Trees of Paradise and Pillars of the World Elizabeth A. Newsome, 2001-09-15 Based on a thorough analysis of the imagery and inscriptions of seven stelae erected in the Great Plaza at Copan Honduras by the Classic Period ruler 18 Rabbit God K this study argues that stelae were erected not only to support a ruler's temporal claims to power but more importantly to express the fundamental connection in Maya worldview between rulership and the cosmology inherent in their vision of cyclical time. After an overview of the archaeology and history of Copan and the reign and monuments of 18 Rabbit God K Elizabeth Newsome interprets the iconography and inscriptions on the stelae illustrating the way they fulfilled a coordinated vision of the king's ceremonial role in Copan's period ending rites. She also links their imagery to key Maya concepts about the origin of the universe expressed in the cosmologies and mythic lore of ancient and living Maya peoples. Because previous scholarship has never assigned all seven monuments to a single period or the patronage of one ruler the uniqueness of Newsome's study lies in the way it explicates the overall meaning and function of the stela series with respect to the long term activities and agendas of one king.
