Hickman, 2000 This volume showcases the recently donated Japanese paintings in the Indianapolis Museum of Art comprising works of 46 Japanese artists including master painters Buson Jakuchu Sotatsu and Shohaku Figure Paintings of the Edo Period (1615-1868), with an Emphasis on Ukiyo-e Painting Barry Till, 1987 Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art, 1600-2005 Patricia J. Graham, 2007-09-30 Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art explores the transformation of Buddhism from the premodern to the contemporary era in Japan and the central role its visual culture has played in this transformation Although Buddhism is generally regarded as peripheral to modern Japanese society this book demonstrates otherwise Its chapters elucidate the thread of change over time in the practice of Buddhism as revealed in temple worship halls and other sites of devotion and in imagery representing the religion's most popular deities and religious practices It also introduces the work of modern and contemporary artists who are not generally associated with institutional Buddhism and its canonical visual requirements but whose faith inspires their art The author makes a persuasive argument that the neglect of these materials by scholars results from erroneous presumptions about the aesthetic superiority of early Japanese Buddhist artifacts and an asserted decline in the institutional power of the religion after the sixteenth century She demonstrates that recent works constitute a significant contribution to the history of Japanese art and architecture providing evidence of Buddhism's compelling presence at all levels of Japanese society and its evolution in response to the needs of new generations of supporters Gifts of Art: The Met's 150th Anniversary Max Hollein, 2020-11-01 In honor of the institution's 150th year this publication celebrates the 203 collectors who committed more than 2,500 works of art to The Met for the sesquicentennial These meaningful additions change the ways in which we think about the Museum's holdings and deepen the stories The Met can tell about all the works in the collection Highlights featured in this volume include an imposing stone head from an Egyptian sarcophagus an opulent horse armor commissioned by King Philip IV of Spain a Tibetan war mask an early American daguerreotype Sir Edward Burne-Jones's enigmatic watercolor an early twentieth-century Japanese bamboo shrine cabinet poignant photographs made by Robert Frank for his iconic series The Americans the Cuban American artist Carmen Herrera's 1949 tondo Iberic Steve Miller's 1961 Gibson guitar important works by Georg Baselitz art from the Iranian Saqqakhana school the vibrant bark painting of Aboriginal Australian artist Nonggirnga Marawili and recent creations by artists such as Cecily Brown Peter Doig Robert Gober and Wangechi Mutu Handbook to Life in Medieval and Early Modern Japan William E. Sense and Spirituality James McCullough,2015-06-02 There is growing interest in the relationship between the arts and Christian faith Much has been written about the arts and theology and the place of the arts in church life Not as much has been written however about how the arts might actually advance spiritual formation in terms of the cumulative effect of religious experience and intentional practices This book provides a modest step forward in that conversation a conversation between theological aesthetics and practical theology Understanding aesthetics as the realm of sense perception and spiritual formation as growing capacities to participate in God s purposes James McCullough suggests how these dynamics can mutually enhance each other with the arts as an effective catalyst for this relationship McCullough proposes an analysis of artistic communication and explores exciting examples from music poetry and painting which render theoretical proposals in concrete terms This book will engage both those new to the arts and those already deeply familiar with them

Premodern Japan Mikiso Hane, Louis G. Perez, 2018-04-17 Japanese historian Louis Perez brings Mikiso Hane's rich and beloved account of early Japanese history up to date in this thoroughly revised Second Edition of Premodern Japan. The text traces the key developments of Japanese history in the premodern period including the establishment of the imperial dynasty, early influences from China and Korea, the rise of the samurai class and the establishment of feudalism, the culture and society of the long Tokugawa period, the rise of Confucianism and Shinto nationalism, and finally the end of Tokugawa rule. While the text provides many political developments through the early modern period, it also integrates the social, cultural, and intellectual aspects of Japanese history as well. Perez's updates to the text provide a comprehensive overview of the major social, political, and religious trends in premodern Japan as well as offering the most current scholarship.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art Kathryn Calley Galitz, 2016-09-20 This monumental new book is the first to celebrate the greatest and most iconic paintings from the encyclopedic collections of The Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, one of the largest, most important, and most beloved museums in the world. This impressive volume's broad sweep of material, all from a single museum, makes it at once a universal history of painting and the ideal introduction to the iconic masterworks of this world-renowned institution. More than 1,000 lavish color illustrations and details of 500 masterpiece paintings created over 5,000 years in cultures across the globe are presented chronologically from the dawn of civilization to the present. These works represent a grand tour of painting from ancient Egypt and classical antiquity and prized Byzantine and medieval altarpieces to paintings from Asia, India, Africa, and the Americas, and the greatest European and North American masters. The Metropolitan Museum of Art includes an introduction and illuminating texts about each artwork, written specially for this volume by Kathryn Calley Galitz, whose experience as both curator and educator at the Met makes her uniquely qualified. European and American artists include Duccio, El Greco, Raphael, Titian, Botticelli, Bronzino, Caravaggio, Turner, Velázquez, Goya, Rubens, Rembrandt, Brueghel, Vermeer, David, Renior, Monet, Van Gogh, Gauguin, Cézanne, Degas, Sargent, Homer, Matisse, Picasso, Pollock, Jasper Johns, and Warhol. The artworks are arranged in rough chronological order without regard to geography or culture, offering a visual timeline of the history of painting from the earliest examples on pottery jars made over five thousand years ago to canvases on which the paint has barely dried. Freed from the constraints imposed by the physical layout of the Museum, the paintings resonate anew, and this chronological framework reveals unexpected visual affinities among the works. For those wishing to experience the unparalleled breadth and depth of the Met's collection or study masterpieces of painting from throughout history, this important volume is sure to become a classic cherished by art lovers around the world.
