Fashioned Texts and Painted Books Erin E. Edgington, 2017-10-01 Fashioned Texts and Painted Books examines the folding fan's multiple roles in fin de siècle and early twentieth century French literature Focusing on the fan's identity as a symbol of feminine sexuality as a collectible art object and especially as an alternative book form well suited to the reception of poetic texts the study highlights the fan's suitability as a substrate for verse deriving from its myriad associations with coquetry and sex flight air and breath Close readings of Stéphane Mallarmé's ventails of the 1880s and 1890s and Paul Claudel's Cent phrases pour ventails 1927 consider both text and paratext as they underscore the significant visual interest of this poetry Works in prose and in verse by Octave Uzanne Guy de Maupassant and Marcel Proust along with fan leaves by Edgar Degas douard Manet Berthe Morisot and Paul Gauguin serve as points of comparison that deepen our understanding of the complex interplay of text and image that characterizes this occasional subgenre Through its interrogation of the correspondences between form and content in fan poetry this study demonstrates that the fan was in addition to being a ubiquitous fashion accessory a significant literary and art historical object straddling the boundary between East and West past and present and high and low art Art Worlds Roberta Wue, 2014-12-09 The growth of Shanghai in the late nineteenth century gave rise to an exciting new art world in which a flourishing market in popular art became a highly visible part of the treaty port's commercialized culture Art Worlds examines the relationship between the city's visual artists and their urban audiences Through a discussion of images ranging from fashionable painted fans to lithograph illustrated magazines the book explores how popular art intersected with broader cultural trends It also investigates the multiple roles played by the modern Chinese artist as image maker entrepreneur celebrity and urban sojourner Focusing on industrially produced images mass advertisements and other hitherto neglected sources the book offers a new interpretation of late Qing visual culture at a watershed moment in the history of modern Chinese art Art Worlds will be of interest to scholars of art history and to anyone with an interest in the cultural history of modern China By focusing on objects sites social networks and technologies this elegantly conceived book enriches our understanding of art production and consumption in nineteenth century Shanghai The author makes masterful use of newspapers guidebooks diaries and advertisements as well as paintings to present readers with the compelling story of a city and its artists Tobie Meyer Fong author of What Remains Coming to Terms with Civil War in 19th Century China and Building Culture in Early Qing Yangzhou Rich in findings forensic in visual analysis and not least elegantly crafted Wue's book on painting printing and the social worlds of art in late Qing Shanghai is an exemplary contribution A must read volume Shane McCausland author of Zhao Mengfu Calligraphy and Painting for Khubilai's China History of the Fan George Woolliscroft Rhead, 1910 Bulletin University of Pennsylvania.
