Un Paese Cesare Zavattini, 1997 Interviews with villagers and descriptions of daily life accompany photographs of the people and town of Luzzara Cesare Zavattini: Selected Writings David Brancaleone, 2021-07-15 Volume 1 makes available for the first time in English thirty nine scenarios and two treatments Each text is preceded by an introduction providing an essential frame of reference to make these writings entirely accessible to the reader While nearly all these texts belong to the post war period including the stories for major post war classics there are also seven pre war racconti the narrative source of Zavattini's Modernist magical realism several fictional interviews and faux reportage tinged with irony aimed at Hollywood complemented by several pre war scenarios The book also features scenarios for Luchino Visconti's Bellissima Alessandro Blasetti's First Communion De Sica's The Roof and texts encompassing Zavattini's ethnographic vision from the redactions of Italia mia interviews for Un paese illustrated with Paul Strand's photographs to the scenarios for investigative documentaries including Why The Mysteries of Rome The Guinea Pig the Free Newsreel Revolution and the lucid Before During After tackling Aldo Moro's assassination by the Red Brigades The book includes Zavattini's last word on cinema and society the testamentary satire La verità 1982 written directed and acted by Zavattini himself Each text is preceded by an introduction providing an essential frame of reference to make these writings entirely accessible to the reader Volume 2 brings to the fore Zavattini's ever evolving internal dialogue between diary writer screenwriter narrative writer and political activist Essential to trace the origin of Zavattini's ideas on cinema and understand his theorization of Neo realism is the inclusion of a selection of the filmmaker's pre war writings Most of the book provides a substantial anthology of texts translated from Neorealismo ecc 1979 comprising Zavattini's major essays conference papers unpublished production papers interviews and vital excerpts from his correspondence and published cinematic diary Through translation and detailed cultural and contextual commentary translator and editor David Brancaleone traces not only Zavattini's theory of the screen but also his experimentation in new film practices including the flash film film lampo the inquiry film film inchiesta cinema as encounter cinema d'incontro the diary film film diario the confessional film film confessione and the grass roots community film cinema insieme or cinema di tanti per tanti Each text is preceded by an introduction providing an essential frame of reference to make these writings entirely accessible to the reader Cesare Zavattini's Neo-realism and the Afterlife of an Idea David Brancaleone, 2021-07-15 How many Zavattinis are there During a life spanning most of the twentieth century the screenwriter who wrote Sciusci Bicycle Thieves Miracle in Milan and Umberto D was also a pioneering magazine publisher in 1930s Milan a public intellectual a theorist a tireless campaigner for change within the film industry a man of letters a painter and a poet This intellectual biography is built on the premise that in order to understand Zavattini's idea of cinema and his legacy of ethical and political cinema including guerrilla cinema we must also tease out the multi faceted strands of his interventions and their interplay over time The book is for general readers students and film historians and anyone with an interest in cinema and its fate     Cesare Zavattini Cesare Zavattini,2021-01-01 Cesare Zavattini Selected Writings offers for the first time in English a substantive selection of the Italian screenwriter s writings across two volumes Through translation and detailed cultural and contextual commentary translator and editor David Brancaleone traces not only Zavattini s theory of the screen but also his experimentation in new film practices including the flash film film lampo the inquiry film film inchiesta cinema as encounter cinema d incontro the diary film film diario the confessional film film confessione and the grass roots community film cinema insieme or cinema di tanti per tanti     Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey,2019-03-14 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey s Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature     A Story of Six Rivers Peter Coates,2013-06-01 Many of the world s major cities sprang up on the banks of rivers Used for water food irrigation transportation and power rivers sustain life and connect the world together but most of us think of them simply as waterways that must be crossed on the way to another place Using four European and two North American rivers as examples A Story of Six Rivers considers the place of rivers in our world and emphasizes the inextricable links between history culture and ecology Peter Coates explores six rivers chosen as examples of the types of rivers found on the planet the Danube the second longest river in