Painting in Italy, 1500-1600 Sydney Joseph Freedberg, 1993-01-01 Art declared Vasari in Lives of the Artists has been reborn and reached perfection in our time Indeed the roster of great names in painting of the Cinquecento which only begins with those of Leonardo Michelangelo and Raphael appears to justify this grand claim Professor Freedberg here discusses the individual painters and analyses the hallmarks of their work He traces the classical style of the High Renaissance the Mannerism that succeeded it and the events in North Italy especially that resist stylistic categories He has given order to this diversity but at the same time has preserved the intense individuality of the works of art "A" New History of Painting

Siting Federico Barocci and the Renaissance Aesthetic Peter Gillgren, 2017-07-05 Focusing on what he calls the performative gaze the author explores the artistic world of the Urbino painter Federico Barocci 1535 1612 in the context of Renaissance culture Through analysis of Barocci s works Gillgren also sheds new light on Renaissance aesthetic communication generally The first part of the book discusses the poetics of Early Modern painting based on contemporary theories of Reception Aesthetics hermeneutics and phenomenology but grounded in Renaissance culture itself through numerous examples from Early Modern painting The author discusses works by such artists as Botticelli Raphael Titian Vel uez and Poussin from the point of view of their spectator status The second part deals specifically with the art of Federico Barocci showing in detail how his works relate to aspects of the gaze and to their intended spectators Gillgren s method is unusual in that he takes care to set the images within their original physical contexts lighting space framing materials angle of viewer approach as much as possible through careful analysis of early descriptions of now destroyed or modified chapels The third section of the volume contains a brief catalogue of Barocci s paintings presented in a chronological order with a full bibliography and with details about the painting s original locations *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Renaissance painter Giovanni Gerolamo Savoldo were even during a period of unprecedented artistry out of the ordinary Born in Brescia around 1480 he radically reimagined Christian subjects His surviving oeuvre of roughly fifty paintings from the intensely poetic Tobias and the Angel to sober self portraits represents some of the most profound work of the period In Painting with Demons a beautifully illustrated book and the first in English devoted to the painter Michael Fried brings his celebrated skills of looking and thinking to bear on Savoldo s art providing a stunning contribution to our understanding both
