Price, 2014-10-21 Historical Writing in Britain 1688 1830 explores a series of debates concerning the nature and value of the past in the long eighteenth century The essays investigate a diverse range of subjects including art history biography historical poetry and novels as well as addressing more conventional varieties of historical writing Sweetness and Strength Lene Østermark-Johansen, 2019-01-15 First published in 1998 this volume explores the reinvention of Michelangelo in the Victorian era At the opening of the nineteenth century Michelangelo's reputation rested on the evidence of contemporary adulation recorded by Vasari and Condivi Travel photography the shift of his drawings into public collections and in particular the publication of his poems in their original form transformed this situation The complexity of his work commanded new attention and several biographies were published As public curiosity and knowledge of the artist increased so various groups began to ally themselves to aspects of Michelangelo's persona His Renaissance reputation as a towering genius a man of great spiritual courage who had journeyed through and for his art to the depths of despair was important to the Pre Raphaelites and other artists His love for his own Dark Lady Vittoria Colonna aroused excited speculation among High Church advocates who celebrated his friendship with the deeply religious woman poet and the emerging awareness that some half of his love poetry was dedicated to a younger man Tommaso de Cavalieri was of intense interest to the aestheticians among them Oscar Wilde Walter Pater and J A Symonds who sought heroic figures from societies where masculinity was less rigorously defined In this original and beautifully illustrated study Lene Østermark-Johansen shows how the critical discussion of the artist's genius and work became irretrievably bound up in contemporary debates about art religion and gender and how the Romantic view of art and criticism as self expression turned the focus from the work of art to the artist himself such that the two could never again be viewed in isolation Art Markets in Europe, 1400-1800 Michael North, David Ormrod, 2016-12-05 The reinvention of art history during the 1980s has provided a serious challenge to the earlier formalist and connoisseurial approaches to the discipline in ways which can only help economic and social historians in the current drive to study past societies in terms of what they consumed produced perceived and imagined This group of essays focuses on three main issues the demand for art including the range of art objects purchased by various social groups the conditions of artistic creativity and communication between different production centres and artistic milieux and the emergence of art markets which served to link the first two phenomena The work draws on new research by art historians and economic and social historians from Europe and the United States and covers the period from the late Middle Ages to the early nineteenth century
