Integrated Regional Assessment of Global Climate Change , Bilateral Trade Agreements in the Asia-Pacific Vinod Aggarwal,Shujiro Urata,2013-06-17 The Asia Pacific region has witnessed a rapid rise in bilateral preferential trade agreements at the beginning of the twenty first century This trend could have potentially dramatic effects on the trading patterns of countries in the transpacific region and beyond Some argue that these accords will spur multilateral negotiations while others believe that they will irreparably damage the trading system Bilateral Trade Agreements in the Asia Pacific examines the underlying political and economic factors driving these accords based on a novel theoretical framework Experts then provide overviews of political and economic trends in the region as well as detailed analysis of the trade strategies of Japan China Singapore South Korea Malaysia Taiwan Thailand the United States and Mexico By systematically evaluating and assessing the driving forces underlying the turn to bilateral trade agreements in the Asia Pacific this book provides the first comprehensive analysis of this crucial phenomenon Growing numbers of countries both in the region and elsewhere in the world are now considering further negotiation of bilateral trade accords Understanding how these arrangements will fit or conflict with existing institutions in the Asia Pacific and the WTO makes this book imperative reading for policy makers and scholars

Tsuji,2005-10-19 This book focuses on East Asia which has been attracting FDI and a centre of industrial agglomeration and because of this the production structure in the world has been dynamically transforming This book analyzes this world trend and provides a framework for strategy that is required not only for Japanese local governments to implement industrial cluster policy but also for firms to survive the global competition

International Economic Law after the Global Crisis Chin Lim,C. L. Lim,Bryan Mercurio,2015-04-30 This collection explores the theme of fragmentation within international economic law following the global financial crisis Contested Ideas of Regionalism in Asia Baogang He,2016-09-13 Deepening regionalism in Asia demands new leadership Strong elites who are committed to a supranational identity are a minimum requirement of successful regionalism Regional leaders are increasingly seen as a new set of leaders in Europe Currently Asian regional leaders largely come from the diplomacy community or trade and economic sectors Yet further regionalization demands a new type of leadership from civil society and citizens In this context it is important to cultivate new regional leadership through the development of regional citizenship This book examines contested ideas of regionalism in Asia with a particular focus on two competing ideas of pan Asianism and Pacificism It also identifies a new trend and contestation the fundamental shift from a civilization understanding of regionalism to a technocratic and functional understanding of regionalism in the form of regulatory regionalism It also examines the other contested imaginations of regionalism in Asia including elitist versus participatory approaches to regionalism and democracy centric versus nationalism centric approaches to regionalism Confronting Global

Neoliberalism Patrick Bond, Paul Clooney, 2011-02-28 With the world's attention fixed on the travails of leading global economies due to a still unfolding financial crisis of gigantic proportions there has been a studied silence on the fate of the third world as the malaise increasingly impacts it This silence is particularly disturbing because questions of potential pitfalls in the neoliberal policy package which the third world unlike Western Europe and Japan was largely forced to adopt were never countenanced as One third world state after another discovered that international institutions were in effect hostile to their governments if they chose alternative developmental models or otherwise resisted the neoliberal triage of liberalization privatization and deregulation This collection is a tour de force effectively countering not only the neoliberal ideology of development as a whole but the marginalizing within today's mainstream crisis discourse of any discussion of the monstrous misallocation of global resources wrought by the so called Washington Consensus and the suffering and destruction it has wreaked on third world peoples and economies This edited volume is intended as both a textbook for introductory classes in global development or area studies and as a conduit for advanced students policymakers NGO activists and an educated readership to gain knowledge about the socio economic conditions existing across much of the world we live in and the policies that brought them about The specially commissioned and peer reviewed chapters are written by experts in the fields of economics politics sociology and international studies Chapter authors hail from around the world including Brazil Mexico Canada United States United Kingdom South Africa South Korea and Thailand The countries regions neoliberal experience and potential futures covered in this book are Brazil China Cuba Egypt Mexico Southeast Asia Indonesia Malaysia and Vietnam South Africa South Korea Syria Thailand and Venezuela The Political Economy of Emerging Markets

Richard Westra, 2017-03-16 Rapid and sustained growth in the twenty first century global economy of large developing economies including Brazil Russia India China and South Africa has captivated policy makers and popular business press pundits alike The coining of the new acronym BRICS and widespread adoption in international economics discourse of the designation emerging markets is symptomatic of that interest The Political Economy of Emerging Markets situates the BRICS phenomena in the global economic context of advanced economies continuing to languish in recession and hovering over a deflationary abyss several years after the meltdown A key question this volume seeks to answer is whether the BRICS and so called emerging market phenomenon is really the new miracle it is presented as offering new or modified varieties of reloaded capitalist development to the world or yet another mirage Written by ten leading global experts this book answers the tough questions over BRICS and emerging markets potentially realizing new varieties of reloaded capitalism It is not only international and interdisciplinary but uniquely multiperspectival Theories framing chapters are not of one genre but
