Leske, 2017-10-06 Using the method of intertextuality Adrian Leske has traced the growth of the prophetic vision from Amos to the Exile demonstrating how after the Exile the dominant influence on that vision down to the time of Jesus is the positive and new message of Deutero Isaiah With opposition from the Zadokite priesthood and exploitation from foreign rulers the prophetic and Levite communities find refuge in Upper Galilee and surrounding areas Using the Gospel of Matthew the most Jewish of the Gospels Leske demonstrates how that vision impacted the teaching of Jesus to these communities and how he perceived his mission as the Servant Son of man Understanding this prophetic vision and the Jewish nature of Matthew s Gospel brings new insights to Matthean Christology as well as the authorship and date of that Gospel in relation to the other Gospels

Adrian Benard, 2017-05-17 So many of us grow up being constantly reminded about an all-forgiving merciful and beneficent deity All throughout life it can even be drummed into us that we cannot live happy purposeful lives without a heavenly father who protects us and grants our wishes through prayer And if things don't go according to plan then we are simply told that God works in mysterious ways But what if we have more questions What if these things we are being told taught and even sold just don't live up to expectation What the Bible Really Tells Us looks to the very source of many of these doctrines and teachings about divinity and human nature the Judeo-Christian Bible in order to unveil some of the reasons why the same questions about God his nature and biblical history often reveal different and sometimes inconsistent or even contradictory answers Exploring issues related to God's nature such as his character qualities and attributes as well as investigating biblical events and figures like Adam and Eve and creation Noah and the flood and Abraham and his chosen lineage It asks us not only to think critically about the factual discrepancies and oddities but also to question why this biblical God or gods as it may be is in fact so similar to ourselves The Bible was written thousands and thousands of years ago but everybody has been conditioned and told to believe it regardless of the facts and sometimes even regardless of the often contradictory and inconsistent passages in the Bible itself Faced with an idiosyncratic God and an incongruous book we can study What the Bible Really Tells Us and confront a challenging thought Did God create us or did we create him

Charles and Emma Darwin: The Option to Believe Chris

Dunford, 2022-05-05 Many people look at the world through a scientific lens that seems to forbid religious conviction but then find themselves drawn by curiosity if not longing to the religious worldview Is this tension inevitable or unnecessary The famously successful marriage of Charles and Emma Darwin illustrates the problem Charles and Emma were very close to each other in social background and knowledge of the world yet they found it difficult to agree on the Question of God Were their religious beliefs driven apart more by his science or by their society Were these potentially compatible or inherently irreconcilable Charles and Emma Darwin The Option to Believe searches for answers in the family s history and individual personalities as well as in the cultural social and intellectual history of that family s society The book also looks back on the Darwins predicament from the perspective of modern science and theology and suggests it is society not science that creates the modern tension between science and religion There is an intellectual option to believe in God that seemed unavailable to Victorians like Charles Darwin yet is certainly available to us today
