practice of wisdom Discusses key figures in the field including Peter Singer Aldo Leopold Tom Regan Andrew Linzey James Lovelock Anne Primavesi Rosemary Radford Ruether and Michael Northcott The author has held academic posts in both theology and plant science Diversity and Dominion Kyle S. Van Houtan, Michael S. Northcott, 2010-02-15 This book records a set of dialogues between scientists theologians and philosophers on what can be done to prevent a global slide into ecological collapse It is a uniquely multidisciplinary book that exemplifies the kinds of cultural and scholarly dialogue urgently needed to address the threat to the earth represented by our super industrial civilization The authors debate the conventional account of nature conservation as protection from human activity In contrast to standard accounts they argue what is needed is a new relationship between human beings and the earth that recovers a primal respect for all things This approach seeks to recover forgotten resources in ancient cultures and in the foundational narratives of Western civilization contained in the Bible and in the culture of classical Greece The Physics and Metaphysics of

Transubstantiation Mark P. Fusco, 2023-08-18 In this book Mark P Fusco offers a historical philosophical and theological review and appraisal of current research into quantum post modern atheistic mathematical and philosophical theories that engage our interpretation of Hans Urs von Balthasar and Ferdinand Ulrich s accounts of Ur Kenosis This cross disciplinary approach inspires a new speculative metaphysical theory based on the representation of being as a holo somatic ontology Holocryptic metaphysics gives us a novel interpretation of transubstantiation as it is founded on the findings of quantum mechanical theory The quantum object and black hole's properties present a new way to explain physical matter based on its holographic identity This scientific theory for representing physical matter's identity is recognized for example in the symmetry existing between a subatomic particle and its orbital shell a single particle's identity in relationship to its thermodynamic system Hawking radiation and black hole entropy Further the properties of quantum non locality and teleportation signpost a new way to understand the Eternal Logos relationship to Jesus Christ and the Eucharist

The American Adrenaline Narrative Kristin J. Jacobson, 2020-06-01 The American Adrenaline Narrative considers the nature of perilous outdoor adventure tales their gendered biases and how they simultaneously promote and hinder ecological sustainability To explore these themes Kristin J Jacobson defines and compares adrenaline narratives by a range of American authors published after the first Earth Day in 1970 a time frame selected as a watershed moment for the contemporary American environmental movement The forty plus years since that day also mark the rise in the popularity and marketing of many things as extreme including sports jobs travel beverages gum makeovers laundry detergent and even the environmental movement itself Jacobson maps the American eco imagination via adrenaline narratives grounding them in the traditional literary practice of close reading analysis and in ecofeminism She surveys a range of popular and lesser known primary texts by American authors including best selling books such as Jon Krakauer's Into Thin Air and Aron Ralston's Between a Rock and a Hard Place and lesser known texts such as Patricia C McCairen's Canyon Solitude Eddy L Harris's Mississippi Solo and Stacy Allison's Beyond the Limits She also discusses such narratives as they appear in print and online articles and magazines feature length and short films television shows amateur videos social networking site posts fiction advertising and blogs Jacobson contends that these stories constitute a distinctive genre because unlike traditional nature travel and sports writing adrenaline narratives sustain heightened risk or the element of the extreme within a natural setting Additionally these narratives provide important insight into the American environmental imagination's connection to masculinity and adventure knowledge that helps us grasp the current climate crisis and how narrative understanding provides a needed intervention

A Greener Faith Roger S. Gottlieb, 2009-10 world making political agenda that far exceeds interest group politics applied to forests and toxic incinerators Rather religious environmentalism offers an all inclusive vision of what human beings are and how we should treat each other and the rest of life Gottlieb analyzes the growing synthesis of the movement's religious social and political aspects as well as the challenges it faces in consumerism fundamentalism and globalization

