Cognitive Approaches to Contemporary Media Teodora Popescu, 2021-07-27 This collection represents a fresh perspective on metaphorical language used in the media nowadays and will inform and captivate both the general reader and the specialist It explores the fascinating facets of metaphor use in journals and films and given the mediatic tendencies of manipulative framings of reality offers fresh insights into how figurative language works in the media nowadays may be useful in order to educate audiences and train their decoding abilities in order to avoid being misled and biased Its complexity and wide array of perspectives would make this book a must read for anyone genuinely interested in achieving a broader picture of the field from undergraduate students of English language and linguists to people working in the media

The Wedding Spectacle Across Contemporary Media and Culture Jilly Boyce Kay, Melanie Kennedy, Helen Wood, 2019-10-24 This book interrogates the hyper visibility and stubborn endurance of the wedding spectacle across media and culture in the current climate The wide ranging chapters consider why the symbolic power of weddings is intensifying at a time when marriage as an institution appears to be in decline and they offer new insights into the shifting and complex gender politics of contemporary culture The collection is a feminist project but does not straight forwardly renounce the wedding spectacle Rather the diverse contributions offer close analyses of the myriad forms and practices of the wedding spectacle from reality television and cinematic film to wedding videography and bridal boutiques Drawing on feminist and queer theory the chapters illuminate the paradoxes contradictions disappointments cruelties and pleasures that are intimately bound up with the wedding spectacle Written by leading and emerging feminist scholars the chapters range across different national and cultural contexts to explore how the gender politics of weddings are changing and adapting to a new cultural and social landscape This in depth analysis of the wedding spectacle will appeal to academics and researchers in the fields of gender and mass media cultural studies feminist studies and intercultural communication

The Aesthetics of Violence in Contemporary Media Gwyn Symonds, 2011-11-03 The topic of violence in the media seems as inundated as can be Countless studies and research projects have been conducted mostly to show its negative effects on society What Gwynneth Symonds proposes though takes this significant topic one step further studying the aesthetics of media violence By defining key terms like the graphic nature and authenticity of violent representations and discussing how those definitions are linked to actual violence outside the film and television screen Symonds broadens the arena of study Engagingly written The Aesthetics of Violence in Contemporary

Media fills an important gap Symonds uses existing studies for the empirical audience reception data together with discussions of the different representations of violence to look at violence in the media as an art form in of itself By looking at The Simpsons Bowling for Columbine and Norma Khouri s Forbidden Love just to name a few Symonds cross analyzes violence in multiple media to see their affective role in audience reception an important aspect when discussing media The book strikes a balance between the readers need to see how theory matches what actually happens in the texts in question and the demands of a theoretical overview

Contemporary Chinese Print Media Zheng Yi, 2013-10-01 This book examines the transformations in form genre and content of contemporary Chinese print media It describes and analyses the role of post reform social stratification in the media focusing particularly on how the changing practices and institutions of the industry correspond to and accelerate the emergence of a relatively affluent urban leisure reading market It argues that this reinvention of Chinese print media vis vis

the creation of a post socialist taste class culture is an essential part of the cultural and affective transformations in contemporary Chinese society and demonstrates how the reinvention of such taste culture effectively creates through new kinds of reading materials and carefully demarcated target audiences a middle class civility that serves as the locus of the new niche media market

Sameness and Repetition in Contemporary Media Culture Susana Tosca, 2023-08-02 The ebook edition of this title is Open Access and freely available to read online Our culture has an uneasy relationship with repetition and sameness On the one hand we find familiarity pleasurable and soothing on the other we crave novelty and long for a sense of discovery We blame algorithms intent on selling us more of the same and on a media industry too greedy to risk investing in intellectually challenging radically new products Sameness and Repetition in Contemporary Media Culture takes a comprehensive approach that both theorises and historically grounds the idea of repetition in relation to media as something that is deeply embedded in our cultural tradition This project received funding from the Carlsberg Foundation

Contemporary Culture and Media in Asia Daniel Black, Olivia Khoo, Koichi Iwabuchi, 2016-09-23 The study of Asian culture media and communications is an area that has developed rapidly over the past two decades This rapid development has led to the deployment of diverse scholarly approaches while simultaneously raising important questions regarding the extent to which the use of key terms such as nation citizenship and modernity must be modified to reflect the specificity of an Asian context Furthermore the irrepressible flows of popular cultural forms and the enthusiastic adoption of new communications technologies across the region demand approaches that can accommodate the dynamism and diversity of Asian culture and media Contemporary Culture and Media in Asia brings together leading scholars from Asia North America and Australia to address questions related to these challenges producing new insights and frameworks that can be productively utilized by students and scholars working in the field

