Ophelia Sharon Keefe Ugalde, 2020-05-15 The study emphasizes the role of the arts and humanities in the re plotting of gender and also links cultural production to political circumstances specifically to the end of the Franco dictatorship and the transitional to a new democracy in Spain The inclusion of both the visual art of Marina N nez and art photographs as well as literary authors and dramatists offers views of overarching motifs in the cultural production of Spain The book includes an historical component with an analysis of works by major nineteenth and early twentieth century Spanish poets including

Espronceda B cquer Villaspesas Lorca and the pioneer female author Blanca de los Rios The list of writers from the 1970s forward includes both highly recognized figures Clara Jan s Mar a Victoria Atencia Eduardo Quiles and an extensive group of important writers less recognized beyond among critics The Poetics of Apocalypse Martha Nandorfy,2003 Guided by the duende liminal principle of creativity and death Lorca represents New York as dystopia cum Armageddon ultimately redeemed by the Blacks of Harlem and the telluric forces unleashed to retake the decadent soulless civilization of North America BOOK JACKET

Neruda's Ekphrastic Experience Hugo Méndez-Ramírez,1999 This study combines a structuralist examination of poetry and painting with new distinctions of ekphrastic poetry and recent philosophical debates Canto general is the textual ekphrastic equivalent of mural art a kind of linguistic companion that also elucidates the profound human complexities inscribed in the murals Monographic Review ,1997 Erik Satie: Music, Art and Literature Caroline Potter,2016-05-13 Erik Satie 1866 1925 was a quirky innovative and enigmatic composer whose impact has spread far beyond the musical world As an artist active in several spheres from cabaret to religion from calligraphy to poetry and playwriting and collaborator with some of the leading avant garde figures of the day including Cocteau Picasso Diaghilev and Ren Clair he was one of few genuinely cross disciplinary composers His artistic activity during a tumultuous time in the Parisian art world situates him in an especially exciting period and his friendships with Debussy Stravinsky and others place him at the centre of French musical life He was a unique figure whose art is immediately recognisable whatever the medium he employed Erik Satie Music Art and Literature explores many aspects of Satie s creativity to give a full picture of this most multifaceted of composers The focus is on Satie s philosophy and psychology revealed through his music Satie s interest in and participation in artistic media other than music and Satie s collaborations with other artists This book is therefore essential reading for anyone interested in the French musical and cultural scene of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1996-06 Russian Realisms Molly Brunson,2016-09-10 One fall evening in 1880 Russian painter Ilya Repin welcomed an unexpected visitor to his home Lev Tolstoy The renowned realists talked for hours and Tolstoy turned his critical eye to the sketches in Repin s studio Tolstoy s criticisms would later prompt Repin to reflect on the question of creative expression and conclude that the path to artistic truth is relative dependent on the mode and medium of representation In this original study Molly Brunson traces many such paths that converged to form the tradition of nineteenth century Russian realism a tradition that spanned almost half a century from the youthful projects of the Natural School and the critical realism of the age of reform to the mature masterpieces of Tolstoy Fyodor Dostoevsky and the paintings of the Wanderers Repin chief among them By examining the classics of the tradition Brunson explores the emergence of multiple realisms from the gaps disruptions and doubts that accompany the self conscious project of representing reality These manifestations of realism are united not by how they look or what they describe but by their shared awareness of the fraught yet critical task of representation By tracing the engagement of literature and painting with aesthetic debates on the sister arts Brunson argues for a conceptualization of realism that transcends artistic media Russian Realisms integrates the lesser known tradition of Russian painting with the familiar masterpieces of Russia s great novelists highlighting both the common ground in their struggles for artistic realism and their cultural autonomy and legitimacy This erudite study will appeal to scholars interested in Russian literature and art comparative literature art history and nineteenth century realist movements

Poets and the Visual Arts in Renaissance England Norman K. Farmer,2014-08-19 In the twentieth century the pioneering work of such art historians as Erwin Panofsky and Edgar Wind heightened our awareness of the relationship between Renaissance literature and the visual arts By focusing on that relationship in the work of such poets as Sir Philip Sidney John Donne Richard Crashaw Edmund Waller and Robert Herrick Norman K Farmer Jr convincingly shows that they and other writers of the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries in England wrote with a lively and creative sense of the visual a sense richly informed by the theory and practice of Renaissance art Farmer begins by describing the powerful visual matrix that underlies the narrative structure of Sidney s New Arcadia He compares the role of the visual in the poetry of Donne and Ben Jonson and demonstrates how works by both Thomas Carew and Lord Herbert exhibit poetic invention according to familiar Renaissance pictorial themes Herrick s Hesperides is shown to be the major seventeenth century poetic application of the Horatian idea ut pictura poesis A special feature of this gracefully written and enlightening volume is Farmer s discussion of Lady Drury s oratory at Hawstead Hall Published here for the first time are photographs of this uniquely decorated oratory in which themes from a variety of English and Continental emblem books were painted on the walls of a room apparently designed for private meditation

Painting with Words, Writing with Pictures Franco Ricci,2001-01-01 Ricci s book ranges widely over Calvino s oeuvre to illustrate the accuracy of the idea articulated by Calvino himself that a visual image lies at the origin of all his narrative The book s main theme is the difficult interface between word and image that Calvino struggled with throughout his career the act of perception that rendered visible that which was invisible and transformed what was seen into what is read Ricci holds that Calvino s narrative has an imagocentric program and that his literary strategy is ekphrastic i e it is characterized by literary description of visual representation real or imaginary The book is interdisciplinary in nature and will interest not only scholars of literature but also those who work with the visual arts and with information technology

