American Artist In The South Sea John La Farge,2020-10-28 The American artists John La Farge preceded Gauguin to the Pacific and in their time his reputation as the modern Pacific painter far overshadowed that of the Frenchman This remarkable work is the record of a year long artistic odyssey through the South Seas during which La Farge braved the volcanoes of Hawaii visited Robert Louis Stevenson in Samoa was adopted by a noble Tahitian family and journeyed through the wild hills of Fiji painting and sketching lyrical studies of island life Lavishly illustrated with his work this account of the Polynesian adventures that La Farge shared with his friend the historian Henry Adams is an important contribution to the literary and artistic heritage of the Pacific and a revealing insight into the life of a complex and fascinating man The Master Painter ,1912 The Oxford Handbook of Qualitative Research Patricia Leavy,2020-09-07 The Oxford Handbook of Qualitative Research Second Edition presents a comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of the field of qualitative research Divided into eight parts the forty chapters address key topics in the field such as approaches to qualitative research philosophical perspectives narrative inquiry field research and interview methods text arts based and internet methods analysis and interpretation of findings and representation and evaluation The handbook is intended for students of all levels faculty and researchers across the disciplines and the contributors represent some of the most influential and innovative researchers as well as emerging scholars This handbook provides a broad introduction to the field of qualitative research to those with little to no background in the subject while providing substantive contributions to the field that will be of interest to even the most experienced researchers It serves as a user friendly teaching tool suitable for a range of undergraduate or graduate courses as well as individuals working on their thesis or other research projects With a focus on methodological instruction the incorporation of real world examples and practical applications and ample coverage of writing and representation this volume offers everything readers need to undertake their own qualitative studies The Art Review

,1905 Watriama and Co Hugh Laracy,2013-10-01 WATRIAMA AND CO the title echoes Kipling s STALKY AND CO is a collection of biographical essays about people associated with the Pacific Islands It covers a period of almost a century and a half However the individual stories of first hand experience converge to some extent in various ways so as to present a broadly coherent picture of Pacific History In this politics economics and religion overlap So too do indigenous cultures and concerns together with the activities and interests of the Europeans who ventured into the Pacific and who had a profound widespread and enduring impact there from the nineteenth century and who also prompted reactions from the Island peoples Not least significant in this process is the fact that the Europeans generated a paper trail through which their stories and those of the Islanders who also contributed to their written record can be known Thus not only are the subjects of the essays to be encountered personally and within a contextual kinship but the way in which the past has shaped the future is clearly discernible Watriama himself features in various historical narratives So too certain of his confreres in this collection which is the product of several decades of exploring the Pacific past in archives by sea and on foot through most of Oceania

Pacific Artists Patricia Hereniko,1986 Painting US Empire Maggie M. Cao,2025-01-03 A fresh look at the global dimensions of US painting from the 1850s to 1898 Painting US Empire is the first book to offer a synthetic account of art and US imperialism around the globe in the nineteenth century In this work art historian Maggie M Cao crafts a nuanced portrait of nineteenth century US painters complicity with and resistance to ascendant US imperialism offering eye opening readings of canonical works landscapes of polar expeditions and tropical tourism still lifes of imported goods genre paintings and ethnographic portraiture Revealing how the US empire was hidden in plain sight in the art of this period Cao examines artists including Frederic Edwin Church and Winslow Homer who championed and expressed ambivalence toward the colonial project She also tackles the legacy of US imperialism examining Euro American painters of the past alongside global artists of the present Pairing each chapter with reflections on works by contemporary anticolonial artists including Tavares Strachan Nicholas Galanin and Yuki Kihara Cao addresses important contemporary questions around representation colonialism and indigeneity This book foregrounds an underacknowledged topic in the study of nineteenth century US art and illuminates the ongoing ecological and economic effects of the US empire Supplementary Catalogue of the Public

The Detective and the Artist J.K. Van Dover,2019-01-25 This book focuses on the distinctive role that artists have played in detective fiction as detectives as villains and victims and as bystanders With a few significant exceptions literary detectives have always identified themselves as essentially the deconstructors of the artful crimes of others They may use various methods ratiocinative scientific or hard boiled but they always unravel the threads that the villains have woven into deceptive covers for their crimes The detective does in the end produce a work of art a narrative that explains everything that needs explanation But the detective s moral work is often juxtaposed to the aesthetic work of the painters poets and writers that the detective encounters during an investigation The author surveys this juxtaposition in works by important authors from the early development of the genre Poe Conan Doyle the golden age Bentley Christie Sayers James et al and the hard boiled era Hammett Chandler Macdonald Spicer et al Index-catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology ,1950 Famous Painters of America Joseph Walker McSpadden,1907
