Only The Lonely Finding Romance In The Personal Columns Of Canadas Western Home Monthly 1905-1924:

Venus Passing Dan Azoulay, 2025-09-26 Historians have written a great deal about the military aspects of Canada's Great War but little about the most intimate dimension of Canada's wartime experience heterosexual romance Did romance influence a man's decision to go to war or his behaviour on the battlefield How did women who were left behind or widowed cope without their loved ones How did lonely and sex deprived soldiers cope Did they remain faithful to their wives and girlfriends And what effect did prolonged separation have on couples on their feelings for one another and on their mental well being Readers looking for answers to such questions will find them here In this unique study which draws extensively upon the letters diaries and memoirs of the men and women of the time Dan Azoulay argues that the Great War essentially killed Canadian romance both at the time and for years to come Opportunities for true romance dwindled overnight Soldiers military nurses and civilians alike subordinated romance to more patriotic priorities Couples were driven apart their relationships strained by distance and infidelity Lonely soldiers with limited leisure time resorted to superficial fast romance including dalliances with prostitutes Thousands of men never returned and those who did were never the same Readers will find much that is amusing in this account but they will also be saddened for this is a story less of triumph than tragedy where Vimy Ridge and the last 100 days symbolize not so much the birth of a nation as Cupid's demise For anyone interested in the human devastation of war Venus Passing will cause them to see the Great War from a new perspective one that brings the trials of this lost generation to life in a way no other book has yet done Only the Lonely Dan Azoulay, 2000 We are requested by many young women and young bachelor readers to assist them in getting acquainted with each other with a view to matrimony Whilst we are not conducting a matrimonial agency we are most willing to assist in a proper manner to bring those who are matrimonially inclined together The Editor Western Home Monthly Looking for love in the local newspaper's personal columns has a long history Author Dan Azoulay has collected letters published in the Correspondence columns of the Western Home Monthly between 1905 and 1924 in this fascinating look at romance in the early Canadian West Through these letters lonely and isolated readers made connections exchanged opinions on issues of the day and sometimes found their perfect match The Canadian Historical Review, 2001 Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M. Wilson, 2001 Saskatchewan History, 2003 Index de Périodiques Canadiens, 2001 America, History and Life, 2004 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada The Papers of Harry Cassidy and Beatrice Pearce Keith Walden, 2009 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 2001 Alberta History, 1999 Book Review Digest, 2002 American Book Publishing Record, 2001 The Writers Directory, 2013
