Dodds,1993-09 This richly illustrated volume offers a portrait of the varied and still unfamiliar world of medieval Spain      Illuminated Manuscripts of Medieval Spain Mireille Mentré,1996 As the end of the first millennium drew near a date when many expected the end of the world the beleaguered Christian communities of Spain still dominated by Islam were experiencing a profound spiritual crisis To make sense of their predicament they turned to the Revelation of St John the Divine in particular the commentary written three centuries before by the monk Beatus of Liebana making of their illuminated manuscripts an art form of extraordinary expressive power More than twenty of these manuscripts survive dating from between 900 and 1100 all illuminated in a colorful style known as Mozarabic a combination of Carolingian Islamic Byzantine and Visigothic art The Beatus manuscripts are the largest but not the only body of such work there are Bibles and a small number of other religious texts All however share the same apocalyptic vision Cut off from the rest of Europe and obsessed by the imminence of God's judgement these artists invented a world peopled by angelic warriors demons and beasts exotic birds and serpents and luxuriant trees This bizarre psychologically fascinating world is revealed here in superb colour plates and finely detailed black and white illustrations Mireille Mentré explores the context of the illuminations and explains their dense theological meaning without dissipating their magic      Spanish Medieval Art Colum Hourihane,2007      Early Medieval Art in Spain Pedro de Palol,Max Hirmer,1967      Iconography in Medieval Spanish Literature John E. Keller,Richard P. Kinkade,2014-07-15 The masterpieces of medieval Spanish literature have come to be known and loved by Hispanists and more recently by others throughout the world But the brilliant illuminations with which the original manuscripts were illustrated have remained almost totally unknown on the shelves of the great European libraries To redress this woeful neglect two noted scholars here present a generous selection from this great visual treasury including many examples never before reproduced John E Keller and Richard P Kinkade have chosen five representative works dating from the mid thirteenth century to the late fifteenth to illustrate the richness of early Spanish narrative art Together these five works encompass the entire range of narrative techniques and iconography to be found in medieval Spain and reflect both foreign and native Spanish artistic tendencies The authors analyses of the relation between verbalizations and visualizations will provide students of medieval art and literature a wealth of new information expanding our knowledge of this fascinating period The beauty of many of the illuminations speaks for itself Architecture and Ideology in Early Medieval Spain Jerrilynn Denise Dodds,1990 In analyzing the early medieval architecture of Christian and Islamic Spain Jerrilynn Dodds explores the principles of artistic response to social and cultural tension offering an account of that unique artistic experience that set Spain apart from the rest of Europe and established a visual identity born of the confrontation of cultures that perceived one another as alien Architecture and Ideology in Early Medieval Spain covers the Spanish medieval experience from the Visigothic oligarchy to the year 1000 addressing a variety of cases of cultural interchange It examines the embattled reactive stance of Hispano Romans to their Visigothic rulers and the Asturian search for a new language of forms to support a political position dissociated from the struggles of a peninsula caught in the grip of a foreign and infidel rule Dodds then examines the symbolic meaning of the Mozarabic churches of the tenth century and their reflection of the Mozarabs threatened cultural identity The final chapter focuses on two cases of artistic interchange between Islamic and Christian builders with a view toward understanding the dynamics of such interchange between conflicting cultures Dodds concludes with a short account of the beginning of Romanesque architecture in Spain and an analysis of some of the ways in which artistic expression can reveal the subconscious of a culture The Art of Medieval Spain, A.D. 500-1200 Metropolitan Museum of Art,2013 Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen,Oleg Grabar,Professor Emeritus of Islamic Art and Architecture Oleg Grabar,Marilyn Jenkins,2003-07-11 This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar s original text this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain North Africa Egypt Syria Anatolia Iraq and Yemen as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration the art of the object and the art of the book With many new illustrations often in color this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world Sacred Skin: The Legend of St. Bartholomew in Spanish Art and Literature

Andrew M. Beresford, 2020-03-02 Sacred Skin offers the first systematic evaluation of the dissemination and development of the cult of St Bartholomew in Spain Exploring the paradoxes of hagiographic representation and their ambivalent effect on the observer the book focuses on literary and visual testimonies produced from the emergence of a distinctive vernacular voice through to the formalization of Bartholomew's saintly identity and his transformation into a key expression of Iberian consciousness Drawing on and extending advances in cultural criticism particularly theories of selfhood and the complex ontology of the human body its five chapters probe the evolution of hagiographic conventions demonstrating how flaying poses a unique challenge to our understanding of the nature and meaning of identity See inside the book     Images and Ideas in Seventeenth-Century Spanish Painting Jonathan Brown, 2022-02-08 Art historians have often minimized the variety and complexity of seventeenth century Spanish painting by concentrating on individual artists and their works and by stressing discovery of new information rather than interpretation As a consequence the painter emerges in isolation from the forces that shaped his work Jonathan Brown offers another approach to the subject by relating important Spanish Baroque paintings and painters to their cultural milieu A critical survey of the historiography of seventeenth century Spanish painting introduces this two part collection of essays Part One provides the most detailed study to date of the artistic literary academy of Francisco Pacheco and Part Two contains original studies of four major painters and their works Las Meninas of Velázquez Zurbarán's decoration of the sacristy at Guadalupe and the work by Murillo and Valdés Leal for the Brotherhood of Charity Seville The essays are unified by the author's intention to show how the artists interacted with and responded to the prevailing social theological and historical currents of the time While this contextual approach is not uncommon in the study of European art it is newly applied here to restore some of the diversity and substance that Spanish Baroque painting originally possessed     Late Gothic Painting in the Crown of Aragon and the Hispanic Kingdoms, 2018-06-19 This book aims to analyze the genesis and evolution of late Gothic painting in the Crown of Aragon and the rest of the Hispanic kingdoms examining this phenomenon in relation to the whole context of Europe in the second half of the fifteenth century The authors consider the influence of the Flemish primitive movement on the art produced by their Spanish colleagues the artistic relations and interchanges with the Netherlands and other countries and the introduction and development of the Flemish language in the Spanish lands The book also examines altarpieces considering topics such as changes in shape and structure and liturgical links along with offering stylistic analyses supported by new technologies Contributors are Joan Aliaga Maria Antonia Argelich Marc Ballest Judith Berg Sobr Carme Berlab Eduardo Carrero Ximo Company Francesca Español Francesc Fit Montserrat Jard Nicola Jennings Fernando Maras Didier Martens Isidre Puig Nuria Ramon Pedro Jos Respaldiza Stefania Rusconi Tina Sabater Albert Sierra Pilar Silva Lluís Tolosa Alberto Velasco and Joaquín Yarza     Art in Spain and Portugal from the Romans to the Early Middle Ages Rose Walker, 2016 In this colourfully illustrated book Rose Walker surveys Spanish and Portuguese art and architecture from the time of the Roman conquest to the early twelfth century For generations scholarly discussions of such art have been complicated by a focus on maps of the pilgrimage roads and images of the Reconquista Walker contextualizes these aspects by bringing together an exceptionally diverse range of academic studies including work previously familiar only to Hispanophone audiences By breaking down chronological regional and disciplinary divides that have limited scholarship on the subject for decades this book enriches the wider English language literature on early medieval art
