It highlights the crucial issues in development programs for libraries including annual fund raisers public relations and capital campaigns. The authors offer a blend of theory and practice for library administrators librarians and board members who are involved in library fund raising as well as for academicians and students of librarianship. The Individual's Guide to Grants Judith B. Margolin, 2012-12-06 This book is a work of conscience. It is the product of a long standing feeling of obligation on my part to write something useful for a special group of people to which you probably belong individuals who seek grants. In my years as Director of the New York library of The Foundation Center each and every day I encountered numbers of individuals looking for grant money. Although I tried to be as supportive as possible in the face of the particular problems shared by this group of library users my own reaction was one of relative helplessness. Simply stated most of the fund raising guides printed directories and computer files purportedly created to serve the fund raising public are of little or no use to individuals who seek funding on their own. These resources are directed. The Foundation Center is the independent nonprofit organization established by foundations to provide information for the grant seeking public. vii viii I PREFACE toward the nonprofit tax exempt agency which is the most common recipient of foundation corporate and government largess. They are not designed to respond to the special requirements of the individual grant seeker. In the applicant eligibility index the
