Highly recommended Blinded By The Sun Seamus Guyver, 2013-10 A passage between the stars the moon and the thoughts caught within all of us The different emotions we hide sometimes when left staring at the sun feeling the moon within your mind For all the people and chances that have gone before Of all the times we felt so much alive and the regrets we hold like the dark side of the moon Knowing the journey will lead us within the sun changing our views Feeling a step within life is just a change within our minds Now feel the journey within one mind take the time to ponder all the thoughts and feelings felt within one sun and the mood of this life and how it can lift you higher and take you down when you lose the focus of the road that lies ahead and people who move like ghosts within your trail Knowing one day you will unite the Sun and the Moon and find a distant peace within your heart This may take time and Journey will have many falls But the road is just a reflection within the memories of our minds The Chinese Essay ,2002-08 Veteran sinologist David Pollard has selected and translated the best and most representative examples of Chinese prose writing from the third century to the contemporary period Though spanning the past 1 800 years the bulk of the selections are from the twentieth century and range from early masters such as Lu Xun to the major writers of the middle generation such as Ye Chengtao and Liang Yuchun Reading Rock Art Grace Rajnovich,2002-02-25 More than 400 rock paintings adorn the Canadian Shield from Quebec across Ontario and as far west as Saskatchewan The pictographs are the legacy of the Algonkian speaking Cree and Ojibway whose roots may extend to the beginnings of human occupancy in the region almost 10 000 years ago Archaeologist Grace Rajnovich spent fourteen years of field research uncovering a multitude of clues as to the meanings of the paintings She has written a text which is unique in its ability to see the paintings from a traditional native viewpoint Skilfully weaving the imagery metaphors and traditions of the Cree and Ojibway the author has recaptured the poetry and wisdom of an ancient culture Chief Willie Wilson of the Rainy River Band considers Grace s work innovative and original On the Air John Dunning,1998-05-07 Now long out of print John Dunning s Tune in Yesterday was the definitive one volume reference on old time radio broadcasting Now in On the Air Dunning has completely rethought this classic work reorganizing the material and doubling its coverage to provide a richer and more informative account of radio s golden age Here are some 1 500 radio shows presented in alphabetical order The great programs of the 30s 40s and 50s are all here Amos n Andy Fibber McGee and Molly The Lone Ranger Major Bowes Original Amateur Hour and The March of Time to name only a few For each Dunning provides a complete broadcast history with the timeslot the network and the name of the show s advertisers He also lists major cast members announcers producers directors writers and sound effects people even the show s theme song There are also umbrella entries such as News Broadcasts which features an engaging essay on radio news with capsule biographies of major broadcasters such as Lowell Thomas and Edward R Murrow Equally important Dunning provides a fascinating account of each program taking us behind the scenes to capture the feel of the performance such as the ghastly sounds of Lights Out a horror drama where heads rolled and bones crunched and providing engrossing biographies of the main people involved in the show A wonderful read for everyone who loves old time radio On the Air is a must purchase for all radio hobbyists and anyone interested in 20th century American history It is an essential reference work for libraries and radio stations
