Painting Of The Low Countries:

Painting of the Low Countries Guratzsc,1981-05-01 Early Netherlandish Paintings Bernhard Ridderbos,Henk Th. van Veen,Anne van Buren,2005 An illustrated scholarly analysis of the art and the cultural interpretations of the Flemish Primitives Painting for a Living in Tudor and Early Stuart England Robert Tittler,2022 A rare examination of the political social and economic contexts in which painters in Tudor and Early Stuart England lived and worked While famous artists such as Holbein Rubens or Van Dyck are all known for their creative periods in England or their employment at the English court they still had to make ends meet as did the less well known practitioners of their craft This book by one of the leading historians of Tudor and Stuart England sheds light on the daily concerns practices and activities of many of these painters Drawing on a biographical database comprising nearly 3000 painters and craftsmen strangers and native English Londoners and provincial townsmen men and sometimes women celebrity artists and mere painters this book offers an account of what it meant to paint for a living in early modern England It considers the origins of these painters as well as their geographical location the varieties of their expertise and the personnel and spatial arrangements of their workshops Engagingly written the book captures a sense of mobility and exchange between England and the continent through the considerable influence of stranger painters undermining traditional notions about the insular character of this phase in the history of English art By showing how painters responded to the greater political religious and economic upheavals of the time the study refracts the history of England itself through the lens of this particular occupation Library of Congress

Painting Flanders Abroad Abigail D. Newman, 2022-07-18 In Painting Flanders Abroad Flemish Art and Artists in Seventeenth Century Madrid Flemish immigrants and imported Flemish paintings cross the paths of Spanish kings collectors dealers and artists in the Spanish court city transforming the development and nature of seventeenth century Spanish painting Examining these Flemish transplants and the traces their interactions left in archival documents collection inventories art treatises and most saliently Spanish Golden Age paintings this book portrays Spanish society grappling with a long tradition of importing its favorite paintings while struggling to reimagine its own visual idiom In the process the book historicizes questions of style quality immigration mobility identity and cultural exchange to define what the evolving and amorphous visual concept of Flemishness meant to Spanish viewers in an era long before the emergence of nationalism

Anonymous Art at Auction Anne-Sophie V. Radermecker, 2021-05-25 Working with a data set accounting for 13 000 auction sales results Anne Sophie V Radermecker explores what contemporary buyers value when purchasing paintings of unknown or uncertain authorship and which variables influence price formation mechanisms in this market segment The principle finding of this book is not only that historical names matter in the art market but so do all other alternative identification strategies that art market players use to label anonymous paintings Indirect names provisional names and spatiotemporal designations function as substitutes for real names that simulate identities create ex post stories around the artworks offered for sale and consequently reduce information asymmetry about an artist s identity with at time quite unexpected effects on price

Living Pictures Noa Turel, 2020-09-25 A significant new interpretation of the emergence of Western pictorial realism When Jan van Eyck c 1390 1441 completed the revolutionary Ghent Altarpiece in 1432 it was unprecedented in European visual culture His novel visual strategies including lifelike detail not only helped make painting the defining medium of Western art they also ushered in new ways of seeing the world This highly original book explores Van Eyck s pivotal work as well as panels by Rogier van der Weyden and their followers to understand how viewers came to appreciate a world depicted in two dimensions Through careful examination of primary documents Noa Turel reveals that paintings were consistently described as au vif made not from life but into life Animation not representation drove Van Eyck and his contemporaries Turel s interpretation reverses the commonly held belief that these artists were inspired by the era s burgeoning empiricism proposing instead that their living pictures helped create the conditions for empiricism Illustrated with exquisite fifteenth century paintings this volume asserts these works key role in shaping rather than simply mirroring the early modern world History of Humanity: From the sixteenth to the eighteenth century Peter Burke, Sigfried J. de Laet, 1994 The fifth volume of the this series examines historical events and cultural social and political structures which were introduced between the 16th and 18th centuries Photography and Invisible Borders Nicoletta Grillo, 2024-09-23 Think of national borders beyond just lines this invitation guides Nicoletta Grillo s journey into the Swiss Italian border a journey shaped through the lens of photography theory and practice Moving between contemporary cross border work and south north migrations this study unveils today s borderscapes as dynamic constellations of spatial practices and imaginations The book delves into landscape representations by combining the analysis of contemporary photographic artwork with field research and with the author s own photographs displayed in an extensive photo textual travelogue Perspectives from critical border studies research in the arts and urban studies come together to offer a larger reflection on the re imagination of borderscapes Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt Boudewijn Bakker, 2017-07-05 Offering a corrective to the common scholarly characterization of seventeenth century Dutch landscape painting as modern realistic and secularized Boudewijn Bakker here explores the long history and purpose of landscape in Netherlandish painting In Bakker s view early Netherlandish as well as seventeenth century Dutch painting can be understood only in the context of the intellectual climate of the day Concentrating on landscape painting as the careful depiction of the visible world Bakker s analysis takes in the thought of figures seldom consulted by traditional art historians such as the fifteenth century philosopher Dionysius the Carthusian the sixteenth century religious reformer John Calvin the geographer Abraham Ortelius and the seventeenth century poet Constantijn Huygens Probing their conception of nature as the first Book of God and art as its representation Bakker identifies a world view that has its roots in the traditional Christian perceptions of God and creation Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt imposes a new layer of interpretation on the richly varied landscapes of the great masters In so doing it adds a new dimension to the insights offered by modern art historical research Further Bakker s explorations of early modern art and literature provide essential background for any student of European intellectual history A Guide to the Paintings in the Permanent Collection Art Institute of Chicago, 1925

Devotional Portraiture and Spiritual Experience in Early Netherlandish Painting Ingrid Falque, 2019-09-16 In Devotional Portraiture and Spiritual Experience Ingrid Falque analyses the meditative functions of early Netherlandish paintings including devotional portraits that is portraits of people kneeling in prayer Such paintings have been mainly studied in the context of commemorative and social practices but as Ingrid Falque shows they also served as devotional instruments By drawing parallels between the visual strategies of these paintings and texts of the major spiritual writers of the medieval Low Countries she demonstrates that paintings with devotional portraits functioned as a visualisation of the spiritual process of the sitters The book is accompanied by the first exhaustive catalogue of paintings with devotional portraits produced in the Low Countries between c 1400 and 1550 This catalogue is available at no costs in e format HERE and can also be purchased as a printed hardcover book HERE

The Transformation of Vernacular Expression in Early Modern Arts ,2011-10-14 In response to the dominance of Latin as the language of intellectual debate in early modern Europe regional centers started to develop a new emphasis on vernacular languages and forms of cultural expression This book shows that the local acts as a mark of distinction in the early modern cultural context Interdisciplinary in scope essays examine vernacular strands in the visual arts architecture and literature from the fourteenth to seventeenth centuries Contributions focus on change rather than consistencies by highlighting the transformative force of the vernacular over time and over different regions as well as the way the concept of the vernacular itself shifts depending on the historical context Contributors include James J Bloom Jessica E Buskirk C Jean Campbell Lex Hermans Sun Jing Trudy Ko David A Levine Eelco Nagelsmit Alexandra Onuf Bart Ramakers and Jamie L Smith
