MaryBryanH. Curd, 2017-07-05 By examining their production practices in a variety of genres including manuscript illustration glass painting and staining tapestry manufacture portrait painting and engraving this book explores how Netherlandish artists migrating to England in the early modern period overcame difficulties raised by their outsider status This study examines for the first time in this context the challenges of alien status to artistic production and the effectiveness of cooperation as a countermeasure The author demonstrates that collaboration was chief among the strategies that these foreigners chose to secure a position in London's changing art market Curd's exploration of these collaborations primarily follows Pierre Bourdieu's model of establishment and challenger in which dominance in a field of cultural production depends upon how much cultural political and economic capital can be accumulated and the effectiveness of the strategies used to confront competition The analysis presented here challenges received opinion that a collaborative work is only a joint effort of artists working together on a single monument by demonstrating that the participation of patrons and middlemen can also shape the final appearance of a work of art Furthermore this book shows that the strategic use of collaboration served the goal of competition by helping to establish foreign artists in the London art market and suggests that their coping strategies have implications for the study of immigrant behaviors today Art and Dis-illusion in the Long Sixteenth Century Larry Silver, 2023-04-12 Whereas entire libraries discuss the religious and political history of the sixteenth century in Northern Europe focused on the Reformation and the rise of nation states Larry Silver uniquely traces the dramatic even traumatic changes of the Reformation era discernible in the visual arts especially paintings and the new medium of prints Among the subjects and themes he explores are the destruction of church images witchcraft reactions to new voyages of exploration and issues of vision itself in an age when moral codes and the nature of sin and death were being re-examined A History of the Western Art Market Titia Hulst, 2023-04-28 This is the first sourcebook to trace the emergence and evolution of art markets in the Western economy framing them within the larger narrative of the ascendancy of capitalist markets Selected writings from across academic disciplines present compelling evidence of art's inherent commercial dimension and show how artists dealers and collectors have interacted over time from the city states of Quattrocento Italy to the high stakes markets of postmillennial New York and Beijing This approach casts a startling new light on the traditional concerns of art history and aesthetics revealing much that is provocative profound and occasionally even comic This volume's unique historical perspective makes it appropriate for use in college courses and postgraduate and professional programs as well as for professionals working in art-related environments such as museums galleries and auction houses This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 2017 This is the first sourcebook to trace the emergence and evolution of art markets in the Western economy framing them within the larger narrative of the ascendancy of capitalist markets Selected writings from across academic disciplines present compelling
