French Revolutionary Lives David A. Bell,Colin Jones,2024-09-12 Historians have long used biography and life narratives as a means of understanding the French Revolution as classic studies on major figures such as Robespierre and Napoleon attest At the current moment however many of the most creative such studies are focusing on relatively minor revolutionary figures Such work which combines the techniques of classic biography and microhistory reveals how the great political social cultural and religious transformations of the revolutionary era were refracted through the prism of individual experience This work often links to research and writing taking place in adjacent disciplines notably around the ideas and practices of life writing These studies themselves often grounded in the history of emotions resist the biographical illusion that an individual s essence can be inferred unproblematically from their words and actions and they also transcend the tendency to see those words and actions as merely symptoms of broader political processes By focusing on individual life stories in their own right and insisting on the slipperiness of individual identity this book explores emergent forms of subjectivity Muslim Cool Su'ad Abdul Khabeer, 2016-12-06 Interviews with young Muslims in Chicago explore the complexity of identities formed at the crossroads of Islam and hip hop This groundbreaking study of race religion and popular culture in the 21st century United States focuses on a new concept Muslim Cool Muslim Cool is a way of being an American Muslim displayed in ideas dress social activism in the hood and in complex relationships to state power Constructed through hip hop and the performance of Blackness Muslim Cool is a way of engaging with the Black American experience by both Black and non Black young Muslims that challenges racist norms in the U S as well as dominant ethnic and religious structures within American Muslim communities Drawing on over two years of ethnographic research Su ad Abdul Khabeer illuminates the ways in which young and multiethnic US Muslims draw on Blackness to construct their identities as Muslims This is a form of critical Muslim self making that builds on interconnections and intersections rather than divisions between Black and Muslim Thus by countering the notion that Blackness and the Muslim experience are fundamentally different Muslim Cool poses a critical challenge to dominant ideas that Muslims are foreign to the United States and puts Blackness at the center of the study of American Islam Yet Muslim Cool also demonstrates that connections to Blackness made through hip hop are critical and contested critical because they push back against the pervasive phenomenon of anti Blackness and contested because questions of race class gender and nationality continue to complicate self making in the United States