Water Resources and Inter-Riparian Relations in the Nile Basin Okbazghi Yohannes, 2009-01-01 Human demand for water resources is rising at an alarming rate in response to rapid population growth rival development requirements and the depletion of ecological resources In this book Okbazghi Yohannes examines the various facets of the competition for water resources among the ten Nile River Basin countries as they compete to harness the river's resources for purposes of irrigation based agriculture and hydropower based industrialization Through a careful investigation of the rival states strategies to capture greater shares of water resources Yohannes assesses the lasting impact on the watershed ecology in the basin and on the hydrological demand of the river itself He proposes the formation of a radically different water regime to address the looming demographic crisis the stark regional food insecurity and the region s collapsing hydro ecology This book shows how the effort to construct a regional water regime cannot be separated from the necessity to construct an ecologically sustainable internal water regime in each co basin state particularly in terms of ecological resources conservation and ecosystem services protection      The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Ecology

Spirit and Nature Timothy Hessel-Robinson,Ray Maria McNamara,2011-08-01 Spirit and Nature is a collection of essays exploring how the resources of Christian spirituality can inform the practice of a more ecologically sustainable faith

Our current ecological situation calls for people of religious faith to reexamine the way they envision the practice of spirituality. As environmental ethicists have called us to reconsider the human Earth relationship so that the planet is not seen as simply an endless supply of resources to fill human wants and needs, so these essays call us to reconsider spiritual practice as it relates to Earth's ecology. Rather than viewing spirituality as an escape from the material world, the authors describe the embodiment of the God quest within the human nature relationship. Drawing on diverse disciplinary perspectives, these essays examine a variety of topics including the relationship between Earth and humans in the Bible, the role of nature's beauty in Christian spirituality, the practice of Christian discernment and contemplation in light of the natural sciences, the role of nature in liturgical prayer, and others. These essays consider how scholarship in Christian spirituality can contribute to reimagining faith in ways that better cherish the Earth's fragile beauty.

Performing the Faith Stanley Hauerwas, 2015-03-11 Folksy eclectic disarmingly humble and astonishingly wide ranging Hauerwas offers us a provocative reading of Bonhoeffer that not surprisingly assimilates him closely to John Howard Yoder At the same time Hauerwas replies to recent criticisms of his work by Jeffrey Stout Contending that truth depends on performance far more than on theory Hauerwas steps forward as a pacifist gadfly for a more truly faithful church and a more recognizably democratic society George Hunsinger Princeton Theological Seminary This book shows how lively and fecund Hauerwas's thought remains A dazzling performance capable of entertaining and instructing professional theologians as much as those who think the world might be a better place without theologians in it Paul J Griffiths University of Illinois at Chicago Stan Hauerwas has done it again He is able skillfully to blend into his book the passion for truth and justice of two of his greatest influences Dietrich Bonhoeffer and John Howard Yoder He takes these heroic advocates for peace into his own present day struggle for the soul of the American nation Hauerwas an admirable Christian pacifist himself dares Christians to be the Jesus people they claim to be and to follow Jesus into the gospel path of nonviolence Geoffrey B Kelly author of Liberating Faith Bonhoeffer s Message for Today Never totally predictable Always a fresh perspective And yet once again in these essays on narrative politics Bonhoeffer and the church we hear the engaging discerning and brilliant voice we have come to know as Stanley Hauerwas Mark Thiessen Nienow Eastern Mennonite Seminary Contending with and learning from the witness of Dietrich Bonhoeffer whose life is often thought to provide a Christian alternative to pacifism Hauerwas deepens the account of Christian nonviolence he has been articulating for decades His theology is strengthened and clarified by his encounter with the exemplary figure of Bonhoeffer Alan Jacobs Wheaton College Without loss of the provocative edge that has made him a vital and distinctive Christian voice Hauerwas s Performing the Faith allows him to cast a retrospective eye on his work At the same time in a brilliant essay under the title of the book he develops a profoundly important description of faithfulness Dennis O Brien University of Rochester Stanley Hauerwas is the Gilbert T Rowe Professor Emeritus of Theological Ethics at Duke Divinity School Duke University
