Working Across Cultures John Hooker, 2003 A guide to adapting and thriving within unfamiliar cultural settings challenges the notion that professional life interacts with culture only at the etiquette level distinguishing between rule based and relationship based cultures while considering the roles of such factors as competition security and lifestyle Social Science The Routledge Handbook of Social Work Field Education in the Global South Rajendra Baikady, Sajid S.M., Varoshini Nadesan, M. Rezaul Islam, 2022-07-08 This handbook provides an authoritative account of social work field education in the global south It presents an overview of various aspects of theory and practice modules in the social work curriculum and advances in research in social work field education in the developing world through in depth analyses and global case studies Key features Discusses critical issues and new directions in the theory and practice of social work field education challenges in field work education decolonising field work training developing competent social work graduates aligning fieldwork with cultural practices in indigenous communities the idea of clinical social work and a comparative analysis of social work field supervision Integrates theory and practice of social work field education for students and teachers from diverse geographical and cultural contexts across the global south including countries from South Asia and Asia Africa and Latin America and the Caribbean covering India Bangladesh Pakistan Nepal Sri Lanka China Georgia Philippine Turkey Papua New Guinea Eswatini Republic of Trinidad Tobago Kenya Nigeria South Africa Botswana Chile and Barbados Brings together international comparative perspectives on field work education in social work from leading experts social work educators and social work professionals This handbook will be an essential resource for scholars and researchers of social work development studies social anthropology sociology education South Asian studies and Global South studies It will also be useful to educators and practitioners of social work in global institutions of higher studies as well as civil society organisations Geography, 1998 Includes section Reviews and other bibliographical material Cambodia Ian Brown, 2000 This outstanding series provides concise and lively introductions to countries such as Cambodia and the major development issues they face Packed full of factual information photographs and maps the guides also focus on ordinary people and the impact that historical economic and environmental issues have on their lives El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000, 2000 Pakistan Khawar Mumtaz, Yameema Mitha, Bilquis Tahira, 2003 This book provides a concise and lively introduction to Pakistan and the major development issues it faces Packed full of factual information photographs and maps the guide also focuses on ordinary people and the impact that historical economic and environmental issues have on their lives El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005, 2005 Pakistan, Tradition and Change Khawar Mumtaz, 2003 Changing Educational Landscapes Dimitris Mattheou, 2010-04-08 Analyzing educational landscapes the fundamental values principles and institutions of the sector is a highly complex and demanding task for any researcher Like shifting desert sands these aspects of education are in a constant state of flux changing according to the unpredictable economic social cultural and geo political circumstances of late modernity Key aspects of the intricate fluid and multifarious contemporary setting can always escape the researcher s necessarily selective observation The contributors to this book share the view that it is wise therefore to take note of other people s ideas perceptions and perspectives to compare notes and reflect critically on them Thus the papers presented here are a critical and comparative analysis of today s changing educational landscapes They are an exploration of some of the forces and factors that induce these changes and also examine some of their most significant implications The work takes a fresh look at received ideology and institutional practices and delineates the increasingly internationalized educational discourses and policies Among other things the book discusses the obsession with quality in education and the alternative perceptions of educational equality the rising concern at the obstacles to truly multicultural education and the debate about the epistemological foundations both of knowledge and knowledge production Underlying all of the papers in the book is the authors intention to enhance our understanding of educational change in this era of transition and to further our appreciation of its multifaceted expressions across the world
