

Paint Your Day

Paint your days in the hues of your heart

Choose the crayons of your actions, pick the brushes of your determination, perseverance, and ambitions

Recognize your taste, to paint your fate

Adorn your life with colorful days
Your life will wear all the days you paint

Let it shine and smile with the rainbow of your soul's colors

The Complete Poems of Carl Sandburg Carl Sandburg, 1970 Presents the Pulitzer Prize winning collection of the complete poems of twentieth century American poet Carl Sandburg To Make a Poem Alberta Turner, 1992-04 A poem comes from the same human need as a prayer a curse a lullaby and a keen How can emotion use language to satisfy its most urgent need and how can it share and prolong that satisfaction by putting it into poems that will satisfy the same need in others The answer can be learned and the skill taught Unlike many other textbooks this one has no teaching manual and Alberta Turner does not expect those who use it to agree with her interpretations Each principle is illustrated with detailed analysis of several poems but it is up to the teachers and students to decide whether it has succeeded or failed Poetic tastes can't be legislated they have to creep by underground runners Although a poem never illustrates only one poetic principle at a time this book has focused on each separately Since the book is intended to be used by beginning poets the principles are sequenced from simpler to more complex As courses in writing poetry range from two week enrichment programs to full semester college workshops the book is arranged so that the course can be shortened or lengthened This book will work best for flexible imaginative teachers of flexible imaginative students A Collegiate Press book Introduction to Poetry ,

A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning, Oxford Lectures on Poetry Andrew Cecil Bradley, 1917

The Birth to Presence Jean-Luc Nancy, 1993 The epoch of representation is as old as the West Indeed representation is the West understood as what at once designates and expands its own limits But what comes after the West What comes after representation's disclosure of its own limit The central problem posed in these essays collected from over a decade of work is how in the wake of Western ontologies to conceive the coming the birth that characterizes being We are now at the limit of representation where objects as we experience them have been show to be merely objects of representation or rather of presentation since there is nothing to re present The first part of this book Existence asks how today one can give sense of meaning to existence as such arguing that existence itself as it comes nude into the world must now be our sense In examining what this birth to presence might be we should not ask what presence is rather we should conceive presence as presence to someone including to presence itself This birth is not the constitution of an identity but the endless departure of an identity from and from within its other or others Its coming is not desire but jouissance the joy of averring oneself to be continually in the state of being born a rejoicing of birth a birth of rejoicing The second section Poetry asks What art exposes this In writing in the voice in painting And what if art is exposed to it How does it inscribe or rather exscribe in a term the book develops the coming existence as such The author's trajectory in this book crosses those of Hegel Schlegel Baudelaire Nietzsche Freud and Heidegger in their comments on art and politics existence and corporeality everyday life and its modes of existence and ecstasy An analysis that dares this crossing involves all the varied accounts of existence political as well as philosophical and all the realms of poverty
