Contributed seminar papers      Conflicting Identities Rabindra Sen, Anindya Jyoti Majumdar, Bhagaban Behera, 2019-06-26 In the era of globalization regionalism aims at a practical compromise between global governance and national aspirations Attempts have been made by states in varying degrees to advance cooperation towards mutual benefit in different parts of the world However the very process of regional cooperation in a defined geographical area adopts unique ways and special characters to accommodate the particularities of the region and does not lead to similar consequences when compared with the processes in motion in other areas This volume is the culmination of the brainstorming exercise of a National Seminar on Asian Regionalism in the Twenty First Century at the Department of International Relations Jadavpur University Kolkata The task is to fulfil two main objectives to join the debate on the efficacy of regionalism today and make a meaningful contribution to an understanding of the subject and also to suggest ways of tiding over the problems faced by the countries in various regions or sub regions of the Asian continent in their attempts to advance towards the goal of regional cooperation and integration The essays in this book are envisioned to benefit not only a wide community of scholars involved in teaching and research in general and the students of international relations in particular but would also be of interest to any avid reader who intends to explore the patterns of contemporary world politics Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka      Eastern Indian Ocean Lipi Ghosh, 2011-05-25 The Indian Ocean has attracted scholarly attention through ages As we talk of inter Asian linkages and inter regional arena studies the connections through the Bay of Bengal Eastern Indian Ocean is a fascinating subject This book is an attempt to understand how these issues of commercial and cultural linkages manifest along the Eastern Indian Ocean from the past to the present It aims to look at the various dimensions of the contemporary Eastern Indian Ocean and seeks to determine whether the past has any role to play in shaping contemporary contexts The discussions in the book will show how the revival of an ancient linkage can stimulate contemporary international trade and can promote regional cooperation The findings of the book will definitely lay the foundations for future analyses of the emerging India South East Asia relationship It is expected to be a pioneering attempt for a comprehensive and multidisciplinary examination of the region under review      Bangkok Marc Askew, 2004-08-02 Bangkok is one of Asia s most interesting varied controversial and challenging cities It is a city of contradictions both in its present and past This unique book examines the development of the city from its earliest days as the seat of the Thai monarchy to its current position as an infamous contemporary metropolis Adopting insights from anthropology urban studies and human geography this is a powerful account of the city and its dynamic spaces Marc Askew examines the city s variety from the inner city slums to the rural urban fringe and gives us a keen insight into the daily life of the city's inhabitants be they middle class suburbanites or sex workers Globalized Arts J. P. Singh, 2014-02-01 The spread of Islam around the globe has blurred the connection between a religion a specific society and a territory One third of the world's Muslims now live as members of a minority At the heart of this development is on the one hand the voluntary settlement of Muslims in Western societies and on the other the pervasiveness and influence of Western cultural models and social norms The revival of Islam among Muslim populations in the last twenty years is often wrongly perceived as a backlash against westernization rather than as one of its consequences Neofundamentalism has been gaining ground among a rootless Muslim youth particularly among the second and third generation migrants in the West and this phenomenon is feeding new forms of radicalism ranging from support for Al Qaeda to the outright rejection of integration into Western society In this brilliant exegesis of the movement of Islam beyond traditional borders and its unwitting westernization Olivier Roy argues that Islamic revival or re-Islamization results from the efforts of westernized Muslims to assert their identity in a non-Muslim context A schism has emerged between mainstream Islamist movements in the Muslim world including Hamas of Palestine and Hezbollah of Lebanon and the uprooted militants who strive to establish an imaginary ummah or Muslim community not embedded in any particular society or territory Roy provides a detailed comparison of these transnational movements whether peaceful like Tablighi Jama'at and the Islamic brotherhoods or violent like Al Qaeda He shows how neofundamentalism acknowledges without nostalgia the loss of pristine cultures constructing instead a universal religious identity that transcends the very notion of culture Thus contemporary Islamic fundamentalism is not a single note reaction against westernization but a product and an agent of the complex forces of globalization

