Pacific Warbird Coming Of Age In World War II:

The Airmen and the Headhunters Judith M. Heimann, 2017-11-01 A true story of downed B 24s in Japanese occupied Borneo and a native tribe that makes us like the airmen rethink our definitions of civilized and savage Entertainment Weekly November 1944 Their B 24 bomber shot down on what should have been an easy mission off the Borneo coast a scattered crew of Army airmen cut themselves loose from their parachutes only to be met by loincloth wearing natives silently materializing out of the mountainous jungle Would these Dayak tribesmen turn the starving airmen over to the hostile Japanese occupiers Or would the Dayaks risk vicious reprisals to get the airmen safely home in a desperate game of hide and seek A cinematic survival story featuring a bamboo airstrip built on a rice paddy a mad British major and a blowpipe wielding army that helped destroy one of the last Japanese strongholds The Airmen and the Headhunters is also a gripping tale of wartime heroism unlike any other you have read Pacific Warbird Bob Hamilton, Robert H. Hamilton, 1999 This book was written to tell a good story about one mans adventures overseas in World War II The author a young navigator on a ten man B 24 bomber crew flew with the Thirteenth Air Force the Jungle Air Force in the southwest Pacific during most of 1945 the final year of World War II He flew twenty four combat bombing missions against Japanese targets from New Guinea to Formosa Taiwan before we won the war This book is his memoir of that period STYLE This book was written to read like a novel to enhance the story telling aspect of the memoir The novelistic style is part of a fairly new genre called creative nonfiction or dramatic nonfiction which adds interest to nonfiction accounts The dialogs of course were created by the author since there were no tape recorders in 1945 There are no fictional characters in this book All the names mentioned were real people really present at that time DOCUMENTATION It may read like a novel but this book is not fiction It is solidly grounded in fact based first of all on the memories of the author and other veterans of his bomber crew or their squadron or bomb group who have shared their memories with him It is also documented by official Air Force historical records squadron histories written at the time and classified secret until 1983 when they were declassified The author made several trips to the Air Force Historical Research Agency at Maxwell Air Force Base Montgomery Alabama and photocopied some 500 pages of relevant records from World War II The story is further documented by the original letters written by the author to his family and friends which are now in his files and by photographs given him by members of his crew many of which appear in the book COMING OF AGE In a letter written to his parents on September 3 1943 at the end of his army pre cadet training at Knox College the author age 18 wrote Its been an interesting three months Ive spent here Ive learned a lot not just about math and physics but about men and girls and people and life Edgar Guest said It takes a heap o livin to make a house a home well I think it takes a heap o livin to make a boy a man Im beginning to get some of that living here Im beginning to find out what men are really like how they treat each other and how they get along with each other I think thats one of the few big rewards of army life learning how to get along with all sorts of people This book tells more about the heap o livin to make a boy a man hence its subtitle Coming of Age in World War II PROFANITY Since the book was written for family readership the author tried to clean up the language by eliminating most of the casual profanity which characterized military dialog Some profanity was retained to emphasize moments of tension or high drama where it was needed for realism PLOT AND TOPICS The story begins with an exciting bombing raid over Borneo and flashes back to the crew flying off to war from California to the South Pacific in March 1945 It ends with their return to California eight months later after the war was won During the time overseas the narrator Bob Hamilton copes with adventures in the air in the jungle in a life raft and in the officers club He wrestles with the morality of war the grief of losing friends in combat and the need to sort out his love for three girl friends The chapter titles tempt readers throughout the story California Warbird Survivors 2002 Harold A.
