(The Problems and Opportunities Confronting American Democracy-in Foreign Policy, in Military Preparedness, in Education, in Social and Economic Affairs.) The Rockefeller Panel Reports* Rockefeller Brothers Fund (UNITED STATES OF AMERICA). Jakle,Keith A. Sculle,1994 The first architect designed gas station a Pittsburgh Gulf station in 1913 was also the first to offer free road maps the familiar Shell name and logo date from 1907 when a British mother of pearl importer expanded its line to include the newly discovered oil of the Dutch East Indies the first enclosed gas stations were built only after the first enclosed cars made motoring a year round activity and operating a service station was no longer a seasonal job the system of octane rating was introduced by Sun Oil as a marketing gimmick 74 for premium in 1931 As the number of true gas stations continues its steady decline from 239 000 in 1969 to fewer than 100 000 today the words and images of this book bear witness to an economic and cultural phenomenon that was perhaps more uniquely American than any other of this century Jacket The Standard Medical Directory of North America ,1901 The Grand Strategy of the United States in Latin America Tom J. Farer, In this collection of essays Tom Farer examines critically the stand taken by U S foreign policy makers on such issues as right and left wing dictatorships revolution human rights and national autonomy In this fascinating manner focusing sharp observations at times with polemical intent Farer scrutinizes the key assumptions including the Soviet or revolutionary threat which have guided American foreign policy for Latin America since the end of World War II One central conviction is that changes in regimes rarely have objective significance for U S strategic interests properly conceived Farer describes the grand strategy of the United States in Latin America he sees very much the same strategic assumptions guiding U S policy throughout the Third World as unrealistic and misguided in terms both of U S interests and ideals He argues that America has over the years maneuvered itself into political legal and moral dilemmas by disregarding or misunderstanding the internal dynamics of Latin American countries and their implications for U S interests and by seeing dangerous and irremedial hostility in all revolutionary movements Against this tradition in U S policy Farer advocates tactics and strategies he deems more consonant with the proper goals of U S policy and with Latin American needs and aspirations His essays combine a sophisticated analysis of Latin American society with assessment of U S policy from legal moral and strategic perspectives Prospect for America The Rockefeller Panel Reports,1958 Missionary Review of the World ,1902 Bulletin of the United Typothetae of America ,1913 U.S. Army Recruiting and Career Counseling Journal United States.