Art as Music, Music as Poetry, Poetry as Art, from Whistler to Stravinsky and Beyond Peter Dayan,2016-04-08 In 1877 Ruskin accused Whistler of flinging a pot of paint in the public s face Was he right After all Whistler always denied that the true function of art was to represent anything If a painting does not represent what is it other than mere paint flung in the public s face Whistler s answer was simple painting is music or it is poetry Georges Braque half a century later echoed Whistler s answer So did Braque s friends Apollinaire and Ponge They presented their poetry as music too and as painting But meanwhile composers such as Satie and Stravinsky were presenting their own art music as if it transposed the values of painting or of poetry The fundamental principle of this intermedial aesthetic which bound together an extraordinary fraternity of artists in all media in Paris from 1885 to 1945 was this we must always think about the value of a work of art not within the logic of its own medium but as if it transposed the value of art in another medium Peter Dayan traces the history of this principle how it created our very notion of great art why it declined as a vision from the 1960s and how in the 21st century it is fighting back Poetics of the Iconotext Professor Liliane Louvel, 2013-05-28 Poetics of the Iconotext makes available for the first time in English the theories of the respected French text image specialist Professor Liliane Louvel A consolidation of the most significant theoretical materials of Louvel's two acclaimed books L'Œil du Texte Texte et image dans la littérature anglophone and Texte Image Images lire textes voir this newly conceived work introduces English readers to the most current thinking in French text image theory and visual studies Focusing on the full spectrum of text image relations from medieval illuminated manuscripts to digital books Louvel begins by introducing key terms and situating her work in the context of significant debates in text image studies Part II introduces Louvel's typology of pictorial saturation through which she establishes a continuum along which to measure the effect of the most figurative to the most literal images upon writerly and readerly textual spaces Part III adopts a phenomenological approach towards the reading viewing experience as expressed in conceptual categories that include the trace focal range synesthesia and rhythm and speed The result is a provocative interplay of the categorical and the subjective that invites readers to think at once more precisely and more inventively about texts images and the intersections between the two Music, Text and Translation Helen Julia Minors, 2012-12-20 Expanding the notion of translation this book specifically focuses on the transferences between music and text The concept of translation is often limited solely to language transfer It is however a process occurring within and around most forms of artistic expression Music considered a language in its own right often refers to text discourse and other art forms In translation this referential relationship must be translated too How is music affected by text translation How does music influence the translation of the text it sets How is the sense of both the text and the music transferred in the translation process Combining theory with practice the book questions the process and role translation has to play in a musical context It provides a range of case studies across interdisciplinary fields It is the first collection on music in translation that is not restricted to one discipline including explorations of opera libretti surtitling art song musicals poetry painting sculpture and biography alongside looking at issues of accessibility The Philosopher's Index, 1995 An international index to philosophical periodicals Radical Poetry Eduardo Ledesma, 2016-11-01 With a broad geographic and linguistic sweep covering more than one hundred years of poetry this book investigates the relationships between and among technology aesthetics and politics in Ibero American experimental poetry Eduardo Ledesma analyzes visual concrete kinetic and digital poetry that questions what the literary means what constitutes poetry and how if at all visual and verbal arts should be differentiated Radical Poetry examines how poets use the latest technologies cinematography radio television and software to create poetry that self consciously interrogates its own form through close alliances with conceptual and abstract art performance photography film and new media To do so Ledesma draws on pertinent theories of metaphor affect time space iconicity and cybernetics Ledesma shows how Jos Juan Tablada Mexico Joan Salvat Papasseit Catalonia Clemente Pad n Uruguay Fernando Mill n Spain D cio Pignatari Brazil Ana Mar a Uribe Argentina and others turn words machines and more recently the digital into flesh making word objects come alive by assembling text to act and seem human whether on the page on walls or on screens

Installation art as experience of self, in space and time Christine Vial Kayser, Sylvie Coëllier, 2021-09-07 Installation art has modified our relationship to art for over fifty years by soliciting the whole body demonstrating its sensitivity to space surroundings and the living beings with which it is constantly interacting This book analyses this modification of perception through phenomenological approaches convoking Husserl Heidegger Merleau Ponty as well as Levinas Depraz and the neuroscientist Varela This theoretical framework is implicit in the various case studies which revisit works that have become classic or emblematic by Carl Andre Bruce Nauman Dan Graham inaugural experiments that remain available only through photographic and written archives by Jean Michel Sanejouand Philippe Parreno as well as the influence of the mode in the realm of music The book also examines the transference of this Western form to Asia revealing how it resonates with ancient Asian representations and practices often associated with the spiritual The distinct chapters underpin the role of space as a metaframe the common ground of the various installations While the nature and agency of space varies from social historical space leisurely or political space inner psychological space to shared empty space these installations reveal the chiasm between the individual body and the outside space The chapters bear testimony of the process in which the physical journey of the spectator s body within a material at times invisible space and its structural components takes place in time as a succession of micro experiences Installation art as experience of self in space and time adds to the existing literature of art history a level of theoretical experiential and transcultural analysis that will make this inquiry relevant to both university students and independent researchers in the academic fields of philosophy psychology aesthetics art theory and history religious and Asian studies

La Belle Captive Alain Robbe-Grillet, René Magritte, 1995-01-01 Based on the myth of the beautiful captive this novel first published in 1975 and reprinted with a critical essay takes its themes from the paintings of the French surrealist constructing a dream like narrative suffused with eroticism playfulness and subversion
