Fighting the US Youth Sex Trade Carrie N. Baker, 2018-09-27 Campaigns against prostitution of young people in the United States have surged and ebbed multiple times over the last fifty years Fighting the US Youth Sex Trade Gender Race and Politics examines how politically and ideologically diverse activists joined together to change perceptions and public policies on youth involvement in the sex trade over time reframing juvenile prostitution of the 1970s as commercial sexual exploitation of children in the 1990s and then as domestic minor sex trafficking in the 2000s Based on organizational archives and interviews with activists Baker shows that these campaigns were fundamentally shaped by the politics of gender race and class and global anti trafficking campaigns The author argues that the very frames that have made these movements so successful in achieving new laws and programs for youth have limited their ability to achieve systematic reforms that could decrease youth vulnerability to involvement in the sex trade

Street Sex Workers' Discourse Jill McCracken, 2013-04-17 Incorporating the voices and insights of street sex workers through personal interviews this monograph argues that the material conditions of many street workers the physical environments they live in and their effects on the workers bodies identities and spirits are represented reproduced and entrenched in the language surrounding their work As an ethnographic case study of a local system that can be extrapolated to other subcultures and the construction of identities this book disrupts some of the more prevalent academic and lay understandings about street prostitution by providing a thorough analysis of the material conditions surrounding street work and their connection to discourse McCracken offers an explanation of how constructions can be made differently in order to achieve representations that are generated by the marginalized populations themselves while placing responsibility for this marginalization on the society in which these people live
