The Men's Club Bert Gottlieb, Thomas Mawn, 2000-03 Prostate cancer for men like breast cancer for women has very serious psychological as well as physical ramifications One author of this candid book is the patient suffering from the disease His account of his diagnosis treatment over two years and eventual cure is touching profane and often uproarious as it evokes the physical and emotional rollercoaster engendered by this illness The second author is the patient's doctor His observations alternating chronologically with those of the patient record and humane observations as the disease takes its course The result is a comprehensive understanding of the psychological the physical and the clinical aspects of prostate cancer

Men, Women, and Prostate Cancer Barbara Rubin Wainrib, Sandra Haber, Jack Maguire, 2000 Where does a man turn when he suddenly discovers he has prostate cancer In the majority of cases men turn to the women in their lives As a result this clearly written and supportive guide is primarily addressed to the women who will care for men during this illness Detailed life saving information takes readers from cause detection and diagnosis to treatment recovery and post treatment life The authors tackle both the physical and psychological aspects of life with prostate cancer For the revised edition medical studies have been updated a chapter added on alternative medicine and Internet sites listed

Oh No, Not Me! Joseph W. Lintzenich, 2001-03 In 1992 at the age of 55 Mr Lintzenich was diagnosed with prostate cancer This book is his personal story told in laymen's terms spanning over seven years The step by step journey looking at both the serious and humorous sides of this ordeal candidly tells about the fears confusion and expectations as his life was impacted by prostate cancer It begins with the shocking diagnosis and examines each step of the process as he learned of the treatment options and struggled to choose the course of action right for him The personal and medical information is a compilation of first hand experience advice from physicians literature provided by the hospital and personal research done after the diagnosis The book is for those who worry about prostate cancer for those who must decide on the choices of what to do after a positive diagnosis for those who fear prostate cancer surgery and for those who contemplate how their lives will be impacted Above all it is a book that comforts and is filled with hope for both the patient and their families Dr William J Catalona renowned prostate cancer research pioneer and surgeon commented that Joe's perspective offers hope and encouragement rather than emphasizing the bad side effects that can occur with prostate cancer surgery a vivid and often touching detail of one man's encounter with prostate cancer will be appreciated by patients and their families for its accurate information its clarity and the hope and encouragement that it gives Invasion of the Prostate Snatchers Ralph Blum, Mark Scholz, 2011 Looks at the effectiveness of the prostatectomy and surveys the latest research in prostate cancer management Intersectionality, Sexuality and Psychological Therapies Roshan das Nair, Catherine Butler, 2012-03-14 This book explores the diversity in lesbian gay and bisexual lives with the aim of opening up therapists understanding of this diversity so that they can work in an ethical supportive and non discriminatory way with these individuals Offers a comprehensive look at diversity within LGB populations including the interactions between different areas of social difference using contemporary approaches Focuses on the practitioner illustrating concepts with vignettes and case studies for implementing practical applications Emphasizes gender balance fully exploring both male and female perspectives on each topic Encompasses different perspectives including critical health psychology discursive psychology intersectionality critical and cultural theory and post colonial discourse while remaining accessible to all A.F.U.D. Prostate Cancer Resource Guide , 1998 Everything You Need to Know About Cancer Francesca Massari, 1999-12-15 Discusses the nature causes prevention symptoms diagnosis and treatment of cancer and provides advice on how to deal with its physical complications and emotional stress Healing Crisis and Trauma with Mind, Body, and Spirit Barbara Rubin Wainrib, 2006-03-17 Designated a Doody's Core Title We live in a changed world a world where the enemy is no longer in uniform on the other side of a trench There is no longer an identified war zone and the enemy may be the innocent looking person standing next to us Clear boundaries and an assumption of safety no longer exist Learning new skills to address the injuries incurred by sudden trauma and unpredictable lives is essential This book is written for those persons in the helping professions It is also written for those who have a sufficient understanding of psychology and a sufficient awareness of our current world and want to gain some knowledge about being helpful This book offers the educator and the practitioner training methods exercises and intervention techniques applicable to the gamut of experiences that we currently encounter It also will introduce readers to newer concepts and their applications such as role play spirituality the role of animals in healing and the concept of forgiveness Throughout the book whether it is in those who represent the highly resilient or those who continue to struggle a strengths perspective is emphasized Finally this book describes the Phoenix Phenomenon a concept Wainrib developed during the course of her teaching and practice which articulates and illustrates an inherent ability to use resilience in the process of converting pain into growth Counseling People with Cancer Jann Aldredge-Clanton, 1998-01-01 Few moments are as devastating as when one hears a diagnosis of cancer and one out of three Americans will hear this diagnosis in their lifetimes In this book Jann Aldredge Clanton brings a perspective from a theology of hope for people struggling with cancer She believes that in the midst of a frightening illness our spiritual task is to reunderstand our life story in light of the sacred story of God's love in the world This book is full of practical insights to enable pastors and pastoral counselors to help persons cope with the diagnosis and experience of cancer The purpose of the Counseling and Pastoral Theology series is to address clinical issues that arise among particular populations currently neglected in the literature on pastoral care and counseling This series is committed to enhancing both the theoretical base and the clinical expertise of pastoral caregivers by providing a pastoral theological paradigm that will inform both assessment and intervention with persons in these specific populations

