Protective Services for Adults James Joseph Burr,1982 Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Barbara Berkman,2006-02-09 The

Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging is the first reference to combine the fields of health care aging and social work in a single authoritative volume These areas are too often treated as discrete entities while the reality is that all social workers deal with issues in health and aging on a daily basis regardless of practice specialization As the baby boomers age the impact on practice in health and aging will be dramatic and social workers need more specialized knowledge about aging health care and the resources available to best serve older adults and their families The volume s 102 original chapters and 13 overviews written by the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars in the United States and across the world provide social work practitioners and educators with up to date knowledge of evidence based practice guidelines for effectively assessing and treating older adults and their families new models for intervention in both community based practice and institutional care and knowledge of significant policy and research issues in health and aging A truly monumental resource this handbook represents the best research on health and aging available to social workers today Teaching about Aging Dena Shenk,Jay Sokolovsky,1999

Helping Battered Women Albert R. Roberts,1996 Women battering is one of the most pervasive and dangerous problems in American society today An estimated 8 7 million women fall victim to violence in their own homes each year Helping Battered Women provides students with the most current empirically based and realistic overview of policies and intervention methods combining a rich array of perspectives by internationally recognized professors and scholars in the fields of social work criminology and clinical psychology The authors provide cogent and clear arguments for advocacy and social change in such places as battered women s shelters police precincts state legislatures family courts and criminal courts The book focuses on a full range of policies and programs which include case management service models 24 hour hotlines and crisis intervention programs social worker police collaboration mandated arrest of batterers electronic technology and group play therapy for the children of battered women methods which are all effective in breaking the inter generational cycle of abuse

Clinical Decision Making for Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioners Thanavaro,Karen S. Moore,2016-03-15 Clinical Decision Making for Adult Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioners provides a systematic approach to clinical decision making for a wide variety of commonly encountered primary care issues in adult and geriatric practice Unlike other textbooks it details a progressive approach to handling such issues by focusing on the complete visit from history intake through management and follow up care The goal of this text is to enable students to learn a systematic approach to clinical problems and use evidence based guidelines to direct their management decisions Designed for both the student and the newly practicing NP this text serves as a guide to increase the practitioner's confidence with the application of assessment skills, diagnostic choices and management approaches. Throughout the text, students will find guidelines for the adult gerontology nurse practitioner role as well as real-life case studies that demonstrate what an NP may encounter in the clinical practice environment. The text is written at an application level, employs up-to-date evidence-based literature and features practice questions, all of which make this a strong resource for certification preparation. DHHS Publication No. (OHDS)., 1982 Safeguarding Adults

Gillian MacIntyre, Ailsa Stewart, Pearse McCusker, 2018-01-26. Safeguarding adults is a rapidly evolving area of professional practice and this timely new text book provides an authoritative guide that critically engages with the recent developments and encapsulates some of the emerging approaches to contemporary adult safeguarding practice. Written by a collection of authors with a wealth of academic and practice experience and with a strong focus on multi-disciplinary working, the text covers key topics such as Safeguarding adults who lack capacity or whose level of capacity is unknown or unclear. Common issues and tensions surrounding the various UK laws and policies that seek to safeguard adults with mental health problems. Safeguarding older adults with a unique and insightful focus on the perspective of carers. Current limitations in practice including the blurred nature of the boundaries between informal and legally mandated care relating to the safeguarding of people with learning disabilities. Illustrated throughout by engaging case studies to help readers apply what they have learnt to everyday practice. This comprehensive guide to safeguarding adults is essential reading for students across a broad range of health and social care disciplines as well as practitioners looking for an up-to-date source of reference. Safeguarding Vulnerable Adults and the Law Michael Mandelstam, 2008-11-15. The book focuses on how many areas of law apply to vulnerable adults, bringing together an extensive body of case law to illustrate this. Also covered is how local authorities and the NHS may themselves be implicated in the harm suffered. For example, in terms of gross lapses in standards of care and basic dignity sometimes found in hospitals. Assisted Decision-making South African Law Reform Commission, 2004
