Pacific Square-riggers Jim Gibbs,1969 Pacific square-riggers; pictorial history of the great windships of yesteryear, by Jim Gibbs James Atwood Gibbs,1969 Pacific Marine Review ,1916 The Life of Bent Gestur Sivertz Bent Gestur Sivertz, Tracy O'Hara,2000 In 1995 I began working with Ben Sivertz organizing his files and taking care of his sizeable written correspondence this familiarized me both with the man and his prodigious personal archive containing letters diaries speeches and employment and education records dating back to the beginning of the 20th century I had the privilege of listening to an oral history colourfully recalled by a man still very much in possession of his faculties and a walking historical treasure The stories of his life are fascinating and I felt worthy of record Over the course of five years a culling of information took the form of an autobiographical book the writing of which was done by me sandwiched between Ben s able storytelling and fine editorial ability This is a joint project in the truest sense Ben s life has spanned the century he was born in Victoria to Icelandic immigrant parents and recalls Victoria s days at the beginning of the last century with valuable clarity From rather modest origins Ben lived a life in three parts as a seaman in the last days of wooden sailing ships as a teacher in the remote northern end of Vancouver Island as the head of the Naval Training Establishment at King s College in Halifax during the Second World War and as a government worker who became Commissioner of the Northwest Territories remembered as one who left behind a progressive legacy of reform in the North Ben has lived almost four decades since his retirement outliving his wife and most recently relocating to Mayne Island to pass the remainder of his days surrounded by young and caring relatives In this story the reader will attain an understanding of seafaring in the early days on the West Coast life on Vancouver Island in pre war years sailing ship adventures on the Pacific in the twenties and government service in the halcyon days of External Affairs in the fifties and northern affairs in the same period It is a story that will delight many of Ben s devoted pupils who came under his tutelage at the Naval Training School in Halifax during WWII as well as the student of Canadian and British Columbian history It is well illustrated with many photographs from Ben s personal collection as well as copies of newspaper clippings Tracy O Hara Shipwrecks of the California Coast Michael D.