Prostrate Cancer Robert Duffy, 2020-07-27 Generally affecting men over the age of 50 there are around 47 000 cases of prostate cancer are diagnosed each year in the UK There is currently no screening programme for the disease and the symptoms could be quite easily ignored as they don t tend to cause too many problems in the early stages Prostate cancer is the most common male cancer in the UK This essential guide provides straightforward information on the disease from what the prostate is and how to recognise the symptoms of the condition to what happens during screening and diagnosis and the treatments available Presented in an informative but conversational way the book is aimed primarily at men who have just been diagnosed with prostate cancer but anyone wanting further information on the condition can use it All the medical issues are covered in an easy to follow way together with sections that deal specifically with the emotional effects of the disease and strategies you can use to help your body fight the cancer Perfecting Private Practice Joan

Neehall-Davidson, 2004 In a readily accessible easy to read format this book presents useful hints suggestions anecdotes and lists that will help you to look within identify and ultimately achieve your personal and professional goals From getting started with the actual physical space that is your office to the incorporation and financial establishment of your practice to dealing with the most unexpected unpredictable clients and their expectations and to planning for the unexpected the answers are here The straightforward hands on approach makes reading simple the inclusion of anecdotes adds realism and interest the quick checks provide instant reminders and cues and the self disclosure questions aid in self understanding All of the suggestions are grounded in practice Some may be familiar to you already some may be novel and unexpected Sometimes however simple reminders or hints can be the most powerful and with that in mind this book was written in an attempt to demystify some of the confusion and or uncertainty surrounding the successful establishment and functioning of a private practice Intersecting Religion and Sexuality, 2020-10-20 Listen to the podcast on Chapter 2 Ethnicity Gender and

Class in the Experiences of Gay Muslims This edited collection Intersecting Religion and Sexuality Sociological Perspectives outlines what an intersectional analysis can offer research into religion and sexuality It draws on various research projects which focus on different facets of this topic such as queer sexualities unmarried motherhood and heterosexuality to explore how religion and sexuality intersect with each other and with other identities such as ethnicity gender and social class Given the predominantly heteronormative nature of many religious traditions marginality power dynamics and inequalities are central to these interrogations Intersectionality is an important theoretical lens through which to explore identities that are variously impacted by particular power dynamics and axes of privilege and disadvantage Contributors are George Okechukwu Amakor Rebecca Barrett Fox Christopher Brittain Katie Gaddini Dorota Hall Emmanuele Lazzara Andrew
