From Violence Rashida Manjoo, Jackie Jones, 2018-03-22 Violence against women remains one of the most pervasive human rights violations in the world today and it permeates every society at every level. Such violence is considered a systemic, widespread and pervasive human rights violation experienced largely by women because they are women. Yet at the international level there is a gap in the legal protection of women from violence. There is currently no binding international convention that explicitly prohibits such violence or calls for its elimination or mandates the criminalisation of all forms of violence against women. This book critically analyses the treatment of violence against women in the United Nations system and in three regional human rights systems. Each chapter explores the advantages and disadvantages coming from the legal instruments, the work of the monitoring systems and the resulting findings and jurisprudence. The book proposes that the gap needs to be addressed through a new United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Violence against Women or alternatively an Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women. A new Convention or Optional Protocol would be part of the transformative agenda that is needed to normatively address the promotion of a life free of violence for women, the responsibility of states to act with due diligence in the elimination of all forms of violence against all women and the systemic challenges that are the causes and consequences of such violence.

Research Handbook on the Politics of Human Rights Law Bård A. Andreassen, 2023-01-20 International human rights law is undoubtedly intertwined with politics and so this Research Handbook explores and provokes reflection on how politics impacts human rights legislation and conversely how human rights law shapes politics and the functioning of the state. Bringing together leading international scholars in human rights law and politics, the Research Handbook provides theoretical reflections and empirical analyses across the areas of governance and policies and examines the implementation mechanisms of human rights law in national and international jurisdictions.

Asian Yearbook of International Law, Volume 16 (2010) Kevin YL Tan, 2013-05-09 Launched in 1991, the Asian Yearbook of International Law is a major internationally refereed yearbook dedicated to international legal issues as seen primarily from an Asian perspective. It is published under the auspices of the Foundation for the Development of International Law in Asia (DILA) in collaboration with DILA Korea, the Secretariat of DILA in South Korea. When it was launched, the Yearbook was the first publication of its kind, edited by a team of leading international law scholars from across Asia. It provides a forum for the publication of articles in the field of international law and other Asian international legal topics. The objectives of the Yearbook are two-fold: First, to promote research, study and writing in the field of international law in Asia; and second, to provide an intellectual platform for the discussion and dissemination of Asian views and practices on contemporary international legal issues. Each volume of the Yearbook contains articles and shorter notes, a section on Asian state practice, an overview of the Asian states' participation in multilateral treaties and succinct analysis of recent international legal developments in Asia, a bibliography that provides information on books, articles, notes and other materials dealing with international law in Asia as well as book reviews. This publication is important for anyone working on international law and in Asian studies Comparative Study on Mandates of National Human Rights Institutions in the Commonwealth Commonwealth Secretariat, 2007 This is the first Commonwealth wide comparative study of national human rights institutions NHRIs and is designed to help everyone interested in establishing and developing NHRIs to improve their effectiveness The study looks at the international framework for the protection of human rights and the historical and political background to the establishment of NHRIs and ombudsman offices The individual mandates of various institutions are considered looking at them region by region Finally the study compares the normative framework and mandates of the NHRIs are analysed comparing what NHRIs are empowered to do and what they are doing in practice though value judgements as to the merits and demerits of individual named institutions are avoided Rather than provide a detailed theoretical analysis the study concentrates on helping practitioners and policy makers improve the working of NHRIs in practice and will be a useful tool both to the institutions themselves and to all those who wish to support them Introduction to Rwanda Gilad James, PhD, Rwanda is a small landlocked country located in Central East Africa It has a total land area of 26 338 square kilometers and is bordered by Uganda to the north Tanzania to the east Burundi to the south and the Democratic Republic of Congo to the west The population is predominantly composed of three ethnic groups the Hutu Tutsi and Twa The country experienced a major genocide in 1994 resulting in the deaths of approximately 800 000 people mainly Tutsi The genocide shattered the country's economic and social infrastructure leading to a long period of recovery and reconstruction Since then Rwanda has undergone significant transformation and is emerging as one of Africa's success stories The government has prioritized modernizing the agriculture sector promoting investment in infrastructure and reducing corruption Rwanda has also embraced technology becoming a hub for information communication and innovation The country is now known for its initiatives such as the Kigali Innovation City which aims to create jobs through attracting tech companies to set up shop in the country While there are still challenges Rwanda is making strides towards becoming a prosperous and thriving nation

Proceedings of the 1st International Seminar on Sharia, Law and Muslim Society (ISSLAMs 2022) Putu Widhi Iswari, Andi Wicaksono, Qosim Khoiri Anwar, Al Farabi, Muhammad Hanif Al Hakim, Sigit Arif Bowo, 2023-02-10 This is an open access book Wael B Hallaq a renowned sharia scholar has called sharia an episteme that suffered a structural death following the dawn of modernity in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Hallaq 2009 15 16 Yet its resurgent is remarkable across a number of jurisdictional fault lines from Muslim majority nations in Middle East and Southeast Asia to Muslim minority societies in Western Europe and North America Across these jurisdictions the relationship between sharia and state law is central It includes sharia state encounters notably in the form of state Islamic law in the field of family law which is often asserted as the core or last stronghold of sharia Moors 2003 2 Coulson 1969 115 6 and other substantive areas of law such as Islamic economics and Islamic philanthropy and also jinayah Islamic penal law Regardless of their differences in their own specific context these areas

somehow manage to secure an importance place in the modern days It involves different loci of authority to interpret legislate and enforce sharia or parts of it that not only flourish but also being challenged around the Muslim world Equally important are implications of the increasingly unsettled authority of apparently agreed upon substance of sharia To contribute on these issues we would like to invite scholars from diverse discipline including law anthropology and Islamic studies working in both Muslim majority and Muslim minority contexts to present their works in our International Seminar on Sharia Law and Muslim Society ISSLaMS
