PROSPECT Anne Truitt, 1996-03-04 Based on journals written in 1991 and 1992 Prospect contains Anne Truitt's luminous reflections on her rich full life as an artist mother grandmother and teacher Preparing to confront the unpredictable twilight of life Truitt charts her fears and triumphs joys and sadness her most poignant memories of the past and clearest visions for the future In the year of her seventieth birthday events converge that force Truitt to reevaluate her life She requests of and receives from her New York gallery a major retrospective of her thirty years of painting and sculpture thus throwing her work into the public eye Simultaneously she is forcibly retired from the tenured position at the University of Maryland which had granted her professional and financial security In her introduction Truitt notes writing became in the course of the year a relentless exposure of myself to myself Keenly observant she faces her own vulnerability and draws knowledge and insight from sources as varied as Cicero the Antarctic explorers and her own travels in the Canadian wilderness Preparing for the New York retrospective and successive exhibits Truitt remembers her inspirations reflects on the development of her artistic methods and goals and above all considers the meaning of both art and an artist's life At the same time she records the delights and tragedies that accompany a family's growth For Truitt art and life are inexorably joined and her narrative sings with the colors and surfaces of her celebrated sculpture BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Daybook, Turn, Prospect Anne Truitt, 1997 Daybook, Turn, Prospect Anne

Truitt, 2013-10-08 Anne Truitt's frankness and intellectual curiosity about the hows and whys of a working artist's life Megan O Grady The New Yorker are compiled in this one e volume of all three of her journals the illuminating inspiring record of reconciling the call of creative work with the demands of daily life Anne Truitt kept a journal throughout her adult life from her early years as one of the rare celebrated women artists in the early 60s through her midlife as an established artist and into older age when she was for a time the director of Yaddo the premier artists retreat in Saratoga She was always a deep astute reader and a woman who grappled with a range of issues moral intellectual sensual emotional and spiritual While working intensely on her art she watches her own daughters journey into marriage and motherhood meditates on criticism and solitude and struggles to find a balance in life Balance not stability is the source of security she says Anne Truitt re creates a life in which domestic activities and the needs of children and friends are constantly juxtaposed against the world of color and abstract geometry to which she is drawn in her art An Artist's Journey E.M. Brotzman, 2019-01-31 I migrated to Johannesburg in South Africa from London when I was twenty one years old The air was sultry and the smell of Africa hit my nostrils with a twang I was not expecting it to be so soon The sights and sounds of Africa have influenced my life and art since then A great love of the African savanna lay in my bosom from that moment Many days later when my sister and I had collected ourselves we wandered out to greet the African people in the town The one thing that would prove to us that we were in Africa were the sweet spoken natives They were kind and very helpful through all my years there Strangely we would later find that the change in seasons did not occur that was something to adjust to which I never did      An Artist's Journey Franz Liszt, 1989-06-27 Translated and annotated by Charles Suttoni These are eloquent personal writings which were published sporadically in the Paris press during the six years Liszt spent traveling in Switzerland France and Italy They are presented in chronological order each is thoroughly annotated and prefaced with a brief introductory chronicle Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Artist's Journey Travis Elborough, 2023-10-03 Follow in the footsteps of some of the world's most famous painters in this fascinating work from the Journeys of Note series Some truly remarkable works of art have been inspired by artists spending time away from their typical surroundings From epic road trips and arduous treks into remote territories to cultural tours and sojourns in the finest hotels this book explores 30 influential journeys taken by artistic greats and reveals the repercussions of those travels on the painters' personal lives and the broader cultural landscape Award winning author Travis Elborough brings each of these trips to life with fascinating insights into the stories behind the creation of some of the world's most famous paintings including Henri Matisse's vivid paintings of Morocco Katsushika Hokusai's woodblock prints of Mount Fuji in Japan Marianne North's paintings of India and David Hockney's California pool paintings      Always Reaching Anne Truitt, 2023-03-14 An expansive collection of texts providing insight into the inner life creativity and practice of the innovative American artist Anne Truitt Spanning more than fifty years this comprehensive volume collects the letters journal entries interviews lectures reviews and remembrances of the groundbreaking twentieth century artist Anne Truitt 1921-2004 Alexandra Truitt the artist's daughter and a leading expert on her work has carefully selected these writings most of which are previously unpublished from the artist's papers at Bryn Mawr College as well as private holdings Revelations about the artist's life abound Among Truitt's earliest writings are excerpts from journals written more than a decade before her first artistic breakthrough in which she establishes themes that would occupy her for decades In later texts she shares uncommon insights into the practices of other artists and writers both predecessors and peers Like Truitt's published journals these writings offer a compelling narrative of her development as an artist and efforts to find her voice as a writer They show that Truitt's creative impulse to translate the inner workings of her mind into a symbolic language so important to understanding her sculpture predates her art      The Artist's Journey: Reflections on Art, Creativity, and the Creative Life Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-06 In The Artist's Journey: Reflections on Art, Creativity, and the Creative Life Pasquale De Marco takes readers on an inspiring exploration of the creative process the challenges and joys of being an artist and the transformative power of art Through a diverse collection of insights experiences and perspectives from artists across various disciplines this book offers a comprehensive guide to navigating the artist's journey With practical advice and inspiring stories The Artist's Journey provides valuable guidance for aspiring artists and art enthusiasts alike Readers will discover essential insights into cultivating creativity overcoming creative blocks and navigating the challenges of the art world They will also encounter inspiring stories of resilience perseverance and the