Renaissance of Classical Allusions in Contemporary Russian Media Svitlana Malykhina, 2014-02-27 Renaissance of Classical Allusions in Contemporary Russian Media builds on a growing body of work concerning post Soviet media culture during the last transformative decade Making sense of the literary allusions in media discourse Svitlana Malykhina reminds us that allusions can serve as a primary marker of identity national and cultural and may also be a way of negotiating the gap between what has to be reported and what can be banned by censorship Malykhina presents the changes and continuities between rhetoric strategies of Soviet style media and postcommunist Russian media identifying the key literary and historical references in public discourse which are then picked up by the media The book analyzes the political cultural and social factors at play in the development and expansion of these allusions in both official and alternative discourses Examining the rise of the Internet which has remained wholly uncensored in Russia Malykhina reveals that the Russian Internet media began to function as alternative mass media Yet the success of the Internet media has also brought complex and unintended consequences Malykhina offers an empirically rich examination of conventional classical allusions in media discourse focusing mainly on the rhetorical techniques by which subversive meanings of these references were generated Food, Media and Contemporary Culture Peri Bradley, 2016-01-26 Food Media and Contemporary Culture is designed to interrogate the cultural fascination with food as the focus of a growing number of visual texts that reveal the deep psychological relationship that each of us has with rituals of preparing presenting and consuming food and images of food Contemporary Weaving in Mixed Media Rachna Garodia, 2022-09-01 This glorious book is a modern guide to weaving an ancient craft that is reaching new heights of popularity from acclaimed contemporary weaver and textile artist Rachna Garodia It contains a wealth of practical advice and tons of inspiration for every aspect of this endlessly adaptable craft from gathering materials to making and exhibiting ambitious woven masterpieces bringing in a wide selection of mixed media Meditative and calming a session at the loom is a great way to relax and create something beautiful in the process And you don't need expensive equipment you can start your weaving journey on a small wooden frame or even a piece of cardboard and it's now easy to book time on larger looms outside the home The book includes Choosing a loom from the simplest small frames to sophisticated table and floor looms Design and planning taking inspiration from the natural world sketching photographing making moodboards and exploring colour Gathering materials from natural straw grass flowers feathers bark and seedpods to more traditional yarns and threads and even paper and photographs Personalising your work by incorporating well loved old fabrics and precious sentimental items Unusual techniques weaving with photographs or directly onto handmade paper three dimensional sculptural weaving non loom techniques such as looping and netting Gorgeously illustrated with work from the author and other artists from around the world this book is an engaging and beautiful introduction to weaving for established textile artists or those coming to the craft for the first time Contemporary Landscapes in Mixed Media Soraya French, 2017-06-12 A great guide for painters who want to experiment with mixed media and make their landscape paintings more adventurous Popular artist and teacher Soraya French encourages readers to experiment with mixing media and to create more adventurous paintings and broaden their artistic horizons The media that Soraya uses in this book are acrylics pastels and collage and she shows how to bring the best out of mixing these media with handy tips some simple projects and several step by step demonstrations Landscape and the way it changes over the seasons is the ideal subject for experimenting with different textural effects using mixed media Contemporary Landscapes in Mixed Media is divided into four seasonal chapters with each section dealing with the colours shapes patterns and textures particular to each season There is information on mixing colours relevant to each season as well as interesting ways of painting flowers and other details of nature how to create exciting compositions and how to add architectural aspects within the landscape In some landscapes figures may be added in order to animate the composition and create a narrative This practical and inspirational book will help and encourage the reader to explore the fascinating potential of mixed media and to adopt a freer attitude in their painting The Metareferential Turn in Contemporary Arts and Media Werner Wolf, 2011-01-01 One possible

description of the contemporary medial landscape in Western culture is that it has gone meta to an unprecedented extent so that a remarkable meta culture has emerged. Indeed, metareference i.e. self reflexive comments on or references to various kinds of media related aspects of a given medial artefact or performance specific media and arts or the media in general is omnipresent and can nowadays be encountered in high art and literature as frequently as in their popular counterparts in the traditional media as well as in new media. From the Simpsons pop music children's literature computer games and pornography to the contemporary visual arts feature film postmodern fiction drama and even architecture everywhere one can find metareferential explorations comments on or criticism of representation medial conventions or modes of production and reception and related issues. Within individual media and genres notably in research on postmodernist metafiction this outspoken tendency towards metaization is known well enough and various reasons have been given for it. Yet never has there been an attempt to account for what one may aptly term the current metareferential turn on a larger transmedial scale. This is what The Metareferential Turn in Contemporary Arts and Media Forms Functions Attempts at Explanation undertakes to do as a sequel to its predecessor the volume Metareference across Media vol 4 in the series Studies in Intermediality which was dedicated to theoretical issues and transhistorical case studies. Coming from diverse disciplinary and methodological backgrounds the contributors to the present volume propose explanations of impressive subtlety breadth and depth for the current situation in addition to exploring individual forms and functions of metareference which may be linked with particular explanations. As expected there is no monocausal reason to be found for the situation under scrutiny yet the proposals made have in their combination a remarkable explanatory power which contributes to a better understanding of an important facet of current media production and reception. The essays assembled in the volume which also contains an introduction with a detailed survey over the possibilities of accounting for the metareferential turn will be relevant to students and scholars from a wide variety of fields cultural history at large intermediality and media studies as well as more particularly literary studies music film and art history.

Indigenous Media and Political Imaginaries in Contemporary Bolivia Gabriela Zamorano Villarreal, 2017-07-01. Fray Bernardino de Sahagún INAH Award in Mexico for Best Research Work in Anthropology. Gabriela Zamorano Villarreal examines the political dimension of indigenous media production and distribution as a means by which indigenous organizations articulate new claims on national politics in Bolivia a country experiencing one of the most notable cases of social mobilization and indigenous based constitutional transformation in contemporary Latin America. Based on fieldwork in Bolivia from 2005 to 2007 Zamorano Villarreal details how grassroots indigenous media production has been instrumental to indigenous political demands for a Constituent Assembly and for implementing the new constitution within Evo Morales's controversial administration. On a day to day basis Zamorano Villarreal witnessed the myriad processes by which Bolivia's indigenous peoples craft images of political struggle and enfranchisement to produce films about their role in Bolivian society. Indigenous Media and Political Imaginaries in Contemporary Bolivia contributes a wholly new and original perspective on indigenous media worlds in Bolivia the collaborative and decolonizing authorship of indigenous media against the neoliberal multicultural state and its key role in reimagining national politics Zamorano Villarreal unravels the negotiations among indigenous media makers about how to fairly depict a gender territorial or justice conflict in their films to promote grassroots understanding of indigenous peoples in Bolivia s multicultural society