Political Governance and Minority Rights Lipi Ghosh, 2020-11-29 This volume brings together a collection of essays analysing the current scenario in South and Southeast Asia with respect to the position of minority groups Based on an in depth investigation of some of the lasting minority majority conflicts of the post colonial period in countries that often escape comparison the articles are a rich and critical exposition of the social economic cultural and political dimensions of these struggles The central question being addressed is that of community rights in the modern nation state and how these are being understood by the two concerned parties and where and when thereof a situation of conflict arose Youth, Crime, and Justice Clayton A Hartjen, 2008-03-25 Close to half of the world's population is below the age of criminal jurisdiction in most countries Many of these young people are living in poverty and under totalitarian regimes Given their deprived and often abject circumstances it is not surprising that many of them become involved in crime In Youth Crime and Justice Clayton A Hartjen provides a broad overview of juvenile delinquency how it manifests itself around the world and how societies respond to misconduct among their children Taking a global rather than country specific approach chapters focus on topics that range from juvenile laws and the correction of child offenders to the abuse exploitation and victimization of young people Hartjen includes specific examples from the United States Australia Spain Switzerland New Zealand Japan

India Egypt and elsewhere as he sorts through the various definitions of delinquent and explores the differences in behavior that contribute to these classifications Most importantly his in depth and comparative look at judicial systems worldwide raises questions about how young offenders should be corrected and how much fault can be laid on misbehaving youths acting out against the very societies that produced them Tourism Recreation Research ,2003 Women Across Asia Ishita Mukhopadhyay,Suchandra Chakraborty,2006 Contributed articles on gender identity and feminism presented earlier at a workshop moderated by Indian Association for Asian and Pacific Studies and Women Studies Research Centre University of Calcutta Seeking Alternative Perspectives of Southeast Asia Andrew Tian Huat Tan,Kay Kim Khoo,2004 Asian News Digest ,2000 Prostitution, Pornography and Trafficking in Women Esther Hertzog,Erella Shadmi,2019-01-15 This book critically analyzes the sex industry in Israel using feminist concepts and scholarship to elaborate on the power of prostitution to shape a world in which women are objects for fulfilling men s desires A comprehensive collection of research based articles that examine prostitution trafficking in women and pornography from divergent disciplinary angles it reveals the interconnectedness of these three aspects of the sex trade which objectifies commercializes and exploits human and in particular women s sexuality Showing these practices to be embedded in a capitalist and patriarchal oppressive context that is accommodated by state institutions this volume rejects the argument that it is possible to choose prostitution and that feminist pornography is possible With case studies including the conspicuous context of migration that attracts sex traffickers the liberal discourse introduced by cinema the media and the arts that serve to legitimate prostitution and pornography the chauvinist macho culture that perceives and treats women as sex objects and the issues of male prostitution and men as clients Prostitution Pornography and Trafficking in Women Israel s Blood Money constitutes a study of Israel as a unique context in which the sex trade can prosper in spite of geographical religious and institutional constraints As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology anthropology history cultural studies and gender and women s studies APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service , Turismo de masas y modernidad: un enfoque sociológico Julio Aramberri,2011-12 El turismo de masas moderno no es una desagradable consecuencia de la sociedad capitalista sino una oportunidad para que la gente busque su felicidad No es mayormente una relaci n entre extranjeros y locales ya que el turismo dom stico es m s importante que el internacional en casi todos los pa ses Tampoco es primordialmente un nexo entre sociedades ricas y sociedades pobres dado que los flujos tur sticos comunican a unos pa ses desarrollados con otros Est lejos de ser una conspiraci n para mantener la hegemon a cultural de los pa ses ricos Muchos otros la aceptan sencillamente porque prefieren los servicios que ofrece el mercado y se gastan libremente en ellos su renta disponible Finalmente el turismo no es la mayor fuerza globalizadora y sus efectos culturales palidecen ante los de otros medios de comunicaci n como la televisi n o Internet El turismo de masas solo puede considerarse insostenible por quienes creen que sostenibilidad equivale a desaparici n del capitalismo y del mercado Muchas de las propuestas para mitigar el cambio clim tico que suelen equipararse con sostenibilidad son exageradas y originan gastos estos s insostenibles En suma antes de desahuciar al turismo de masas es menester poner en duda la arrogancia de la sabidur a acad mica y el autor lo logra con un gran despliegue de datos sentido cr tico y buen humor Human Trafficking Augustine Avwunudiogba,Elisha Jasper Dung,2021-11-05 Human Trafficking Global History and Perspectives argues that far from being a recent development human trafficking is rooted in the history of the human condition and has only been amplified by globalization Using a multidisciplinary approach that traces the historical roots of human trafficking in global history the chapters explore case studies from different parts of the world to show that human trafficking is not only a global phenomenon but a localized enigma The contributors contend that the causes and thus the solutions are rooted in local and regional social cultural political and economic conditions of victims The case studies include global regional and local examples to analyze the complex causes and effects of human trafficking as well as the legal ramifications Indian National Bibliography B.
