comprehensive rewriting Indigo or Mapping the Waters by Marina Warner Taking as its focus representations of femininity and the other the study scrutinises the various implications of three concepts ambivalence liminality and plurality in terms of their relevance to the conjunctures of postfeminism and post colonialism proposing that postfeminist discourse is in search of a new ethics and perspective that mainly champion these three terms through the employment of intertextuality as a strategy The study is careful to carry out a comparative analysis of the works in terms of both poetics and politics Informed by interdisciplinarity the study explores how The Tempest destabilises itself inviting a deconstructionist reading in terms of its relation to patriarchal and colonial dynamics ingrained in the play and how Indigo takes its substantial space among other rewritings of The Tempest by presenting new and imaginative ways of seeing the female and feminised figures in the play
