Painters Psalm The Mural From Walter Andersons Cottage:

A Painter's Psalm Redding S. Sugg, 1992 The astonishing history of a brilliant treasure Walter Anderson created in his hidden room     A Painter's Psalm Redding S. Sugg, 1978     A Southern Collection , 1993-02-01 A Southern Collection presents select masterworks from the permanent collection of the Morris Museum of Art on the occasion of the institution's inaugural exhibition Drawn from a comprehensive survey collection of painting in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present day the museum's opening exhibit explores an artistic terrain as rich and diverse as the South itself arranged in categories that reflect critical chronological developments in the art world A survey of painting activity in the South begins with the travels of itinerant portrait artists working prior to the Civil War At the same time landscape painting encompasses a sensitive response to the swamps bayous and fertile fields of the South Late in the nineteenth century strong and vivid genre painting competes with the nostalgic effects realized by Southern impressionists whose shimmering liquid images are invested with an elusive spirit of place In this century those strains of realism and naturalism that characterize the classic body of Southern writing appear in the representational art of painters who defied the modern abstract dictum And finally the exciting compelling works of a current generation of both self taught artists and sophisticated contemporary painters complete this fascinating though sometimes neglected chapter in American art history     The Art of Walter Anderson

Walter Inglis Anderson, 2003 This illustrated volume celebrates the centennial of one of the South's greatest artists     Walls of Light Anne R. King, 1999 Although his art took form in many mediums this lush and colorful book focuses on Walter Anderson's murals further expanding our understanding of the life work of this richly complex artist 84 full color photos 20 illustrations     Form and Fantasy Walter Inglis Anderson, 2007 A celebration of the phenomenal prints of a virtuoso artist

literature Walter Anderson's legacy includes at least 9 500 graphic renderings of characters and scenes from classic literature From this prodigious output Sugg has selected 120 pen and ink illustrations for this book In his Introduction Sugg provides a biographical sketch plus an analytical evaluation of this fascinating artist's work The book is divided into three categories Figures and Attitudes composed of single figures such as Polydamos Priam Roscranna Orlando Angelica and Don Quixote Scenes featuring interactions between characters and Sequences consisting of series from Pope's Iliad Don Quixote Paradise Lost and Bullfinch's Legends of Charlemagne Each series creates the illusion of movement as in an animated cartoon Other illustrations are from Paradise Regained Temora from The Poems of Ossian The Rime of the Ancient Mariner Faust and Darwin's The Voyage of the Beagle Anderson drew at night often working into the morning Drawings accumulated littered the table fell to the floor There he was content to abandon them but his wife collected them each morning Mrs Anderson describes a typical scene Sometimes in the very early morning when he was just stopping I would catch him quietly feeding with a teaspoon coffee to a couple of very large oaktree cockroaches who seemed to be his pets and he would laugh gently but pointedly when I objected He said they were his familiars The illustrations seemed certainly to take the place of any interest in more usual things such as sex Often we would hear him singing Beethoven's Seventh Symphony or the Emperor Concerto he often worked to his own or someone else's music Walter Inglis Anderson 1903 1965 studied at Parsons Institute New York was graduated from the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts Philadelphia and studied in France on a Cresson Award A retrospective traveling exhibition The World of Walter Anderson which included ceramics drawings oils prints sculpture and watercolors was mounted in 1967 by Brooks Memorial Art Gallery Memphis
