Bryan's Dictionary of Painters and Engravers Michael Bryan, 1904 Italian Painters Giovanni Morelli, 1893 Fra Filippo Lippi the Carmelite Painter Megan Holmes, Filippo Lippi (Fra), 1999-01-01 Widely admired for his paintings of exquisitely beautiful Madonnas Florentine Renaissance friar artist Fra Filippo Lippi c 1406-69 gained renown also for his love affair with the nun Lucrezia who bore their son Filippino Lippi later a well known painter himself In this beautiful and compelling book Megan Holmes shines new light on Lippi's life and career from the first paintings he created while a friar in Santa Maria del Carmine to the later works he painted when living outside the monastery for the Medici family their supporters and other patrons Focusing especially on the fascinating conjunction of Lippi's work as a painter and his experiences as a Carmelite friar Holmes transforms our understanding of Filippo Lippi and of the way art was produced and viewed in fifteenth century Florence Unlike most monastic artists Fra Filippo learned to paint only after joining a religious order In the first section of the book the author considers how the doctrines rules rituals and practices of the Carmelites shaped Lippi's art and manner of envisioning sacred subjects In the second section Holmes discusses Lippi's life and painting after he left the monastery demonstrating how his mature work broke new ground but continued to draw upon Carmelite influences The final section of the book looks closely at three altarpieces Fra Filippo painted for monastic institutions and sets them in a broader social and religious context The Great Painters: In Relation to the European Tradition Edith R. Abbot, 1927 The Lives of the Most Excellent Painters, Sculptors, and Architects v1 Giorgio Vasari, 2015-12-04 The Lives of the Most Excellent Painters Sculptors and Architects Often called the first art historian Vasari invented the genre of the encyclopedia of artistic biographies with his Le Vite de pi eccellenti pittori scultori ed architettori Lives of the Most Eminent Painters Sculptors and Architects dedicated to Grand Duke Cosimo I de Medici which was first published in 1550 He was the first to use the term Renaissance rinascita in print though an awareness of the ongoing rebirth in the arts had been in the air since the time of Alberti and he was responsible for our use of the term Gothic Art though he only used the word Goth which he associated with the barbaric German style The Lives also included a novel treatise on the technical methods employed in the arts The book was partly rewritten and enlarged in 1568 with the addition of woodcut portraits of artists some conjectural The work has a consistent and notorious bias in favour of Florentines and tends to attribute to them all the developments in Renaissance art for example the invention of engraving Venetian art in particular along with arts from other parts of Europe is systematically ignored in the first edition Between the first and second editions Vasari visited Venice and while the second edition gave more attention to Venetian art finally including Titian it did so without achieving a neutral point of view Vasari's biographies are interspersed with amusing gossip Many of his anecdotes have the ring of truth while others are inventions or generic fictions such as the tale of young Giotto painting a fly on the surface of a painting by Cimabue that the older master repeatedly tried to brush away a genre tale that echoes anecdotes told of the Greek painter

Apelles With a few exceptions however Vasari's aesthetic judgement was acute and unbiased He did not research archives for exact dates as modern art historians do and naturally his biographies are most dependable for the painters of his own generation and those of the immediate past Modern criticism with new materials opened up by research has corrected many of his traditional dates and attributions Vasari includes a sketch of his own biography at the end of the Lives and adds further details about himself and his family in his Lives of Lazzaro Vasari and Francesco Salviati According to the historian Richard Goldthwaite Vasari was one of the earliest authors to use the term competition or concorrenza in Italian in its economic sense He used it repeatedly and stressed the concept in his introduction to the life of Pietro Perugino in explaining the reasons for Florentine artistic preeminence In Vasari's view Florentine artists excelled because they were hungry and they were hungry because their fierce competition amongst themselves for commissions kept them so Competition he said is one of the nourishments that maintain them Bryan's Dictionary of Painters and Engravers: S-Z Michael Bryan, 1910
