Infectious Disease Peter J. Brown, Marcia C. Inhorn, 2013-11-05 Anthropological contributions to the study of infectious disease and to the study of actual infectious disease eradication programmes have rarely been collected in one volume In the era of AIDS and the global resurgence of infectious diseases such as tuberculosis and malaria there is widespread interest and concern about the cultural ecological and political factors that are directly related to the increased prevalence of infectious disease In this book the authors have assembled the growing scholarship in one volume Chapters explore the coevolution of genes and cultural traits the cultural construction of disease and how these models influence health seeking behaviour cultural adaptive strategies to infectious disease problems the ways in which ethnography sheds light on epidemiological patterns of infectious disease the practical and ethical dilemmas that anthropologists face by participating in infectious disease programmes and the political ecology of infectious disease Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Human Resources United States. Principles of Medicine in Africa Eldred Parry, 2004-03-25 For students of medicine and those who practice in the front line of medicine in Africa this fully revised edition combines classical internal medicine with a rich understanding of the major influences on health and disease in Africa It puts disease into the context of family and culture and is not afraid to address the effects of inequality on health and the problems of limited resources for health care There is a much expanded section on non communicable diseases as well as comprehensive accounts of HIV AIDS malaria tuberculosis and other major infections in the continent Forward looking and evidence based this new edition reflects the emergence of new diseases and health risks in the region Compiled by the foremost international authorities this is the one essential text for the medical student medical officer or postgraduate student wanting the most complete and up to date reference book on medicine in Africa

Nutrition and Human Reproduction W. Mosley, 2012-12-06 This book is the product of the Conference on Nutrition and Human Reproduction supported and organized by the National Institutes of Child Health and Human Development and held at the National Institutes of Health Bethesda Maryland in February 1977 The genesis of this Conference came from the work of the Subcommittee on Nutrition and Fertility of the Committee on International Nutrition Programs of the National Research Council The purpose of the Conference was to assemble scientists and program planners from a broad range of fields including nutrition epidemiology demography endocrinology sociology economics anthropology biostatistics and public health Each individual brought his or her analytical skills and perspective to the meeting with the goal of developing a more coherent picture of the many facets of nutrition and reproduction The approach was to get a more comprehensive view by

- 1 Clarifying terminology and definitions
- 2 Reviewing recent and current work on the biological basis for nutrition fertility interactions
- 3 Reviewing biomedical and socioeconomic factors related to breast feeding to assess how this practice relates to maternal and infant nutrition and fertility
- 4 Assessing some current analytical models for defining nutrition fertility interrelationships
- 5 Reviewing recent field studies from Africa Asia and Latin America which are examining the interrelationships of nutrition and reproduction

Common Dilemmas in Family Medicine John Fry, 2012-12-06 One of the exciting challenges of medicine has been the reaching of decisions based on less than complete evidence As undergraduates in teaching hospitals future physicians are taught to think in clear and absolute black and white terms Diagnoses in teaching hospitals all are based on supportive positive findings of investigations Treatment follows logically on precise diagnosis When patients die the causes of death are confirmed at autopsy How very different is real life in clinical practice and particularly in family medicine By the very nature of the common conditions that present diagnoses tend to be imprecise and based on clinical assessment and interpretation Much of the management and treatment of patients is based on opinions of individual physicians based on their personal experiences Because of the relative professional isolation of family physicians within their own practices not unexpectedly divergent views and opinions are formed There is nothing wrong in such divergencies because there are no clear absolute black and white decisions General family practice functions in grey areas of medicine where it is possible and quite correct to hold polarized distinct opinions The essence of good care must be eternal flexibility and readiness to change long held cherished opinions To demonstrate that with many issues in family medicine it is possible to have more than one view I selected 10 clinical and 11 non clinical topics and invited colleagues and fellow practitioners to enter into a debate in print

Nutritional Problems and Education: Selected Topics G. H. Bourne, 1986-03-19 Human Adaptation and Accommodation A. Roberto Frisancho, 1993 A text that explores how humans adapt to conditions of physical stress

Medicine, Faith and Politics in Agogo Pascal Schmid, 2018 Medicine Faith and Politics in Agogo examines the development of health care delivery at a former mission hospital in Ghana It reveals the configurations of interests values and ideologies that shaped the development and implementation of health care practices strategies and concepts By providing an in depth analysis the book contributes a particular perspective on the history of health care delivery in rural Africa and beyond It addresses topics that are still heavily under researched These include the decolonisation of health care as well as the development and implementation of medical concepts for developing countries such as primary health care Dissertation Series Swiss African Studies Schweizerische Afrikastudien Etudes africaines suisses Vol 13 Subject African Studies History Religious Studies Health Care Studies Sociology

Resettling America Gary J. Coates, 2023-06-10 Every movement has its bellweathers the ideas that lead the way and rally its adherents towards a set of shared values and visions Resettling America was one such beacon a publication for its time and ahead of its time Those of us doing the work of sustainability and the transformation of communities feel grateful for Gary's early and prescient contribution that has shaped the thinking of so many around the US and beyond Essential reading for all green warriors

Jason F McLennan Chief Sustainability Officer Perkins Will Founder Living Building Challenge Originally published in 1981 and now reissued with a new Preface by Gary J Coates Resettling America was one of the first comprehensive transdisciplinary books on the crisis of sustainability and the implications of that crisis for the re design of buildings towns cities and regions Through essays by Coates which provide a theory of ecological design and case studies written by leading authors and activists of the time the book presents a strategic vision of how it would be possible to create a sustainable and livable society through a process of cooperative community development rooted in a radical re visioning of nature self and society By providing a strategic vision as well offering practical means for creating a sustainable society worth sustaining Resettling America remains more relevant and inspiring than ever to those who face the ecology of crises that now surround us in the 21st Century