Europe the Spree which flows through Berlin the Po which cuts eastward across northern Italy the Mersey in northwest England the Yukon which runs through Canada and Alaska and the Los Angeles in California Creating a series of river biographies Coates gives voice to each of these bodies of water exploring how rivers nurture us provide cultural and economic opportunities and pose threats to our everyday lives He challenges recent narratives that paint rivers as the victims of abuse pollution and damage at the hands of humans focusing on change rather than devastation Describing how humans and rivers form a symbiotic and sometimes mutually destructive relationship Coates argues that rivers illustrate the limits of human authority and that their capacity to inspire us is as strong as our ability to pollute them An intimate portrait of the way these bodies of water inform our lives A Story of Six Rivers will make us reconsider the streams and tributaries we traverse each day

The Celluloid Atlantic Saverio Giovacchini,2025-02-01 Offers a fresh look at American and Italian cinema in the postwar period The Celluloid Atlantic changes the way we look at American and Italian cinema in the postwar period In the thirty years following World War II American and Italian film industries came to be an integrated transnational unit rather than two separate nation based entities Written in jargon free prose and based on previously unexplored archival sources this book revisits the history of Neorealism World War II combat cinema the Western all Italiana and the career of John Kitzmiller the African American star who made Italy his home and was the first person of color to win the Best Actor Award at the Cannes Film Festival The Celluloid Atlantic makes the trailblazing argument that culturally hybrid genres like the so called spaghetti Western were less the exceptions than the norm Giovacchini argues that the waning of the Celluloid Atlantic in the early 1970s was due to the economic policies of the first Nixon administration specifically its important but largely neglected Revenue Act of 1971 as well as to the ideological debates between Europeans and Americans that intensified during the American intervention in Vietnam Sanctioning Modernism Vladimir Kulic, Timothy Parker, Monica Penick, 2014-06-01

In the decades following World War II modern architecture spread around the globe alongside increased modernization urbanization and postwar reconstruction and it eventually won widespread acceptance But as the limitations of conventional conceptions of modernism became apparent modern architecture has come under increasing criticism In this collection of essays experienced and emerging scholars take a fresh look at postwar modern architecture by asking what it meant to be modern what role modern architecture played in constructing modern identities and who sanctioned or was sanctioned by modernism in architecture This volume presents focused case studies of modern architecture in three realms political religious and domestic that address our very essence as human beings Several essays explore developments in Czechoslovakia Romania and Yugoslavia and document a modernist design culture that crossed political barriers such as the Iron Curtain more readily than previously imagined Other essays investigate various efforts to reconcile the concerns of modernist architects with the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church and other Christian institutions And a final group of essays looks at postwar homebuilding in the United States and demonstrates how malleable and contested the image of the American home was in the mid twentieth century These inquiries show the limits of canonical views of modern architecture and reveal instead how civic institutions ecclesiastical traditions individual consumers and others sought to sanction the forms and ideas of modern architecture in the service of their respective claims or desires to be modern They did not stop at Eboli Karin Priem, Giovanna Hendel, Carole Naggar, 2020-02-10 The analysis of UNESCO s audio visual archives for their digitization has brought to light a forgotten album of 38 contact sheets and accompanying texts by Magnum photographer David Chim Seymour a reportage made in 1950 for UNESCO on the fight against illiteracy in Italy s southern region of Calabria A number of his photographs appeared in the March 1952 issue of UNESCO Courier in an article written by Carlo Levi who had gained worldwide fame with his novel Christ Stopped at Eboli 1945 L analyse des archives audio visuelles de l UNESCO en vue de leur num risation a permis de d couvrir un album oubli comprenant 38 planches contact et des textes d accompagnement du photographe de Magnum David Chim Seymour un reportage r alis en 1950 pour l UNESCO sur la bataille contre l analphab tisme en Calabre une r gion du sud de l Italie Un certain nombre de ses photographies ont t publi es dans le num ro de mars 1952 du Courier de l UNESCO avec un article de Carlo Levi dont le roman Le Christ s est arr t
