Nautical Quarterly 42 Summer 1988:

Nautical Quarterly ,1989 Monthly Nautical Magazine, and Quarterly Review ,1857 The Oxford Handbook of Maritime Archaeology Alexis Catsambis,Ben Ford,Donny L. Hamilton,2014-02 This title is a comprehensive survey of maritime archaeology as seen through the eyes of nearly fifty scholars at a time when maritime archaeology has established itself as a mature branch of archaeology The Historical Archaeology of Military Sites Clarence Raymond Geier,Lawrence E. Babits,Douglas Dowell Scott,David G. Orr,2010-12-15 The recent work of anthropologists historians and historical archaeologists has changed the very essence of military history While once preoccupied with great battles and the generals who commanded the armies and employed the tactics military history has begun to emphasize the importance of the common man for interpreting events As a result military historians have begun to see military forces and the people serving in them from different perspectives The Historical Archaeology of Military Sites has encouraged efforts to understand armies as human communities and to address the lives of those who composed them Tying a group of combatants to the successes and failures of their military commanders leads to a failure to understand such groups as distinct social units and in some instances self supporting societies structured around a defined social and political hierarchy regulated by law needing to be supplied and nurtured and often at odds with the human community whose lands they occupied be they those of friend or foe The Historical Archaeology of Military Sites will afford students professionals dealing with military sites and the interested public examples of the latest techniques and proven field methods to aid understanding and conservation of these vital pieces of the world s heritage APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service ,1989 Vol for 1963 includes section Current Australian serials a subject list Design & Applied Arts Index ,1997 The Old War Horse Myron J. Smith, Jr.,2024-02-26 With a unique prewar history as a snagboat and James B Eads noted catamaran salvage vessel the Benton survived a tumultuous government acquisition process and conversion to become flagship of the Union s Civil War Western river navy From Island No 10 through the Vicksburg and Red River campaigns the revolutionary ironclad participated in both combat and administrative activities earning a prominent place in nautical legend and literature This first book length profile of the warship reveals little known details of both her prewar and wartime career and reviews her final disposal Journal of Glass Studies ,1999 The Knickerbacker ,1842 The Children's Civil War James Alan Marten,2000-10-01 The Children s Civil War is an exploration of childhood during our nation s greatest crisis James Marten describes how the war changed the literature and schoolbooks published for children how it affected children s relationships with absent fathers and brothers how the responsibilities forced on northern and especially southern youngsters shortened their childhoods and how the death and destruction that tore the country apart often cut down children as well as adults British Books ,1843 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1900 The Illustrated London News ,1849 The CSS Arkansas Myron J. Smith, Jr.,2014-01-10 While the Monitor and Merrimack are the most famous of the Civil War ironclads the Confederacy had another ship in its flotilla that carried high hopes and a metal hull The makeshift CSS Arkansas completed by Lt Isaac Newton Brown and manned by a mixed crew of volunteers gave the South a surge of confidence when it launched in 1862 For 28 days of summer the ship engaged in five battles with Union warships falling victim in the end only to her own primitive engines The saga of the CSS Arkansas represents the last significant Rebel naval activity in the war s Western theater The Examiner ,1853 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1900 The Knickerbocker ,1842 The Publisher ,1902 The New-York Mirror ,1833 Reports and Documents United States.
